To the Honorable John A Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia.

Humbly complaining your Orator James W Orr, would respectfully represent and show your Honor that on the 10th day of December 1868 he purchased by deed from one William L Turner a certain tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Lee County Virginia about 1 1/2 miles west of Jonesville, and known as the "Wynn Mill property". At the time of said purchase there was <sup>an said land</sup> an old mill, very much out of repair, and of little, if any, value, but the site for a mill was a very fine one.

~~The~~ The intention of your Orator at the time he made said purchase was to erect a fine mill on said property, and this intention has, since that time, and at great expense, been carried into execution. A short time after the purchase of said property by your Orator, and the Conveyance to him by said Turner, the said Turner ~~his son~~ came to him and proposed to your Orator to purchase a one fourth interest in said property, to last during the life of him the said Turner and his wife Phoebe Turner, or the survivor of them, and at the time of making said proposal, he the said Turner represented to your Orator that he had no money, but that he had a large sum of money then due and owing to him by parties living in the State of Tennessee, which funds could be readily realized by him. And upon said representations, your orator, who was then hard pressed for money to be used in paying the purchase money then still due from his Vendor Turner to the parties from whom he had purchased said lands, and for funds to be used in rebuilding said mill, agreed, in consideration of the sum of five hundred dollars, to convey to the said Wm L Turner for his life and the life of his wife, or the survivor of them, a one fourth X interest in said property, mill &c. All of which fully appears by reference to said deed, or pretended deed dated on the 12th day of December 1868, a copy of which is here filed <sup>as per hereoff</sup> marked "A". This paper your orator then and there delivered to the said Turner, but with the distinct and positive agreement upon the part of the said Turner that he would proceed at once to collect the money which he claimed was due him from parties in Tennessee, and pay your orator the sum of $500<sup>00</sup>, the Consideration mentioned in said deed, and this the said Turner has failed and still fails to do. And your orator alleges that, <sup>al</sup> though said pretended deed recites in its face that the Consideration, the $500<sup>00</sup>, has been paid, that in fact and in truth not one cent of it has ever been paid, but that the whole and every part

At a particular time now in the mind of your orator, about the day of September 1882 while we were standing above the page of the said will there a certain cedar tree talking this matter over, said Turner then and there proposed and agreed to sign any paper your orator would set up annulling said deed, and your orator replied that there was no use in having two papers attesting one to the same matter, and requested said Turner to continue his search for said will that the same might be returned to your orator, which the said Turner then and there agreed to do.

of it is still due your orator. Your orator will now further show your Honor, that the subject of the said Turner's failure to pay your orator was a matter of frequent talk between your orator and the said Turner, that the said Turner frequently and always, when the subject was spoken of, admitted his said failure and begged your orator not to press but to help him in his old age, and this your orator has done even at loss to himself, and this was done willingly by your orator because he the said Turner was a Minister of the Gospel, and his wife a near relative of your orator. Your orator will now further show and represent to your Honor that he has for years regarded that the said Turner had abandoned his purchase, that the said Turner has not for years set up any claim to said property, that for the last four or five years the said Turner has occupied said property as the tenant of your orator, and as such tenant has regularly paid rent to your orator, never at anytime setting up a claim to any interest in said property. And your orator further alleges that said Turner has often during the time that he has so occupied said property represented and claimed that said pretended deed was lost and could not be found. In this condition matters rested, until a few days ago it becoming necessary to the interest of your orator, to get another mill, and to remove said Turner from said mill, and of this fact your orator informed the said Turner, who readily agreed to give up said mill, but complained that he was old and poor and appealed to your <sup>orator</sup> to help him, but in no way, even at that time, set up any claim to said property, and at that time your orator called on him for said deed or writing, but he said it was lost, but a few days thereafter, said Turner acting under advice of some one, and with the intent of defrauding your orator out of a part of said property, or in order to force your orator to give him something, brought said pretended deed to the Clerk's office and had it recorded, although said pretended deed was never acknowledged or proved, and although on the evening after it was so brought for recordation, the said Turner again told your orator it was lost and could not be found. Your orator here again represents to your Honor that he had for years regarded said trade as rescinded, that both he and the said Turner had both in all practical ways regarded it as abandoned, that he had not for years called upon Turner for payment, nor had the said Turner set up <sup>any claim to,</sup> or in any way claimed said property, or any interest in it, or growing out of it except as a renter, as aforesaid.

has been from the inception of the matter actuated alone by an intent to defraud, because he has done nothing but misrepresent & deceive all the way through, and feeling and knowing that he had never paid your orator one cent on said purchase price of said property, and knowing that if he undertook, himself, to enforce it, that he could not do so until he had paid the sum which he had agreed to pay for the interest conveyed to him, but still intent on his purpose to defraud, he has colluded and conspired with one Charles L Hamilton to defraud your orator. To do which he on the 18th day of September 1882, as appears from a deed, a copy of which is here filed as part hereof marked "B", conveyed said interest to the said Charles L Hamilton, for the alleged consideration of $500<sup>00</sup>. This conveyance your orator alleges is not bona fide, and is not for a valuable consideration, but was made alone for the purposes of assisting the payment of said $500<sup>00</sup> <sup>to your orator</sup>, and at the same time to set up, and if possible, enforce his claim for a one fourth interest in said property, and thus defraud and injure your orator. Your orator here again alleges, that said deed was made by the said Turner and wife to defraud your orator, that it was accepted by the said Hamilton alone for the purpose of defrauding your orator, that the said Hamilton has not paid, and is not to pay, the said Turner & wife one cent for said property, unless he recover it from your orator. That the said Hamilton had full and actual notice that said Turner had no interest in said property, either in law or equity. Your orator will now further show your Honor that on the 21st day of September 1882, he posted notices on the Court house door of Lee County, and on said Mill, notifying all persons not to buy, purchase or in any way trade for the interest in said property claimed by said Turner, that he gave personal notice to said Hamilton at the time he posted said notices, that said Hamilton then asserted no claim to it, but upon the contrary advised your orator to compromise with said Turner, and yet on the morning of the 22nd of Sept 1882, he took the pretended deed last mentioned to the Clerk's office and had it recorded, said pretended deed bearing date on the 18th day of September, as aforesaid. And your orator alleges that if said deed was acknowledged <sup>on the 18th Sept</sup> and dated on the 18th as it appears it was, that it was not delivered to said Hamilton until the 22nd of Sept 1882, or at least until after the notice, as aforesaid, was given him by your orator. In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as your orator is remediless in the premises, save by the aid of a court of equity, where matters of this kind are alone cognizable, your orator prays that the said Wm L Turner & Phoebe Turner his wife and Charles L Hamblen be made parties defendants to this bill, and each required to answer the same on oath, as fully and particularly as if the allegations herein were here again repeated, and each of them thereto specially interrogated, that the pretended deed from your orator to the said Wm L Turner and wife be declared null and void and of none effect; that the deed from Wm L Turner & wife to Charles L Hamblen be also declared void and null so far as it in any way effects the rights of your orator. And if your Honor should be of opinion that the relief already herein prayed for can not be granted your orator, then he prays that the said contract between your orator and Wm L Turner may be specially performed and carried into execution by the said Wm L Turner, Your orator then offering to perform the same on his part; and that the said Wm L Turner be compelled to pay your orator the amount of purchase money of said land and mill property, with interest on the same from the date of the Contract; that proper process may issue, and that your orator may have such other further and general relief as the nature of his case may require, or to equity shall seem meet. And your orator will ever pray &c.

To the Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va

The Cross bill of Charles S.
Hamblin, a defendant in the Chancery Cause of James W. Orr against him and others, now pending in this Hon. Court. Your Complainant would state, that on the 12th day of December 1868, the plff James W. Orr, made a deed to Complainant, Co-defendant, Wm. L. Turner & Ophie Turner his wife, whereby he granted to them for the period of their lives and that of the longest liver, the  $\frac{1}{4}$  part of a certain mill lot, and  $\frac{1}{4}$  the tolls of said mill and the exclusive use of a small dwelling house. All known as the Hym Mill property. The contract for the use and occupation, tolls and rent, and indeed the whole Contract is fully set-out in said deed a copy of which is now on file in the papers of the cause to which reference is here made, as part hereof. On the 18th day of September 1882 the said Wm L. Turner and Ophie his wife sold and conveyed by deed all and singular their interest in and to said Mill, lot, tolls and rent.

a. Copy of this deed is also among the files of the papers of this cause, and which is here referred to as part of this bill. A very small part, perhaps about one year's tolls has been paid said Wm L. Turner's wife and the residue is now wholly due and owing to your Complainant. Your Complainant charges that the tolls of the mill amount annually to about the sum of \$700. or \$800 and that your Complainant is entitled to  $\frac{1}{4}$  the gross earnings and that said Orr by the terms of his Contract is bound to pay out of his part - the expense of running the mill - that is - the Contract is made and its true interpretation is that Orr pay to Turner's wife  $\frac{1}{4}$  the tolls earned by the mill. No Complaint is here made as to the dwelling house and lot attached thereto, that is now and for several years past, has been in the possession of your Orator's vendor; the deed from Orr to Turner's and from Turner's wife to your Orator have each been duly recorded and constitute as your Orator is advised a lien upon said property - The tolls of the mill have heretofore been much greater than than at the present time, and your orator has no means of stating their exact value, the only information he has upon that subject is in the proofs of the original Cause.

Your orator is advised that a sufficiency therein appears to entitle him to the intervention of a receiver to take hold and manage said mill & tolls and give a true and accurate account thereof during this controversy.

By a reference, to an ester deed on file with said Cause it will be seen that this same mill & premises had been conveyed to James W. Orr by Wm S. Turner on the 10th day of December 1868, two days before James W. Orr conveyed the life estate to Turner's wife. Neither is acknowledged but each are witnessed by the same men. Your orator charges that although these two deeds bear these different dates that they were in fact made at one and the same time, were one and the same Contract, and that they were witnessed and delivered at the same time and therefore to be read and considered as contemporaneous instruments, which in legal effect would make Turner's wife's deed a mere reservation of Tolls and the life life estate. The object of this bill therefore is to have an account of the rents and profits of said mill for the time that has passed, about as your orator is informed and charges, a period of 12 or 13 years at least from the fall of 1871. And to have a decree compelling the payment thereof to your orator; and to have a receiver appointed to take and hold said mill for and during this controversy, and keep a full and accurate account of the rents and profits thereof.

His prayer therefore is that James W. Orr be made a party hereto, and be required to answer this bill fully upon his oath and upon a hearing a decree be rendered, directing the payment of the back tolls due on said mill to your orator; that a receiver be appointed to take charge thereof; and for all other just and general relief may Supra issue.

To the Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va
 The demurrer and separate answer of Wm L. Turner, to a bill filed in this Hon. Court, by James W. Orr, against this respondent and others.

Respondent says the plffs bill is not sufficient in law and of this he prays judgement of the Court &c.

But if any other or further answer be required of him answering he says - It is not true as alleged by the plaintiff, that "after" the plff had purchased the mill property from respondent, that respondent "sought to purchase it back &c". There was but one contract made at one and the same time. The deed executed by this respondent to the plff, conveying the mill, property dated Dec. 10th, 1868, was made upon the express contract and agreement, that the plff would, as he did, on the 12 day of Dec. 1868, two days after, convey to this respondent, and his wife Phebe, for and during their natural lives or the survivor of them, one fourth of said lot, and one fourth the tolls of said mill; and the exclusive use for the same period, of a small lot and dwellinghouse near-by. This contract is clearly and truthfully set forth by copies of these deeds, filed herewith as part hereof. The one recites, the consideration of $2000. paid in hand to respondent; the other the consideration of $500. paid in hand to the plff.

In truth and in fact no money passed or was to pass as between plff and respondent.
It was but one contract, and the rights and benefits conveyed in one deed was the true consideration for the execution of the other and the nominal sums mentioned was only the estimated monetary value that each received.
The property conveyed by the respondent being valued at $2000; and the life estate being then estimated at $500. By an inspection of the plffs exhibits, and the deed of Aley Hymn alias Hurst, a copy of which is also filed herewith as part hereof marked "X" it will be fully shown, that respondent and the said Aley was at one time the joint owners of the mill property; that afterwards Mrs Hymn died her half to respondent, and he thus became the sole owner. Before respondent so purchased from Mrs Hymn he became uneasy as to their ability to meet their obligations for the original purchase, which was $1000; and of this sum respondent and Mrs Hymn had paid only $300 or thereabouts. As before hinted the property was regarded as worth $2000. and respondent was anxious to realize its full value, and save what he had already paid so he set out to sell for the best price he could and, intending to retain as far as he could an interest in the property, After various efforts, he at length, offered it to the plff, who refused to purchase a moiety, and became a joint owner with Mrs. Hym, but proposed if respondent, would purchase Mrs Hym's interest, which it was thought he could do on more favorable terms than any one else; that the plff would furnish the money to pay her, and would then assume, the payment of the outstanding original purchase money due from respondent and Mrs Hym, and that such sums as respondent had already paid the plff was to have, and actually got the benefit of. Respondent did so purchase, from Mrs Hym upon the condition contained in the deed, & conveyed the same to the plff upon the same conditions, to which reference is here made, and the conditions therein contained are much of the same nature now claimed by the plff to exist between respondent & the plff. - It would be strange if such condition did exist, that the plff, a careful prudent business man, would allow an old woman to so far outstrip him in sagacity, & business capacity.

especially when he had her example before him. Such was not contract, but for the advance on his contract, and great bargain in the property, the plff as by his deed shown agreed to and did convey the life estate, and $500. was ~~agreed~~<sup>3</sup> agreed to be paid by this respondent therefor, nor was any price other than the payments already made by respondent & the advance on his contract ever to be paid - And this respondent solemnly avers that he never in all these long years and close intimacy with the plff ever heard him claim the same until the filing of his bill. At the time of the sale to the plff, the plff was not then a man of large means, but was prosperous and rising but to pay for the property and build the mill, would tax his financial ability to the utmost, and he would have to borrow money for present demands, respondent was anxious to aid him because his interest suggested the success of the enterprise, and the sooner the mill was completed the better for all concerned. With that view he told the plff if respondent could collect some debts due him in the state of Tenn. he would let the plff use it, but no amount was fixed, and the promise was made under the condition that he could collect, he did not, nor could not collect the debts and hence could not furnish it to the plff. never was it intended to give this to the plff or pay it as a purchase, it was because the debts were rendered doubtful of collection that respondent had to see, the plff knew the fact that respondent had been a rebel in the late war, that the state government ~~was~~ of Tenn was very hostile to that class of its citizens, he knew it was because of that that respondent had to see his valuable bargain and still clinging to the hope of collecting this money promised it to the plff, but only to accommodate him by way of a loan - the letter of the plff to this respondent, containing this matter, which will in due time be filed will fully sustain this respondent in this view of the case. This use of respondent's money was no part of the contract, no parcel of the consideration of either deed. Respondent, cannot understand if the contract was for the after payment of $500. to the plff, why the plff did not so state in the deed, or have a note or bond executed for it, or retain some written evidence showing the fact. The truth is and the plff well knew it at the time; and must know it now, if his interest and supposed advantage has not effaced his recollection, or warped his judgement, that he was fully paid as x as herein before stated, in the bargain furnished him and money advanced by respondent on the original contract, to convey said life estate, - The two deeds without one word of explanation fixes the contract and all the contract there was.

But whether now regarded a bargain or not it was the contract and respondent is advised the plff is estopped to deny his own deed. Respondent reads with surprise and regret, the plffs complaint at the deed not being recorded, when it was a mutual agreement, based on terms of the most intimate friendship and mutual personal regard that it should not be so recorded; Respondent felt for these passing 14 years as secure in the plffs promise of performance as <sup>he</sup> could have done in his deed, And see too how long before the plff recorded his deed, though executed on the 10th day of Dec. 1868, was not recorded until, the 30 day of June 1871, and let him then answer the cause of his delay. For the 12 or 14 years that elapsed from the execution of said deeds down to about 3 weeks before institution of the plffs suit, respondent was a traveling preacher for about 5 years of the time, for nearly a year was a partner of the plffs in the mercantile business, and for about three years <sup>or four</sup> occupied said mill as miller and much of the residue has resided in the immediate vicinity of the plff. The plff is certainly mistaken when he says respondent ever paid any rents for the use & occupancy of said property, he now resides and for several years <sup>has</sup> with him on that embow in said deed and no rent for that or pretence that it was not the ~~plff~~ respondent was ever made, the plff received his part of the tolls, and respondent only kept such as was due him as miller while he occupied the mill, but before he went there the plff gave him an order to his miller for whatever respondent required for his and his wife's support and under this order he did collect of his tolls possibly as much as one year's receipt of his part. Respondent has no children, or near relatives, as heirs at law and for the years herein referred to, preferred the plff to anyone else having whatever of worldly goods with which he might be possessed and so after told the plff he did not want to be hard with him but so long as he could make out to live, would be as liberal as possible, but respondent has had the misfortune or fault of most life-tenants, - He has lived too long. And the plff could not remain patient.

when this Contract was made, respondent was nearly 60 years of age; and some prospect of realizing something from his property in Lema and the plff may have thought he never would have to perform his Contract, if he has been deceived in <sup>these</sup> hopes, he <sup>has</sup> no one to complain of but himself, respondent never so promised - Respondent always ever having any conversation, releasing, forsaking or giving to the plff his vested rights under his deed.

Not long since, when the plff, came to respondent, and said he wanted to see the Contract - between ~~them~~ <sup>us</sup> that he feared it contained some expression, which would give Mrs Turner heris at law some claim after her death, respondent told him he feared the paper was lost, but so far as he could he would sign any paper to prevent that, that it was only a life estate as he respondent remembered it, and then respondent said though it should be lost, I hope you will take no advantage of that as we both know what the Contract was, and he brought plff in several conversations to know what he would do if the paper was lost, and on renewed and repeated searches he still failed to find the paper and finally <sup>s</sup> to the plff he believed to be

last; it was then for the first time since the execution of said deeds that the plff, appeared cool & indifferent, and on being pressed by respondent, to answer what he would do for him if the paper could not be found the plff answered nothing that he would do nothing until the paper would ~~be~~ produce. Respondent confesses with regret that he then and there lost confidence in the good intentions of the plff towards him that the loss of his deed and the plff's action cast a gloom over him, for it lost all his hopes for support in his declining years were gone, and he was driven to the conviction that the man above all others whom he had loved, served and trusted, had deceived him, or at least had been tempted by, the prospect of a release from the burden of paying a large but honest debt; to deny his solemn obligation, and refuse a payment so just and long deferred. Under this load of grief he for the first time mentioned to respondent's wife, his fears & feelings, when he was surprised to learn that she had taken said paper from the "pocket case" where respondent put it and where he usually kept such papers had placed it in her trunk in a pocket book, among her wearing apparel, where it had not been seen or read by respondent for several years - nor did he deem it worth while for all that time he would have trusted the plffs word as his bond - and if all his friends had told him the plff would thus have acted until he did so it would have fallen on listless ears. When found respondent determined to have it recorded and did so upon advice with his wife's relation Mr. C. L. Hamblin, and on the same day he and the plff rode from town together, and the plff again refused to do anything, but the plff is mistaken when he asserts that respondent <sup>said to</sup> had not found the paper, plff asked if he had found it respondent replied, I told you, in our last conversation I had not found it or I would have shown it to you - but did not say it is not now found - It was then recorded, respondent did this to see if the plff was firm in his resolve not to aid him unless the paper could be found - Respondent is advised he was not legally or morally bound to show said paper, nor did he then believe that it was to his interest, to do so and hence refused. After recordation of the paper, and conference with other friends, your respondent felt that at his age & ~~in~~ <sup>his</sup> needy condition, would prevent him from awaiting the termination of tedious litigation for the recovery of his rights, and positively he never had heard of any reason why the plff would not pay the demand except the loss of the deed, He knew & so said to C. L. Hamblin, that it was just and due him, He knew he was not bound to pay anything further and so told Mr Hamblin, and under these circumstances and being entirely destitute of support outside of that claim, he in good faith with no fraud or fraudulent intent, or design or desire to injure the plff sold and transferred all his entire interest therein to said Hamblin, who has partly paid him therefor and promises & is bound to pay the residue according to contract. This trade was made and consummated some two or three days before the deed to Hamblin bears date and was reduced to writing but some changes were afterwards suggested & the deed of 18th Sept drawn to meet the contract fully as it was made.

Respondent therefore, deny ever by word act or deed, releasing or relinquishing his rights, remedies, tolls or any other legal claim under or by virtue of said deed - He denies any fraud fraudulent intent or knowledge of fraud in C.L. Hamblin or any one else in connection with said sale and transfer - He would further state that after the deed was recorded, and after the sale to Hamblin, Hamblin's Counsel approached said On the plff for a settlement, friendly and satisfactorily if possible, and respondent believed this circumstance, advised the plff of an intention upon the part of said Hamblin to enter suit for the enforcement of the demand, the plff then supposing a "running go" would aid his flimsy cause files his bill and cries fraud! fraud!! bad faith & deception! ~~Contract~~ for 14 years has just been discovered by the plff, when he saw an earnest to call him to account.

Respondent will await the evidence in this cause, and see the facts presented and let them answer where the fraud bad faith and deceit is. He denies ever having released abandoned or given up his contract or ever said one word or did a single act calculated to so mislead the plff. And it would be strange if the frequent conversations took place which plff allego did take place, of and concerning this matter that he is wholly unable to repeat any word so detailed. It was not the plff that stirred this matter up, and in one breath he tell us that this respondent ~~summed him up~~ <sup>summed him up</sup> ~~in~~ <sup>to</sup> do something for him, and in the next breath says he regarded the Contract as abandoned - respondent avers that never at any time did he beg alms of the plff or ask him to do or give him, respondent, anything more and except that which the plff justly owed and was long over due. But as before related when the paper was supposed to be lost, respondent appealed to the plff's honor and fair dealing not to take advantage of that Circumstance; but the plff turned a deaf ear, and grew arrogant and dictatorial over the supposed misfortune of the respondent. Respondent deems that ever the plff did anything for him, not repaid and doubly repaid, by a devotion to the personal & political welfare of the plff and a constant and faithful service in every way in his power for ten years past. And the plff ought <sup>to</sup> now to allude to things done cheerfully during the hours of, happy days and years long gone by.

Respondent has thus fully answered the plffs bill, according to the facts and evidence of these facts all fully cognizant to the plff. But respondent, may have over confided, in the plff; his delay may be his ruin; and the plff may, being an attorney and shrewd business man, have thus gained advantage over him; if so, be it so. That will not nor does not alter the truth - It stands unchanged, and respondent still believes in its ultimate triumph.

If he is mistaken in the law resulting from these facts, and should therefore fail in the recovery of his just claims, then he is advised he must accept the Contract as claimed and urged by the plff. That as the plff claims the five hundred dollars as a consideration; and if he shows that to the satisfaction of the Court, notwithstanding its utter falsity, and great wrong upon respondent, still as no time was agreed upon by the parties within which said five hundred dollars was to be paid, and as the plff still claims and demands it as due to him, then a Court of Chancery in that event would direct an account of the rents and profits of said mill, and

and after deducting from the said five hundred dollars the purchase money paid by respondent and Mrs Hymn and which the plff got the benefit of so much of said rents as would discharge the same would be applied to said sum, and the residue if any with the future rents and profits be divided to be paid over to this respondent's assignee. Respondent alleges that the rents and profits of said mill will greatly over pay the same by the application of respondent's one fourth thereof. And should the plff succeed in establishing such false & unjust demand then he asks an account of the rents and profits of said mill, and account and settlement of the same.

Respondent is further advised that as the plff claims the consideration of the mill lot to be $2000 so much of that price as he has not paid is still due respondent, and this respondent alleges that the plff has paid in money only to Mrs Hymn and the original vendors, and nothing to respondent about $1500 of that sum, which was the price agreed upon, and that the other $500 is still due him, should he be held liable for the consideration set forth in the plff's deed, and he here calls on the plff to show when how & to whom he paid said $2000. But respondent would be uncanced did he not admit that this was the amount considered due him on his bargain and for his services, and that it was paid him in the execution of the deed of Dec. 12. 1868, still if respondent should have that to pay in cash he is advised the plff. having admitted the purchase price must show its payment. - on this point the plff. is painfully silent - why did he not tell us when to whom and how he paid for his property the $2000. Contained in the deed as the price - and having now fully answered he says to be desirous with his costs.

John R. Gibson
 Clerk

To the Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va.
The demurer and answer of Ohebe Turner, to bill filed in this Hon. Court against this respondent and others by James W. Orr.

Respondent not waiving her said demurrer, but relying and ~~insisting~~ on the same for further answer says.

She does not personally know, of many of the facts stated in the plffs bill, but she has heard ... her husband's H. M. L. Turner answer to this bill carefully read & adopts the same as her own, in answer to the plffs bill, believing it to be true. Respondent knows that the deed of 12th of Dec. 1868, conveying a life estate in said mill lot, and out lot & dwelling house, was executed by said Orr and delivered to her husband, that at that time, as now she was a married woman, and on hearing the deed read, she felt grateful to her husband for sharing fully his benefits derived thereunder with respondent and she never at any time heard that her husband had anything further to pay, but always at that time, and all subsequent times, understood and believed that the consideration of said deed was the part due to her husband, on his bargain over and above what the plff would have to pay Mrs Hymn and the vendors of Mrs Hymn and her said husband - And never until the institution of the plffs suit did respondent learn that the plff claimed the payment of any money thereunder. She is advised that, as said deed purported on its face, be fully paid and satisfied and that the plff, conveyed his property to her, without any conditions whatever, <sup>or previous</sup> or notice of an outstanding claim for purchase money that she is an innocent purchaser, in law without knowledge of the plffs supposed claim for purchase money, and that her rights can not be affected by any subsequent, promise or agreement of her said husband to pay or furnish sums of money. She was no party to such a contract, nor does she believe there ever was such an one, but if so it can not as she is advised affect her or her assignee.

Without ~~out~~ any knowledge of such a claim upon the part of the plff, or any reason to believe that such was the case, she joined in a conveyance of her interest thereunder to C. L. Hamblin, not through any fraud or fraudulent intent, but through the force of necessity, rendered imperative by the plff's absolute refusal to pay anything to respondent and her husband. Respondent thought she saw several years ago, an over confidence in her husband towards the plff, and as she was growing old, and less able to work she thought proper to keep a careful eye over said deed, and so she took it out of the "pocket case" where it had been placed, filed it in a pocket book among her own wearing apparel, where it has remained in her care for several years past; and its control has been watched over by her, without the knowledge of where it was by her husband, so far as she knows. Indeed nothing has been said about it until recently her husband expressed fear of its loss and repeated his difference with the plff, when she informed him of its safe keeping. There are all the facts within her personal knowledge except the receipt under the plff's order of some tolls at different times before she & her husband removed to the mill - Her sale with her husband to Hamblin was a fair & honest one, for value justly paid and hereafter to be completed, and she denies any fraud or fraudulent intent - She denies that her assignee may be allowed the full fruits of his contract for her part; and she is advised the plff, can not claim exemption from his deed to her by reason of any supposed bargain or contract with the husband of respondent, but that independent of her sale to Hamblin she would be regarded in law as an innocent purchaser without notice. On this she relies to protect and shield her vendee, who has used his means to purchase a just and honest claim. And having now fully answered she prays to be dismissed with her costs.

To The Hon. John A. Kelly, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County.

The separate demurer and answer of Charles L. Hamblin, to a bill filed in this Hon. Court against him and others by J. W. Orr.

Respondent says the plffs bill is not good and sufficient in law, and of this he prays judgement of the Court or.

But if any other or further answer be deemed necessary, answering he says, That before, the day on which his assignors had recorded the deed of the plff, dated Dec. 12. 1868, respondent had no knowledge whatever of the transaction between the plff and his co defendant, Mr + Mrs Turner, on that day Rev. Wm L. Turner, who is the uncle by marriage of respondent came to him and showed him said deed, and related the matter of difference between him and the plff, to this effect - That, for some time, the plff and said Turner had regarded said paper as lost, and the plff had refused payment until the paper could be found; The plff contending that he would not pay anything in the absence of the paper, and that now it had been found, said Turner asked advice of respondent what was best to be done, respondent advised him to have the deed recorded and then the plff could see it without injury to said Turner and respondent took the paper over to the clerk's office and had it recorded - and then his uncle besought him to purchase it and furnish him and his old aunt something to live upon, He accordingly did purchase it, and has partly paid therefor by furnishing goods wears & merchandise to his assigners as they may need them Respondent has bound himself to pay the residue, hereafter, and whatever may be found due from the plff is justly going to this respondent, his assigners having no interest whatever therein. This respondent, was not informed by his assigners or any one else of any such claim as the plff sets up; that his assign or, was to pay five hundred dollars, the consideration mentioned in said deed, nor had <sup>respondent</sup> ever heard the plff make such claim, but he relied upon the fact that said deed recited the payment thereof and he believed it to be true. He was induced by the face of said deed, being in the hand write of the plff, and knowing his ability to pay, to believe & he did believe the demand to be a just

one. The contract and purchase of said claim, was made a day or two before the deed to respondent bears date, but on that day it was reduced to writing and delivered to respondent, and all the rights remedies and amounts due thereunder, was as respondent is advised passed to and became vested in this respondent. The trade was made, and the deed executed and delivered to this respondent before the plff. posted his notice or gave this respondent any information concerning said claim and he did not state in his notice or verbally to this respondent, that said deed was delivered to said Turner on the secret condition of the after payment of five hundred dollars or any other sum. But seemed to insinuate that said deed was not in some way binding. All this was after respondent's purchase and assignment. The deed to respondent for said property, was executed on the day it bears date, and was the result of a trade consummated a day or two before. The plff says in a conversation had with respondent on the day he gave notice, that respondent did not tell him he had purchased said property, so he did not, nor was he as he is advised bound under any consideration so to do, the trade and the rights of parties <sup>were then</sup> fixed: but respondent would have so advised the plff, but for his excited manner, and seeming ill feeling

They had been (the plff & respondent) for several years partners in business as merchants, and all their lives personal friends, and respondent did not want, to further irritate the plff or cause ill feeling, so said to him "I hope your uncle Turner can settle the matter;" and if the plff had at that time proposed to, do so much as would have been reasonable and right, respondent would have released any contract, upon his part to have affected that laudable object. He then and now, desires the friendship of the plff, and hopes he deserves and enjoys it.

But he can not afford to purchase it, by refusing aid and counsel to his own near relatives, who are poor and distressed and who had as respondent believed and still believes, a just and valid demand against the plff. Respondent immediately upon the purchase of said paper, the deed of the plff to Mrs Mrs Turner, sought legal advice, with a view to enforce his demand, but before doing so he requested his counsel to confer with the plff and make known his object, this was partly done, but the plffs prompt refusal, to entertain propositions of settlement, induced his counsel not to enter into details, but merely suggested that said claim had passed into the hands of other parties, and after this conversation and notice the plff pastes his notice as <sup>often</sup> mentioned in his bill, and instituted this suit, supposing no doubt that this would gain him some advantage. This respondent alleges he is an innocent purchaser without notice of the plffs demand against his assignors for five hundred dollars or any other sum. Respondent can but be amused at the plffs wild and repeated charges of fraud; fraud in what? if the plff, is as innocent in intention to defraud and ruin his assignor as is respondent in act or thought to injure him the plff, then this whole matter could be settled. There is no fraud or fraudulent intention on the part of this respondent, nor has he any knowledge of any such intention, on the part of Wm. L. Turner, or Mrs. Turner, in relation to said assignment. He therefore firmly but respectfully, declares such allegations to be false & unfounded - untrue so far as this respondent is concerned or knows of others. Respondent is advised that as the plff executed his deed jointly to Wm L. Turner & Phebe his wife, that they each took a moiety of the tolls, with the right to the whole to the survivor of them. The plff utterly fails in his bill to show any sufficient reason for not paying the moiety due Mrs. Turner, she never promised to furnish any money or has in conversation or otherwise released or abandoned the same, and no purchase money being due by the face of said deed, and this respondent being a purchaser without notice for value, He is advised, whatever may be the case with Wm L. Turner's moiety that the moiety of Phebe Turner is justly due him; Respondent knows nothing personally of the conversations, and supposed releases, between Wm L. Turner and the plff, but refers to his co-defendant's answer, for the facts in relation thereto. But the plff makes no such claim to the interest of Phebe Turner, - Respondent again denies any fraud collusion intention or design to injure or defraud the plff - nor can he see, how the collection of a just demand can defraud him, and respondent regrets that the plff thought it necessary to prefer such grave charges of fraud and collusion, against one, who has as the plff must know endeavored through life to acquire property by honest and fair means - Respondent denies every material allegation affecting his rights in the premises as assignee not herein before specifically admitted or denied, and having now fully answered the ~~pleff~~ bill, he prays an account of its rents and profits of said mill, which plff has no means of ascertaining, what amount he should demand only as informed, and he is advised that the one fourth part due him annually would amount to some 300 or 400 bushels of grain, mostly wheat, nor can he say what each year would be the market value thereof - But all of which has been used or consumed by the plff except as he is advised about one year rent, the amount whatever it is and interest thereon from the time so consumed by the plff would now be due respondent, He therefore prays a reference of account of said rents and profits tolls and interest to a commissioner of this Court and a decree over for the residue, and that the future rents tolls be decreed respondent. And having now fully answered he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs.

J. A. Hyatt
clerk

To the Honorable John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia

The Demurrer and answer of James H. Orr to a Cross bill filed in This Honorable Court against him by Charles L. Hamblen.

This respondent is advised That said Cross bill is not sufficient in law to call upon him to answer in This Honorable Court, but That there is good cause of demurrer thereto ~~and~~ ~~that~~ he does accordingly demur and prays Judgment &c of his said demurrer.

But should other and further answer be required of him answering he says, That it is True That he did on the 12th day of December 1868 make and execute the deed referred to by the Plaintiff, but said deed, as is charged and alleged by This respondent in the original bill, was made in consideration of $500<sup>00</sup> The purchase price agreed to be paid by W<sup>m</sup> L. Turner for the interest conveyed to him and his wife in said Mill property by said deed Not one cent of which has ever been paid by the said Turner and wife or either of them. Said deed clearly sets out the full interest in said property conveyed to the said

Turner and wife, That is "one undivided fourth of said Mill lot or Tract with its appurtenances and one fourth of the tolls of the mill, also the exclusive use of the house and garden then occupied by them" for their lives or the life of the survivor of them. This lot or Tract of Land contains about 40 acres and is valuable alone as a mill site. At the time of making said deed there stood upon said lot an old mill, badly run down & much worn and of very little value, in fact in its then condition it would do little or no grinding. As the plaintiff contends for a literal construction of said deed, then he ought to be content with one fourth part of the tolls of the mill then standing on said lot and the mill evidently referred to in said deed. Yet he does not seem satisfied with that but claims one fourth of the tolls of the mill afterwards erected on said lot although his vendor never contributed a single cent toward the erection thereof. In the year 1869, respondent by & with the consent of the said Turner and pursuant to his advice repaired said old mill at a cost of $300. But it was in such condition that after being thus repaired it did but little good and did not last long and a new Mill had to be erected. At the time this Mill property was purchased by respondent he was young just beginning business for himself and in addition Thurt had only one arm and was poor and hard run, and it was these facts that induced him to sell to said Turner the interest above named in said property, respondent hoping thereby to get <sup>money</sup> to use in repairing said property and making it valuable, but his calculations in this respect sadly came to naught. After this trade was made respondent and Turner determined to improve said property as far as possible, but being then unable to erect a new mill we determined to repair the old one which we did at a cost of $300<sup>00</sup> all of which was paid by respondent and not one cent by said Turner. But the mill still proving unsatisfactory and of little value it was soon determined by us to build a new mill. But this enterprise was not carried into execution until the year 1872. and Turner was at that time off preaching and in charge of a circuit. It was the understanding and agreement between said Turner and respondent That these expenses of repairing the old mill and building the new one should be borne ratable between us in proportion to our respective interests That is respondent was to pay or bear three fourths of these expenses and and the said Turners the other fourth. And to this end the said Turner was to collect so far as he could the debts due him in Tennessee and furnish his proportionable part of the money for said undertaking. The old mill proving unsatisfactory as above stated, Respondent in the year 1872, with the full knowledge of said Turner, with his consent and at his earnest solicitation and pursuant to the above mentioned agreement built the new mill and paid for the same with his own money. An account of the expenses of repairing the old mill and building the new one is here filed as part hereof marked (Q) And since said new mill was built, it has been all the time kept in repair by respondent and that too at great expense an account of which is here filed marked (P) all these expenses were and are joint expenses to be borne by respondent and

+ Turner <sup>as aforesaid</sup> ~~notably~~ according to intent, but respondent has borne them alone without help or assistance from said Turner, and as stated in the original bill filed by plaintiff the fact of said Turners failure to pay for said property, or to contribute anything towards its improvement were subjects of frequent conversation between him and respondent after his return here about the year 1875. In these conversations the said Turner freely admitted his failure to comply with his part of the undertaking and he set up no claim to said property, no claim to any interest in it, and no claim to any part of the earnings of said mill, And ~~from~~ <sup>from</sup> the year 1871 to the year 1882 he occupied said Mill as the Tenant of respondent paying to respondent all the earnings of said mill after paying himself as Miller. But now strange to say the plaintiff who claims to be the vendor of Turner sets up a claim to 1/4 of the gross earnings of said New Mill from the time of erection down to the present and for the balance of the lives of the said Turner and wife or the ~~or the~~ survivor of them, and at the same time denies his obligation to contribute anything towards said expenses.

Respondent has also at his own expense and at a cost of $ <sup>and other valuable/permanent improvements</sup> erected a neat and substantial Mill his house, on said lot, an account of which is here filed marked (B). Respondent has also paid all the tax es on said property amount to $ <sup>an account of which</sup> is here filed marked (C). All these expenses, are as respondent is advised, a lien upon said Mill property, being as they were incurred on partner ship property and for the permanent improvement things, and he is further advised that all, that is all, of Turner's part thereof must be repaid to him before the said Turner or his vendor can get anything out of the Tolls or earnings of said Mill. Respondent is further advised that the Plaintiff even if he is an innocent purchaser occupies in relation to said property the exact position of his vendor, that he holds said interest conveyed to him by said Turner & wife subject to all the equities, offsets and claims of the ~~respondent~~ against said Turner, and that therefore before he can claim any of the earnings of said Mill he must pay the valuable part of creating it and the necessary and permanent improvements made upon it, the repairing and keeping it in order The Tax is the Respondent denies That There is any part of the back Tolls due to Turner and wife, How much They have received respondent is unable to tell, but if they ever received anything by way of Tolls he had no knowledge of it, and it was without his assent he could not have been sitting pay. There is nothing due Them, because to Take it upon the most charitable view that can be extended to Them or Their vendor, Their proportion part of the expenses heretofore incurred upon said property must all be taken from the <sup>net</sup> Tolls earned by said mill and for They are entitled to receive anything.

Respondent denies That the gross Tolls arising from said Mill will amount to either \$700. or \$800 a year, but the exact amount, of said Tolls yearly respondent is unable to state never having kept an account, There of. Respondent denies the interpretation given to the deed of Dec 12 1868, by the plaintiff. Such an interpretation as it appears to respondent is absurd, and contrary to all rules of interpretation and in while about the time of their sale or individual survey to the people violation of the plain simple rules of grammatical construction. The plaintiff's recitals took by said deed, if they took anything, a joint interest, to the extent of their interest, in said property, that is an undivided  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the lot, and of the mill, but they took it subject to all legal charges, and one of those charges was the payment of the miller's wages for attending & running the mill, Respondent alleges and avers that the contract between him and Turner was that the nett tolls and not the gross tolls of said mill were to be divided he taking  $\frac{3}{4}$  and they  $\frac{1}{4}$  of said nett tolls, and he is advised that this is the true reasonable and correct interpretation of said deed, there is not one single word or syllable in the whole of said deed binding respondent to pay or by which he undertakes to pay to Turner  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the tolls, but as before stated he simply deeds to them an interest in the property, and it would be just as fair to say that Turner in accepting said deed became bound to pay him  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the gross earnings of the mill, as it is to say that he in making the deed understood to pay them  $\frac{1}{4}$  thereof. Respondent admits that it is true that said mill lot and premises were conveyed to him by the said Turner, on the 10th day of December 1868 or just 2 days before the deed conveying the above said interest back to him, but, he positively denies that both these trades were one and the same transaction, and he avers that they were what they are shown to be by the deeds separate and distinct transactions having no connection whatever with each other. he positively denies that they were made witnessed or delivered at one and the same time. He denies that the legal effect of said two instruments is a reservation by Turner and wife of a life estate in said property. By a further inspection of said deed of Decr 10th 1868 of Turner to respondent it will be observed that he warrants generally the title of the lot or premises conveyed by him, and yet his wife does not join in said conveyance the

has therefore a contingent right of claim in said property, and respondent is advised that he has a right to retain enough of what may still be due to Turner, <sup>either at present or in the future</sup> if anything, to compensate for said contingency. Respondent denies that the Plaintiff is an innocent purchaser of said property for valuable consideration and without notice of respondent's ownership of said property. he denies that said Plaintiff had paid the consideration mentioned in said deed or any part thereof at the time of the institution of said original suit, he also denies that said Plaintiff has paid any material part of said consideration even up to this time. But he alleges that the whole of said consideration even if the trade between himself and said Turner was bonafide, was due from him to them at the time of the institution of said original suit. That much the largest part of it is still due them, and as his claim for improvements and repairs is a lien upon said property as against said Turners and the plaintiff as their vendor, it would also be a lien upon any sum still due to them from said plaintiff. Respondent has no objection <sup>to</sup> an account of the Tolls and earnings of said Mill since its creation, but he insists that while this is being done that he is entitled to an account of the improvements and repairs made upon said property by him.

He denies the right of the plaintiff to a receiver, such a thing is unnecessary ~~and~~ because respondent is now living and has had since he found that said Turners set up an interest in said property, a correct and exact account kept by his Miller of the earnings of said Mill, and for the further reason that said property is according to the claim of the plaintiff partnership property, held voluntarily by the plaintiff if held by him at all, with full knowledge upon his part ~~before~~ he bought it that ~~respondent~~ was controlling it.

and now having answered said bill as fully as he deems it material or necessary for him to answer the same and requiring full proof of every allegation not herein confessed he prays to be hence dismissed &c.

The delivery of the deed of 12th Decr. 1868 by the grantor to one of the grantees, vested in the grantees the legal title to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the mill property for the life of the longest liver, and by operation of the 14th sec. of Ch. 116 of the Code of 1860, transferred to ~~the~~ them the possession of the grantor as effectually as if they had been enfeoffed with livery of seisin. Sec. 4. of same Chapter gives efficacy to even a grant, without livery. But this deed is a simple deed of bargain and sale. If the bill is interpreted to mean that the delivery was conditional, and only to be effectual when the purchase money was paid, the condition is void, because the delivery was to the grantees, the deed was perfect on its face, and acknowledged the payment of the purchase money. Miller v. Fletcher 27 Grattan 403. Especially is it not admissible to annex a contemporaneous parol condition to a perfect deed of conveyance, on its delivery to a grantee by the grantor. Staples f. same case p. 415. But the bill itself does not assert that the ~~delivery~~ was conditional. The fair interpretation <sup>of the bill</sup> is that the price of \$500<sup>00</sup> was agreed on. Pursuant thereto, the deed was duly executed, formally acknowledging receipt of purchase money, and was delivered, the grantee promising at once to proceed to collect and pay to the grantor the purchase money. There is no more than happens in every case of sale on time, where the parties, for the purpose of giving effect to the conveyance, under the statute of uses, acknowledge the receipt of purchase money. But the failure to pay according to agreement never has been held to defeat the estate granted nor to give the party an equity to have the contract rescinded. The remedy given by the law of this State, since the lien for purchase money has been abolished, is simply an action for the money. Turner and wife then had a simple feehold estate for life of  $\frac{1}{4}$  th of the mill property on the 12th day of December 1868. On the 13th of June 1872, nearly 4 years after the delivery of the deed plaintiff Orr recognizes, in his letter of that date an interest in Turner, in this property. It was manifestly an interest under this deed. So that in June 1872 it may safely be held that Turner & wife owned an estate of feehold in the  $\frac{1}{4}$  th of the mill property here in dispute.

Has any thing occurred since ~~then~~ to defeat that estate? There is no pretence in the bill of any contract between the parties by which the estate has been transferred to the plaintiff; nor is there a statement of ~~the~~ any contract or agreement to reconvey, which the court is called on to execute. It is said that Turner has abandoned his purchase. If this is so, it is not a subject of equity jurisdiction. If he has abandoned it, <sup>absolutely</sup> effectively, there is no need of aid from a court of equity, or of law. If he has not effectually abandoned it, a court of equity will not compel an absolute abandonment, unless upon some such ground as gives the plaintiff a right to relief. At law mere abandonment will not divest a freehold estate: no parole surrender will operate: not even a cancellation of the deed of conveyance. Code of 1860 sec. 1 Ch. 11 b; Grayson v. Richards 10 Leigh. At law abandonment by one party, and an adversary possession by the other; that is, abandonment by the grantee, and adversary possession by the grantor, long enough continued, will reinvest the grantor with title, just as any adverse possession under claim of right, will ripens into title. See mur v. Freeman 7 S. V. Rep. 430. But equity never interferes where there is a legal remedy, and no special ground for equitable relief. Equity, in a proper case, would enforce a contract to reconvey; but there is no allegation in this bill of any such contract. The bill rests the claim to relief on abandonment, and failure to pay the purchase money. But the purchase money can be collected by action at law; & if there is such an adverse possession by the grantor against the grantee as brings the case within the statute of limitations, any portion of the land held by the grantee now can be recovered in ejectment. Upon this view the demurror must be sustained. But if this view is not sound, then there is no evidence of the contract, but the answers, the deeds, & the letters. Upon the face of the deeds no purchase money is due. Upon the answers nothing appears to be due. Upon the letters there is no evidence of any purchase money being due; but probably, in a suit in which the question was properly made, a claim for contribution to the building of the mill might be enforced. The bill is not framed with that view, nor are the facts stated in the bill such as to justify the court in granting that relief. Perhaps the plf. will prefer amending his bill with a view to setting up this claim, and with a view to give him that privilege, a final decree will not now be entered. Craig and Atcherson v. Nichols 1 H. & M. 429, is not the case of an executory, but an executory contract.

The deposition of M. C. Miles C. T. Duncan & others taken before me at my office in the town of Jonesville on the 30th June 1884, <sup>& succeeding days</sup> which are intended to be read as evidence in support of Oorr's account, "in the above styled cause."

M. C. Miles a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says - Question by Defendant, Orr.

Did you receive from Dixon Smith & Co of Bristol a lot of Mill Irons for James W Orr in the year 1872 and haul them to Jonesville if so who paid you for hauling them and how much per 100 lbs.

Answer - I did haul said mill irons from Bristol to Jonesville for Mr Orr, I don't remember the exact No. lbs - but think it was 600 or more pounds, he paid $1.25 per 100 lbs - for said hauling

Question by Same Do you recollect of getting & hauling for Mr Orr a quantity of finishing Nails at the same time if so state about how many pounds.

Ans. I have some recollection of getting at the same time for Mr Orr, a lot of finishing nails, I think about 50 lbs - which I hauled for him, I don't recollect whether I paid for them or not.

I was driving a team for Mrs Bonham & this hauling was paid for, to Banham. Question by Sam Do you recollect doing any work on the new road which was made necessary by the erection of Orr Mill dam, if so who paid you for the same, and if you recollect the amt paid you.

Ans - I worked on said road, but don't recollect the amount paid me for said work - Mr. Orr paid me 75¢ per day for said work I think it would amount to as much as 9 or $10. -

Mr. D. C. Bonham superintended for Mr. Orr and as road crew, the making of said road, L. P. Miles, Samuel Miller, H. Linsford, (3 days each), and others worked on said road, Question by Sam, Was you present while the dam was being erected by Mr Orr, if so did Riley Stone and his hands work on said dam, if so please state if you know how much Mr Orr was to pay said Stone for the work of himself and hands?

Ans - I was present while the dam was being erected, it was built at the time we worked on the road, Riley Stone and his hands worked at said dam I was informed <sup>by Stones hands</sup> that Mr. Orr was to pay Mr. Stone 50¢ for his and his hands

Clarion
Ticket 50

Question by Defendant Orr.

Were you road Commissioner in the year 1872 Answer. I was.

Question by same. Did you as such open and build the new road around <sup>for</sup> ~~the~~ Mill dam? if so please state how much the building of said road cost and by whom said sum was paid.

2 Answer. I did open said road, by order of the Court but to be paid for by Mr Orr. I kept an account of the cost of said road, and it cost $43.80, which sum was paid by Mr Orr. I have <sup>examined</sup> the account of Mr Orr as kept by him on his book, and it is correct so far as it goes but that I see only amounts to $28.75 and after the road was finished I settled with him and he paid the balance. of the $43.80 which was the total cost of said road Question by same. Did you notice ~~the~~ whether or not in the building of said New Mill Mr J H Orr gave his personal attention and superintendence to said enterprise, and if so what do you think would be a fair price for his services and the care and attention given by him to it.

Answer — I know Mr. Orr supervised the building of the mill, he was clerk of the Courts of Lee County at the same time, and seemed to me to be much pressed with business — while I don't know what his attention and supervision was worth, I would not have been willing to have done like service for less than $100.00. I have had some experience in building mills and machinery of like kind both in Smyth & Lee Counties, having erected a saw mill near Jonesville and now operate the same.

several days but dont remember the exact number of days - my recollection is that Mr Orr paid me for Testimon by Deft Orr. Do you recollect letting Mr Orr have some plank to use in his new mill in The year 1872. if so state as nearly as you can

The amount of said plank and what he paid you for it?

Answer, I let Mr. Orr have the amount of plank, I see stated in his account and he paid me for the same $7.08.

Question by same Did you haul any of the plank used by Mr Orr in the work on the old mill as repaired by Darter, if so where did you haul it from.

Answer - I did haul plank for him, which he used in constructing the cistern, race &c of the old or Darter Mill, from Pennington's saw-mill I made one load per day and was engaged several days, but can not now state how many. I however know that the hauling I done amounted to over $20.00 which was paid me by Mr. Orr.

There had to be, and a considerable amount of work was done on the race - Clearing it out and putting in troughs &c &c.

I am of opinion, but do not exactly know, that the work of every kind done in building the Darter Mill, or repairing the old mill, would reasonably have been worth or cost at least 300$.

1 I remember that Mr. Orr got some plank from Thos. Baylor while rebuilding his new or present mill, but don't know how much.

Mr Edwards please state as near as you can what work you personally to have been done on the mill race in order to put the Dexter Mill to running.

Mr Edwards please state whether you have had any practical experience in building Mills, and if so state what that experience has been. And you will also state <sup>on</sup> what basis you make your calculations when you say you think the Dexter mill cost at least $300.?

Answer - I have had some experience in work on mills, having assisted in building a mill on Wallens Creek, and as I have stated was engaged in hauling &c for the erection of the mill here in question and formed my idea from what I observed.

Question by same. Did you ever do any work or make any repairs on the house now occupied by Dr H. L. Turner, if so who paid you for it and how much Answer. I don't think I ever done any work on said house.

Question by same did you ever do any work on said mill or mill race if so please state what work and who paid you and how much?

Answer. I done some work about the water wheel of the present mill for which I was paid in flour or meal at the mill to the extent of 75<sup>c</sup> or $1.00. And further this witness saith not.

Question by same. Have you, would any at said mill in repairing it since the new mill was started if so please state about how much, and who paid you for it. also when you did it.
Answer - I have worked at said mill at different times in repair ing the same, I kept an account of said work at each of said times, and as Mr. Orr & myself would settle, I would lay the account away, and I cannot now find all said accounts, I find one paper which shows that I done five days work in 1879, 3 days in 1881 8 days in 1882 prior to July 31st, amounting to $21.50, I performed this work as a mechanic, I did work for him on the water wheel cog wheels, race and else where about the mill where it needed repair, I am confident that Mr. Orr has paid me first and last at least 50¢ for what work I done as repairs on said mill from the time it commenced operation until July 31st 1882.

I remember that Robert Lyon repaired the water wheel, I think in the year 1877, by fixing the same and otherwise, I cannot say exactly what ~~amount~~ his work amounted to.

Question by same. Did you repair for Mr Orr or assist in repairing the dam. if so state the extent of said repairs and what it was reasonable worth including lumber and all material used, as nearly as you can

Answer - I did assist in repairing said dam, I had the job under my management, and put new plank on about  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the dam, I think the entire work, including lumber and other material, would reasonably be worth \$16.

Question by same. Mr. Wynne you have lived close to said Mill, and have observed its wear and tear. Will you please give me your best opinion as to what has been the cost of keeping said Mill in repair including race dam picks and everything else about the Mill from the time it started in August 1872 down to September 1882?

Answer - I should think it had cost $300 or more.

Question by same. Did you work for Mr Orr in erecting his mill, & dam. if so please examine his account of your work and state if you think it correct.

Ans - I did work for Mr. Orr on said Mill & dam during its erection and I have examined his account of my work and payments made to me by him, amounting to $31.50 which includes $8.00 for plank furnished him, and the same is correct to the best of my recol-

Question by J W Orr. Did you assist in building the New Miller's house erected by J W Orr on his Mill lot if so please state who was the contractor for building said house the size of it and as nearly as you can the price paid by Mr Orr for the Carpenter's work under it.

Answer. I did assist in building said house, My Brother Elias was the contractor said house is a one story house, with two rooms, about 9ft high in the clear, the house is 36ft long, 16ft wide with a stack chimney in the center, my brother had a <sup>except painting & plastering</sup> turn key job of the building, and my best recollection is that he received for said job of work $300. or 350$. but Mr. Orr now refreshes my memory by stating that he paid for said work 300$ - This work was done in the spring of 1875.

Question by Same. Who did the plastering on said Miller's house?

Answer - Drury Verrable.

Question what was the plastering of said house reasonably worth.

Answer— I think it would be reasonably worth $54.50 as I find by calculation that there is 185 Sqr. Yards of plastering in said rooms and that is putting the work at 30¢ pr. square yard.

Question by same. Did you and your brother Elias Vanhus build the granary or store house on the mill lot if so at what price?

Answer— We did build said house for which Mr. James W. Orr paid us $100.00. I think said house was built in the year 1877.

Question by same. Have you done any work in repairing the mill. if so please state when how much who paid you for it, and the amount paid you, as nearly as you can.

Answer— I have done work at various times, in repairing and keeping in running order said mill, I ~~assisted~~ erected new troughs from the road to the mill wheel, a distance of about 60 feet, and at the same time we erected new trestle-work under said troughs, I think this work was reasonably worth $15.00 and I am

Answer I helped do the carpenters work on said house. My recollection after examining some papers pertaining to the matter is that Mr

Over paid Mr Vanhus $300 for the carpenter work and chimney. That is for the house complete except painting and plastering. and I think $300 is a reasonable price for said work.

building of a Miller's house at a cost of $383<sup>20</sup> was necessary to make the mill rent for a valuable answer the same purpose.

Answer - I do not think the house for the miller is any too costly considering the mill property and its location, ~~but~~ I at the same time think the mill would rent ~~for a fair price~~ without said Miller's of said house would increase the rents of said mill considerably.

Question by same - Would not a a House which could have been erected for $75.00 or $100. have served the same purpose as the one erected. Answer? — To some ~~some~~ persons it would, — a man without a family might not want a house at all — some persons would not want such a house or make much difference and others would. — so far as I am concerned I would make a considerable difference, a good mill house as I think would insure a good and efficient miller, whose services would insure better custom & more tolls.

July 14th 1884. Wm P Miles another witness Question by defendant. — Have you done any work in the nature of repairs on James W Orr's mill or race since the present mill started & if so please state what the work was and the amount.

Answer. I have worked on said mill race since the present mill started — I cannot state the precise amount I have done — but I am confident I have done as much as ten days work on said race. 7 1/2 days before August 1882 & 2 1/2 days since — for which work I have been paid at the mill at the rate of $1.00 per day.
~~as I understood~~ I was paid out of the effects of J. W. Orr so I was informed.

Qx Cross examined of the 7 1/2 days work, part was rendered when Burnett was miller part when Vandewater and part was rendered when Frank Wood attended said mill. I kept no account of the labor as I rendered it, I was paid for said work as I rendered the same — and the above amount is the most correct Estimate I can make - as stated I was paid out of the effects of J. W. Orr. so I was informed - I remember that the first work I done was 3 days when Burnett had charge of the Mill. and for this work J. W. Orr gave me an order to said Burnett for pay. I do not remember exactly as to the balance of the work except the 2 1/2 days since Woodward came to the mill - and my estimate is now made as to that residue from my best memory.

I know the fact that S. S. Cole repaired the water wheel of the mill belonging to J. W. Orr, and I assisted in the work, we built a new water wheel out and out, except the shaft, filled two wheels with new cogs, and repaired a bolting chest, put on new bolting cloth, and repaired some spouting. This work was done in July & August 1882. Mr. A. Miller also assisted in doing this work. I think we were engaged in doing this work about five weeks, but don't recollect precisely as to time, during this time we were boarded by Mr. Orr at his house. We generally have to pay $7.50 per month for such board and accommodations as Mr. Orr furnished us - and I think this board was worth that sum per month.

I know the fact that Mr. Cole on a contract was to have 40¢ for the water wheel, 15¢ for work on bolting ~~chest~~ and 11¢ for work on cog wheel making in all $66.<sup>00</sup>. I saw Mr. Orr

I think the 500 feet of lumber above

I don't know whether said Turner paid me out of effects of his own, Mr. Orrs or out of tolls which belonged to the mill. I once lived up the Creek above the mill - and I think it was customary for the Miller to keep the <sup>stopped</sup> leaks, and the troughs in order, and a part of the work I performed was of this kind, but the greater part of said work was in clearing out the race after rains.

I have <sup>cross examined</sup> lived near Mr. Orrs mill about 8 years - and I know the fact that Mr. Turner has used and occupied a stable on the opposite side of the road from where his house stands, I have frequently seen his mule in said stable, I think a fair rental value of such a stable would be reasonably worth 75<sup>cts</sup> per month.

I worked 12 days for which Mr.
Turner paid me $1.25 per day.
Mr. Turner furnished the lumber & material with which the work was done - My best estimate is was about 800 ft of the lumber and I think there was used in doing said work about 15-lbs nails reasonably worth 95 cents.

I think that the house and lot

Cross Examined

In my deposition given in this Cause on a previous day to this ~~and~~ I failed to embrace in my estimate <sup>then made</sup> work that I had done in cleaning out the race and work on troughs, I am confident from an account which I find in my papers that I done $7.50 worth of work on the race - and about $3.00 worth of work ~~done~~ in making & repairing troughs -

My understanding was that Mr. Turner was to have the use of the store house for one year for making the repairs he made on said store house -

I heard Mr. Turner say that he was to have it in this way. Some time after this I saw Mr. Turner opening & ~~shutting~~ the door of said house locking & unlocking the same -

Question by the Plff -

Please state what millers generally receive for attending and running mills

Answer. They generally receive one third of the gross tolls.

Question by same - Do they not generally get one third of the gross tolls of the mills they keep, whether the mill is a good or inferior one?

Answer They do.

Question by same - Are you acquainted with Mr. Orr's present mill, and have some general idea of the custom it receives and the amount & quality of the grinding it does, if so please state whether in your opinion the mill could be rented out to the average

Miller of the Country for one third of its gross earnings if there was no Millers House connected therewith or at all events could the same not be rented or leased with a Millers House connected therewith, which would not cost more than $100?

Answer I am tolerably well acquainted with the mill & its custom and the amount & quality of its grinding, and my opinion is that some millers would take the mill for  $\frac{1}{3}$  of <sup>its tolls</sup> if there was no Millers house connected with it, and I am confident that it could be so leased with a Millers house that would not cost more than \$100.

Question by same — If Mr. Orr's Mill with a Millers house said to have cost $383.20, rents for no less than one third of its gross earnings, does it not follow in a pecuniary point of view that the Cost of the present House beyond that of an ordinary one, was an injudicious & unnecessary expenditure?

Answer. — I think it would be an injudicious expenditure but at the same time the better house would add value to the property, would perhaps have a tendency to secure a better miller and might possibly attract more custom.

Coass examined by Deft.

Q by same. Do you think it probable that the mill spoken of could be leased to a good miller with a family, upon the usual terms, without a house for him to live in?

Answer — I think it could.

Question by same. Is it not customary in this country for mill owners to furnish their millers with good comfortable houses to live in, costing generally from two to four hundred dollars & give them  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the toll?

Answer — It is customary to furnish the houses and give  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the tolls, but as to the cost of houses, some would cost 300\$ and some less & some more. Most millers in this country have families.

Question by same.

Do you or not know the fact that James W Orr gave his personal attention to the building of the present mill, employed workmen, got up the lumber & looked after the work & construction of said mill.

Answer - I do.

Question by same. - What do you consider his said services reasonably worth?

Answer - I consider that such supervision would be reasonably worth $50.00

Question by same. - Has said Orr not given his personal attention to the repairing & keeping the mill in order since it started? & if so what has his services been worth by the year?

Answer - Mr. Orr has given his personal attention to the repairs & keeping the mill in order since it started and I consider that his services in this direction have been worth $10.00 per year.

John. P. Wynn.

Mr. J. M. Orr admits that he received from Newton Wygal & is to receive from E. B. Fleming rents for the store house situated on his mill lot from the 22nd July 1883 down to the present time at the rates of $2.50 per month.

Newton Mygal an other witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says -

W. S. Martin an other witness being first duly sworn deposes and says.
Question by the Plaintiff— are you acquainted with Mr. Orrs present mill, and have some general idea of the custom it receives and the amount and quality of grinding it does:— if so please state whether in your opinion, the said mill could be rented out to the average millers of the Country for one third of its gross earnings, if there was no millers house connected therewith or at all events could the same not be so rented or leased with a millers house connected therewith, which would not cost more than one hundred dollars? or 150$. —

Answer I am very well acquainted with Mr. Oris mill it being situated near where I live — I think it gets a very fair custom, and the grinding it does is on an average with the best mills in the Country. I don't know whether it could be rented out without a millers house or not. I am of opinion that the mill could be rented to the average miller <sup>of the Country</sup> with a house for the miller to live in at a cost of 150$. — for one third of its gross earnings.

Question by same — If Mr. Oris Mill with a Millers house said to have cost $409.20 rents for no less than one third of its gross earnings, does it not follow in a pecuniary point of view that the Costs of the present house, beyond that of an ordinary one, was an injudicious and an unnecessary expenditure. So far as the life tenants Turner & wife are concerned

Answer I think it would be so far as Lurrier & wife are concerned.

Question by same. - Are you acquainted with the House & Lot where Mr. Lurrier now lives. - If so please state what would be a fair and reasonable annual rent therefor?

Ans. I am very well acquainted with the said house & lot and I think that $35.00 would be a reasonable annual rent therefor.

Cross examined by deft.

Question by same. - What two mills are located near Jonesville Va besides James W Orrs Mill, and how far are they from said Orrs?

Answer Dr. Brownings, on the same creek about one mile from Mr. Orrs, and Col Bridemores which is situated near Jonesville and about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  miles from Mr. Orrs mill.

Question by same. Please state what kind of houses are occupied by Dr Brownings & Col Bridemores Millers, as near as you can, compared with said Orrs millers house.

Answer Dr. Browning is about equal in conveniences & cost of construction to that of Mr. Orrs, and Col. Bridemores Miller now lives in a more costly building, but when he first took charge of Bridemores mill, he lived in and occupied not so good a House.

Question by same. - Is it not a fact that there has been great improvement in this country both in Mills & Miller's houses since the war?

Answer I think there has been great improvement.

Question by same. - Do you think that James W. Orr's Miller's house, when we consider the quality of his Mill, and its location, is beyond the average cost of such houses in the country, or even more than it ought to be to secure the services of a first class miller with a family?

Answer I think the better house would have a tendency to secure the services of a better miller. I have no definite observation of other mills or millers houses except those above referred to,

Question by same. - Do you not think the life tenants are interested in securing the services of a good miller, as well as the fee simple owner?

Answer <sup>It might</sup> they would be interested in securing the services of a good miller during the continuance of their interest.

Question by same. - Does not all your knowledge in regard to Miller's houses and from which you speak, come from your observation & not from any actual knowledge of what they require of their employers?

Answer It does.

Question by same. - What do you consider James W Orr's services in having this present mill built were reasonably worth?

Answer - I consider that such services would be reasonably worth from $75.00 to $100.00.

Question by same. What do you think said Orr's services are reasonably worth in looking after the running of the mill & keeping it in repair, by the year, since it started up to the present time?

Answer - I would think that it would be worth something like 15 $ pr. Year. And further this witness saith not.

James B. Bennett another witness of lawful age being again introduced and duly sworn deposes and says -

I have been accustomed to attending mills ever since I was 18 years old and I am now nearly 74 years old, and in the Eastern portion of this State where I was raised, it was customary for the owners of mills to furnish wood for the use of the mill, and so far as I have attended mills in this Country the same rule has been observed by the owners of mills with me, I attend Milbourns mill about 15 months and Orrs mill some over 4 years. since I came to this Country.

Cross examined by deft.

Question by same.

Was not yours & James W Orr's contract in writing? or <sup>at least</sup> ~~anyway~~ was not the arrangement in regard to the furnishing of the wood by contract between yourself & him?

Answer If there was any writings between us, I don't now remember it, but there was a contract between us that he was to furnish the wood.

Question by same. Do you know what kind of Contract other millers have in this Country, <sup>in regard to wood</sup> and do you know what kind of Contract Wm L Turner had?

Answer I do not.

Question by same. Your observation in regard to what is customary in regard to the furnishing wood was in Eastern Va, and not in this Country except as to yourself?

Ans - That is the case.

Question by same. Is not the matter dependent entirely upon the Contract between the parties?

Ans It is.

Question by same. Do you think the Miller's house on James W Orr's mill lot, too costly a house for his mill.

Answer I do not, I have lived in a much better and more costly miller's house.

He examined in chief

Question by Peff. Were you tenant for life in Orr's Mill, and entitled by contract to one fourth part of its mill earnings, would <sup>you</sup> like for your share of the tolls to be consumed in the erection of a fine Miller's House, where a life costly house would answer the purpose?

Answer I don't consider the house too fine if I had an interest in a mill I would want a good miller's house and a good miller in it, a good house insures a good miller.

The Peff objects to the last answer because it is not responsive to the question Morgan for Peff.

Cross examined again

Question by Deft.

If a good Miller's house is necessary to <sup>secure a good Miller necessary to secure a good customer</sup> secure the services of a good Miller, does not the furnishing or building of such house result in benefit to all parties interested in the mill, and is it not a judicious investment?

Answer It certainly does, and such an investment would be judicious.

Re-examined by Peff

Please state how the case would be with you in response to the last question of the deff were you only tenant for life?

Answer Perhaps I would not be so keen for improvement, as I would if I had a fee simple right, but to secure a good miller and a good custom in any event I would be in favor of making a good improvement, and I do not consider the house in question an unnecessary improvement.

Question By same, did you not live a part of the time you attended the Ows Mill in the old house now occupied by Mr. S. Tanner, and a part of the time in the new house, and did <sup>not</sup> said mill, receive as good a custom while you occupied the old house, as while you lived in the new house?

Answer I did live the most of the time in the old house, I saw no difference in the custom when I lived in the new house.

Answer

I doubt it; my experience is the keeping up of the machinery of a mill, runs away with a great deal of the profits

If Mrs. Mary Hynes in 1868, and subsequent thereto could have

The above question is objected to being based on it is on a supposition that has no existence in fact, as shown by the pleadings in this cause.

Reason for objection

Answer

Often times a piece of property sells for more than it is worth, and the supposition contained in the question does not change my judgment as to the worth of the property.

Question - Do you then base your estimate of the value of this property upon your judgment of what it is worth or do you estimate from what the property would sell for on the market, supposing a reasonable credit of over two years to a man seeking such property?

Answer,

I make the estimate on my own judgment,

Will you then give me what you would, regard as a fair market-able value of said site 1868, on a credit of 10 2 years, to a party seeking such investment and able to purchase?

Answer, Upon that time, in my judgment it is worth from Six to Seven hundred dollars, If I understand you, you would not give or value said site any more or less on account the amount of tolls accruing?

Answer. I would not;

Answer I am

Question by same. Were you acquainted bought it from Turner - if so what would you regard as a fair cash price for said property in the condi Tion it was then in. Then being in said Mill Tract about 40 acres. The old race and the house in which Dr Turner now as then resided, and stable just across the road and an old mill on said property-

I would think was worth 3000<sup>00</sup> $.
I suppose it cost about 2000<sup>00</sup> $ to build Mill house. the Machinery &c. which would leave the mill site Land &c. worth 1000<sup>00</sup> $ -

Question by same, Have you had any experience as the owner of Mill property or Water power, if so please state it.

Answer I had an interest in the Long Mill property about 9 miles West of Iremonger for upwards of 4 years.

Cross Examined -
If Mr Orr Mill, cost less than $2000. to construct it, or if it could now be sold in the market for say $4000, would that change your estimate of the value of the site!

Answer

I don't think the site land &c. at the time Orr purchased it was worth over 1000 $ - and I further state from what experience I have had in building or rebuilding a mill, that it cost fully 2000 $ to build house. other work and Machinery -

Question.

If the cost is as you put it and the out lay is $3000. And then this mill thus costing $3000, would earn by its net tolls say $600, would you not think the investment in the site of $1000, a very remunerative outlay.

Answer

I would.

Then if a mill could be put upon said property at a cost of $2000, and when constructed the mill by actual, receipts shows a net earning as aforesaid of $600 would you not on that hypothesis put the site higher than $1000 - 00.

Answer

I don't think the site &c. as before stated worth over the amt. I have stated.

Then your estimate of the mill site is not based on the amount of tolls received or the amount repaid by the millage.

Answer my estimate of the value property. of course is based upon the supposition that the mill has a good custom, & that the tolls to the owner is worth something like 4000 francs.

Question.

Please give the percent. in figures which you regard mill property should pay on the gross value of site & construction.

Answer to pay well it should be 20 percent.
At that rate, how long would it take the profits of the mill, to extinguish the costs of construction and leave the property, as net gain.

Answer if there was no expenses about the property, it would take only 5 years, but legal interest on the money, wear repairs, rebuilding &c. I don't think there could be more than 10 per cent.
left on the money invested, and hardly that much.

If a mill is properly constructed in workmanship & material, is there much repairing for the first five or even ten years. That is supposing it to be well done at first?

Answer there is probable not a great deal of repairing to do for the first 5 years, in 10 years I would think from what I hear Miller says that the Machinery building &c. does depreciate very much in 10 years & particularly the Machinery, as a great deal of new Machinery in that time is needed, and the wear of Machinery is at least 10 per cent.

~~Have you~~ <sup>How long</sup> have you been long in business in this Community, and have you a general knowledge of the business interests of the Community? If so please state what other pursuits of life can be relied on here to pay even 10 per cent over or above the cost or expense of running the same?

Answer. I have been in business here about 28 years, there is few pursuits if any that a man can realize 10 per cent. on Capital invested.

Reamined

Question by same. You stated a moment ago that you had kept an estimate of the net earnings of your mill for 4 or 5 years will you please state what those net earnings were per year and also what percent those net earnings were upon the total cost of said property?

The above question is excepted to because it does not bear upon the question of the loss of our mill and is irrelevant to the questions involved in this case. And because it is a question ~~involved~~ in chief and should have been asked in chief.

Morgan & Pilemore

Answer

I kept an account of the net earnings of the mill known as Lugs Mills for about 4 years. The proceeds after expenses, the mill being new, was about 400 $ per year besides the Millers part. The percent on the cost of said mill property being about 13 to 15 per cent. expenses on machinery or repairs being about 110 $ - about 6 mos. the mill did not work on account of building stone dam &c.

Re. Croft examined.

Please state, what year the mill you speak of was completed, and whether or not the same has not continued in good repair to the present except small repairs such as above spoken of?

Answer

The mill completed except stone dam, in Feb 1870. the stone dam commenced in the latter part of the summer of 1869 & finished in Feb'y 1870 - the cost of the mill & <sup>the</sup> 40 acres mostly good land being I think 3000$ -

If you have any practical experience amount necessary to be expended annually to keep a farm in good repair, ~~and~~ the cost of which would be say $3000 running through a period of 10 years?

Answer I think it <sup>mill</sup> cost about 3 to 5 per cent, annually.

What per cent does your experience in farming ~~require~~ <sup>show you are</sup> payed for such was worth more than six hundred dollars, at least I would not have been willing to have given more than that for it, Question by same. - Have you recently purchased a mill site in this County for the purpose of erecting a mill thereon. If so please state at what price you purchased the same?

Answer. I have recently purchased a mill site, in the State of Tenn. near the Virginia <sup>and Lee County line</sup> line, for the purpose of erecting a mill thereon, for which I paid the sum of one hundred & fifty dollars, it contains about four acres, I think the water power, and location are much superior to the old mill site, I would not now give my late purchase, for the old mill site.

Question by the Plff. - Are you now the occupier long have you been engaged in said mill as miller.

Answer I am engaged as Miller at Jas W. Orr's Mill, <sup>have been</sup> since Sept 6th or 7th 1882.

Question by Same. - Have you during the time you have been engaged in said mill, kept an account of the tolls of said mill, and if so please state what they amount to.

Answer. I have kept an account of the tolls ever since I have been engaged at the Mill. During the time I have had the mill in charge the mill has earned (222½) Two hundred and Twenty-two and one half bushels of wheat, and eighty six and one half bushels of Corn

Question by same, - At the above rate, about what would the tolls amount to in one year?

Answer. According to my Calculation the Mill would earn four hundred and sixty bushels of wheat, and one hundred and eighty bushels of Corn, all would <sup>be</sup> worth $550.00. Counting wheat at $1.00 and Corn at 50 cents per bushel.

Question by same. - After deducting from the above sum $550.00, the Miller's part, what sum would be left for the owner of the mill?

Answer. The owner of the mill would have $366.66<sup>2/3</sup> after deducting 1/3 for the Miller, Crop Examined.

During the time of which you speak how much of the time have you been under repairs and did not work?

Answer. I cannot tell exactly, but as near as I can remember I think the wheat mill has been stopped some six or eight days, and no other stoppages except for cutting loose the ice,

From your knowledge of the Country from which your customers come, would not say that, numerous rains and high waters of the past winter have greatly interfered with your custom?

Answer. I expect the mill has lost some Custom, on account of high water; Then, taking that into consideration, and the fact that the next six months will fall in the spring and summer do you not regard it probable that the next six months will amount to more than the past six months?

Answer. I do not think it will; In the amount of, of tolls before mentioned before by you <sup>now</sup> include all the tolls received by you?

Answer. It does include the whole;

Question. What would you say the sweepings of the mill or miller including every thing not enumerated as tolls would be worth per month?

Answer. It would be worth something - but I cannot tell how much, as I have paid no attention to the amount;

The deposition of Wright Stickley and Andrew <sup>John R. Gibson</sup> ~~Primmington~~, taken pursuant to agreement, at the law Office of Richmond Duncan & Orr, on the 26th day of February 1888 before J. A. Skelly att a commissioner in chancery which depositions are intended to be used as evidence in behalf of the Plaintiffs in a certain suit in chancery now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County Va in which James H Orr is Plaintiff and Wm L Turner & others are defendants.

Wright Stickley a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes & says,

Question by Plaintiff: Are you the owner of Mill property, in this County if so where is it situated, what is its character, and how long have you owned it.

Ans I am the owner of mill property situated about 9 miles west of Jarrsville, it is a water power consisting of grist mill with three (3) sets of runners and I have owned the same about 9 years individually and previously.
M. D. Richmond was a partner in said property with me for about 4 years

Question by same, Are you acquainted with the mill property and mill site now owned by James H Orr if so how long have you been acquainted with said property?

Ans

I am tolerably well acquainted with said property. I have known the property since about the year 1865. I was absent in Scott County for about 2 years during the years of 1867-8 & 9.

Question by same, What would <sup>you</sup> have regarded as a fair cash price for said mill site or mill property in 1868 that is without the new mill and mill <sup>& other improvements</sup> ~~dam~~ erected by James H Orr.

Ans,

I think it was worth about Six hundred ($600) Dollars.

~~What a~~ Crop Examination

What do you regard, the mill house and machinery on J. W Orrs lot now worth in its present condition?

Ans

I should suppose about $700. If the mill and machinery as now ~~is~~ <sup>is</sup> will by its custom tolls make annually from $600 to $900, pricing said mill on business value as being worth what it will produce, what would you say on that supposition it would be worth?

Ans I should think if it would earn that amount, <sup>in gross tolls.</sup> it would be worth from $2500. to $3750.

You say you have owned jointly and ~~and~~ individually for ~~13~~ <sup>14</sup> years, <sup>your mill.</sup> at that time, if the mill was then new, what has been about the cost of annual repairs since that time? Not estimating floods?

Ans. I have been in possession of my property about 9 years, when I took charge of said property it was in fair repair, and my annual expenditures have been, <sup>as follows</sup> about $75. dollars for the first year, which was expended for the completion of a stone dam which had been commenced, the remaining 8 years I don't think I have spent over $5. annually for repairs, and the cargo &c of my mill are in tolerable repair, at present; last year I removed some wadded post and replaced the same with stone pillars at a cost of about $40. —

In estimating a mill site, that is its

I want to ask you if this is not the correct model.

Say the mill, cost in machinery and construction, $2000, and when thus constructed by actual, experiment the mill would earn by its tolls, an amount equal to a fair income on $4000, that is above annual repairs, would you not say <sup>you</sup> on that basis the site would be worth also $2000.

Ans I think not.

On the question above supposed what would you, say the site would be relatively worth?

Ans I think about $500.

What per cent, over and above expense, do you, say a mill should pay on its investment to put it on equal terms with, other business of this country?

Ans I think it ought to pay above expenses 10 per cent.
"Examined."

Question by Duff, In your estimate of the value of the Mill house and mill machinery of J W Orrs Mill which you fix at $700, do you estimate the building of the dam, and the costs of building said house and the mill machinery in it? I did not estimate the dam, but only the mill house & machinery.

(5)

Question by same. What would be the reasonable value of a wooden dam 8 ft high and 75 ft wide?

Ans

I cannot assume that; as I have but little or no experience in such work, as wooden dams.

Wit atten.

Wright Stickley

Andrew Pennington another witness of lawful age and being first duly sworn deposes and says.--

Question by Plaintiff. -- Are you the owner of mill property in this county, if so where is it situated, what kind of mill property is it, and how long have you owned it?

Ans

I am the owner of what is known as the Clifton mill property, situated on Trading Creek about five miles West of Jonesville; it is a water wrist mill, 2 sets runners, and saw mill, I have owned the same about seven years, in partnership with Edward M. Pennington.

Question by same. How many acres of land is then attached to said Mill site as purchased by you from the Cleytons.

Ans Eighty Six acres, more or less is the way it is deeded to us, and I think that is about the number of acres.

Question by same What was the condition of said Mill property at the time you purchased it?

Ans It was in tolerable fix, it was worn down considerably, I had to build a new house, plank across the dam, build a new fore-bay - which I did after running the same about 1 year & 2 or 3 months since that I have erected new machinery in the last mill.

Question by same ~~Did it start of work~~ did the old mill do, for the year and 2 or 3 months you run it before repairing it?

Ans It done tolerably fair work. Question by same How you recently purchased O M Pennington half interest in said property, If so what did you pay or agree to pay him for it?

Ans I have, and agreed to pay him $600. on 1, 2 & 3 years time without interest.

Question by same, Are you acquainted with the James W Orr Mill property and Mill site, if so how long have you known it?

Ans I am well acquainted with said mill property, and have known the same ever since I was a boy and I am now 34 years old.

Question by same, What would <sup>you</sup> regard as a fair cash price for said Mill site in 1868 the year Mr Orr purchased it in the condition it was then in and before Mr Orr erected his new Mill Mill dam and Mill machinery?

Answer. I could not put it at over $600.

Cross Examined

What price did you & Edward Pennington pay to Clifters for your Mill?

Ans We paid them Twenty five hundred Dollars.

Was it not apparent at the time you purchased the Clifters Mill; that it was worn out & run down and must soon be rebuilt & repaired?

Ans It was in such condition, that it apparently would have to soon be repaired.

At the time, your purchase, was not the property chiefly, valuable as a mill site, outside of the land?

Ans The mill house, machinery and dam, I considered, as worth at the time we purchased, about $300. or $400 Dollars.

What was the land reasonably worth as a farm not considering it as a part of the mill site - What is its worth as a farm simply?

Ans It was worth about $300.
~~would you not~~ What is the amt of the tolls of your mill, annually estimated in dollars?

Ans I reckon it will amount to about $400, Gross receipts including the wit claim saw mill.

John R. Gibson another witness of lawful age after first being duly sworn deposes and says

Question by Plff. - At the time Mr C. L. Hamblen had you, <sup>as clerk,</sup> to record the deed from Wm L Lurner & wife to him for an interest in James W Orr's mill property, what did he direct you to do in regard to charging the fee for recording & tax.

Ans At that time he did not say any thing about said recording; Rec'd & Tax, but subsequently Mr. C. L.
Hamblen came into my office, and I remarked to Mr Hamblen that I had charged said work to him and he informed me, as I understood, <sup>him</sup> that Mr. Lurner would pay me for said work, - I had been doing some other work for Wm L. Lurner under direction of Mr. Hamblen in the way of copying and while I had reference to the deed, I do not know which work Mr Hamblen referred to, that Lurner was to pay for. but I understood him as before stated; and I have since then charged the recording of said deed to Mr. Lurner.

Question by Same. - Is it or not customary for the vendee and not the vendor of lands, to pay the recording fee & tax of <sup>the</sup> deeds.

Ans It is, or that is the way I have understood it.

Cross Examined.

Did you ever show Mr Hamblin the fee bill or call his attention, to the charges after that in the conversation before alluded to?

Ans I did not.

When a moment ago, you mentioned for the first time in Mr Hamblin's presence that you had charged his dues fees to, Mr Turner, did he Mr Hamblin's not say just then in your presence that you had mis understood him that he expected to pay said fees?

Ans He did so state.

Do you ~~or not~~ feel certain that at the time you said to Mr Hamblin that you had charged the fees to him Hamblin said that Hamblin said to you "Charge them to uncle Turner" that Mr Hamblin fully understood what deed you refer to.

Ans I can not say that he did, and my best impression is that the conversation before alluded to, took place at the time said Hamblin received some copies, which I suppose was intended to be filed in the Chcy Cause between Orr & Turner et al.

which I had been copying.
And further this witness saith not.

The deposition of Joseph C Thomas, taken at the dwelling house of said Thomas, in Claiborne County Tennessee, on the 10 day of ~~March~~<sup>February</sup> 1883, which deposition is intended to be read as evidence in a certain suit in Chancery now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County Va. on behalf of the plaintiff, in which suit James W Orr is plaintiff and Wm L Turner & others are defendants, and which deposition is taken by consent of parties, without notice or commission.

The said Joseph C Thomas a witness of lawful age, and being first duly sworn, deposes & says.
Question by Plff.

Are you acquainted with Wm L Turner, and did <sup>or not</sup> said Turner live in Claiborne County Tenn and in your, or this neighborhood, for some several years before the war, and did he <sup>or not</sup> remove from this neighborhood to Lee County Virginia during the war, and did he <sup>or not</sup> at the time of said removal, or afterwards, place his business matters here <sup>in Tenn.</sup> in charge of your father, Isaac Thomas deceased.

Ans I am acquainted with Wm L Turner he lived about five miles from me before the war. and during the war he moved to Lee Co Va. I dont know of any business he put in my Father's hands except one note to collect on G. M. Kellingslip for $8000 that note was signed over May the 5th 1866 I see from the Atty's Receipt I was present at the time the note was signed over,

Question by Exam. — Have you or your father at any time since Decr 12th 1868, paid, or sent, to said Wm L Lurmer, in Lee County Virginia, any money; and if so please state what amount, or amounts, and when paid or sent to said Lurmer, and from whom you received said money, and from what source, or on what account it was obtained, also state in what County and state the same was collected for said Lurmer, and who by. And by whom was the money or any part thereof conveyed to said Lurmer. And has said Lurmer any more money due him in the State of Tennessee of which you have any knowledge.

My Father had a note on Turner I think for five hundred dollars or perhaps over I do not recollect the exact amount. Father brought suit against Turners land and had it sold. The government then took possession of it and had it sold from him but finally after a good deal of trouble and expense Father recovered the land and got it in his possession and sold it I think for about his debt. This Billingsley note he put out for collection and there was some considerable amount that had been attached in Billingsleys hands and the court held the attachment good at any rate. When Father had collected all that he could on the note and paid all the cost and something from his trouble he told me to pay to Turner four hundred dollars. These are not facts of my own knowledge, but information from my Father.

January the 1st 1875 - I paid Turner $100.00

September 17th 1875 - he sent me an order by W. S. Ely and I sent him or give to Ely $100.00

on March the 8, 1880 W. S. Ely brought me another order from Turner for the balance coming to him and I sent him or give to Ely to take to Turner $200.00 making in all the four hundred dollars that Father told me to pay him. Turner has nothing coming to him from this state that I know of. J. L. Thomas

The deposition of R. B. Vandeventer, William H. Blakemore, Daniel B.
Martin and A. M. Ely.

Taken, pursuant to agreement, at the Circuit Court Clerk's Office, on the 18th day of February 1883, which are intended to be read as evidence in behalf of Wm. L. Turner et al, in a certain Chancery suit now pending in the Circuit Court for Lee County in which James W. Orr is Plaintiff and said Turner & others are Defendants.

Robert B. Vandeventer, a witness of lawful age, after being duly sworn, deposes and says In answer to Defts.

Are you a practical Miller, and if so, did you ever occupy as such the Mill of James Orr known as the Wynum Mill, and for what time and what years.

Ans. I am a practical miller and as such did occupy said mill about two years the two years succeeding Mr. Burnett - witness thinks he commenced in the Spring of 1877

Question, by Deft.

What was the tolls of said mill, annually? That is how many bushels of grain was received; what proportion of Corn & what of wheat, and what <sup>was</sup> said grain worth at the mill on an average per bu:

Ans. I can not distinctly state the amount of said tolls - But my impression are that the tolls of said mill would amount to from Six to Nine Hundred dollars annually, supposing said tolls to be sold at the market prices as received Question: While acting as such miller, did you conduct the same, by the contract & direction of James W. Orr, or any other person?

Ans I rented and attended said mill under contract with James W. Orr, & worked by same.

While so conducting said mill did James W. Orr at any time, give you instructions to let H. L. Turner or his wife have grain or meal from said mill if ~~not~~ all you know about such instructions by said Orr,

Ans About the time I commenced keeping said mill, I was applied to, for some supplies by said Turner, I then went to see Mr Orr about it, he told me to let Mr Turner have any thing he wanted from the mill, that was there I then suggested, I had better get a book in which to keep an account

Mr Orr said he supposed a piece of paper would do; and handed me some paper, on this I kept the account for a while, when the paper became lost, <sup>or destroyed</sup> and within so informed Mr. Orr, who then said for me to tell Mr. Turner to keep the account himself, and I never heard any thing more concerning the matter. Under the before stated instructions from Mr. Orr I let Mr. Turner have such supplies as he called for.

Cross Examination.

Question Did J. W. Orr direct you at any time to let Mr. Turner have a one fourth part of the tolls of said Mill or any other stated portion of the toll Ans He did not recollect of.

Question Did not other persons than

(5)

Dr. Turner got grain at said Mill on account of some instructions either to you or them by J. W. Orr.

Ans David Orr the father of J. W. Orr got some supplies at said Mill, who informed me that J. W. David Orr was to keep the account of such as he rec'd, and I do not remember that any other persons got supplies, under such an arrangement.

Question When said Mill was to be repaired (such repairing that you as Miller did not do.) who repaired and paid for it.

Ans My understand<sup>ing</sup> was that it was done under J. W. Orr's direction & paid for by him.

Question What do you think said Mill was worth in 1868 1868- or what do you think it would have been worth before.

J. R. Orr put any improvements upon it.

Ans I think it was worth about $1000.00

Reexamine

What do you estimate would be the cost of erecting, such a house + its Machinery there as is now upon said lot?

Ans About $2000.00 I would think.

If as you estimate the mill would cost $2000. and its site $1000. would, complete a mill the tolls of which amount to as as much as you say. Do you not regard $1000 as a low price for the site?

Ans The foregoing question is objection to because the same is leading and because the defendants have not right contradict their own witness.

Wm A Orr, for Plff.

Ans I should think it would be low enough.

And further this defendant says to not.

R. B. Kinsale Kent

Wm D Blakemore another witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes says.
Question by Deft.

Is your wife, and you by reason of your marriage with her, a part of the heirs at law of John Wynn deceased late of this County, and in his lifetime the owner of the site known now as Mrs. Mill?

Ans We are a part of such heirs my wife being a Wynn before marriage.

How long have you been acquainted with said Mill property - And what would you have regarded it as worth, in the year 1868, before Mr Orr constructed the present mill thereon, on reasonable credit say 10 years - Supposing a person desirous of such property?

Ans I have known said Mill property all my life, and I am now about 64 years old; and I consider that said Mill property was worth at least Two Thousand Dollars before Mr. Orr made any improvements thereon, in the division of the Wynn Estate, I considered the mill site with land attached as being worth as much as the three adjoining lots below it.

Cross Examination

Question Has not the land & Mill property spoken of, by your partitioned by Commissioners appointed by a Court for that purpose - & if so into how many shares was it partitioned by them.

Ans It was; and was partitioned into five shares.

Question Is not the Mill lot one of those shares

Ans It is.

Question What interest did your wife have in one of the shares?

Ans Our interest was  $\frac{1}{5}$  of one of said fifth parts or  $\frac{1}{25}$  of the whole.

Question Was not your interest assigned you by said Commissioners in one of the three shares spoken of by you in your examination in Chief

Ans It was.

Question Did you sell your <sup>and your wife's</sup> interest and if so what did you get for it

Ans. We did, and received therefor $60.<sup>00</sup>.

Question What did each of your Co-hires get for their one third interest in said share.

Ans. I do not know exactly what they got but think they got a little less; A P. Wynn purchased two of the said three shares and a part of the third one and I am informed that what he purchased cost him about $1500.<sup>00</sup>.

Question Did you ever own or occupy a grist mill.

Ans. I have occupied one for a short time, (but never owned one) which was a corn mill, when I was about 16 years old, for 6 or 8 months.

Question What do think the improvements as put on said property by J. W. Orr. Cost-

Ans I would think it cost about $1800. or $2000.<sup>00</sup>

Question What do you think the property worth as it now stands.

Ans I think it is worth about $4000.<sup>00</sup> I might value such property higher than other persons.

Question What do you think said mill lot is worth leaving out the fact of a Mill site on location power?

Ans It is not worth more than $400.<sup>00</sup>.
And further this deponent says the witness: Wm. H. Blakemon

D. B. Martin an other witness of lawful age, being duly sworn deposes and says.

Tested by Deft.

Be you one the heirs at law of the late John Hyman over in his lifetime of the property now known as On Mill: If so please state how long you have known said property - and what you regard as its market value on a credit of say 1 or 2 years, in the year 1868, before knowing of any improvement thereon.

Aris My wife is, I having married a sister of the wife Wm. H. Blakemore and we held a like interest to them; I have known said property ever since I was a small boy and I am now about 63 years old; I consider that, at the time Mr.
Orr bought said property, that it was worth $1000.00
And further this deponent sayeth not.

H. M. Elyan other witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says.

The Plaintiff J. W. Orr is my second cousin; the Defendant Chas. L. Hamblew is my first Cousin, and the Defendant Wm. L. Turner married my Aunt; and therefore my Uncle by said marriage. I am now 56 Years old; and have known the mill site, where Mr. Orr's Mill is now situated ever since I was a boy. I knew it, or was tolerably well acquainted with it, in 1868, about the time the Plaintiff purchased it:— and my opinion is that at the time he purchased it, in the condition it then was, that it was worth, at that time, Two Thousand Dollars, I regard it as valuable property, and at one time I had thought of trying to buy it.

Cross Examination

Question Did you ever own or deal in Mill property?

Ans I never did, nor was I ever a miller or the occupier of a mill.

Question Do you know of any Mill site sales in Lee County about the year 1868?

Ans I don't know of any, that I can now call to remembrance.

Question Did you apply to any one for the purpose of buying said property?

Ans - I don't know that I did, but I think probably I had some conversation with Wm. L. Lurnier concerning the purchase of said property.

Question Is your estimate of the value of said property based upon your own idea - or is based upon what Mill property would sell for?

Ans I might not have estimated the value of said property according to what other people might have estimated it, but upon what I estimated that it would have been worth to me, as don't know what other mill property has sold for.

Question Is you think that persons who have neither owned, occupied nor dealt in mill property are as good judges of the value of such property as men who have done so?

Ans I think not.

Reexamined in Chief

At the time Mr. Orr purchased the property in question, the prospective value of such property was better then than now, for the reason that other mills have been erected in the neighborhood, which I think would likely take part of the custom, <sup>which</sup> that mill would have been likely to have received.

Objections

The foregoing statement of the evidence is objected to because it is new matter in chief not brought out in any way by cross examination.

Ans. I say for Plff.

Cross examination resumed.

Question

Has not the <sup>grain</sup> production of the Country and the population of the Country increased since 1868?

Ans

It has. The production of wheat has increased largely.
Corn, I think has not increased.
The population has increased.

The deposition of Wm Elliott, C. B. Flannery, Charles F. Bout, A. C. Williams and James Pennington taken at the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court for Lee County, pursuant to agreement, on the 10th day of February 1883, which are intended to be read as evidence in behalf of Wm L. Turner et al, in a certain Chancery suit now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County in which said Turner et al are defendants and James W. Orr is Plaintiff.

Wm Elliott a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says.

Question by defense.

How long have you been acquainted with mill site and property known as the Wyma or ~~on~~ mill property?

Ans I have been acquainted <sup>with</sup> it thirty years or more.

What would you regard said mill site as worth, including the race.

~~and~~ race without mill or dam but the race dug, say in the condition ~~that~~ it was in when you purchased it, and fixing the price at that time -

Ans. I regard it one of the finest mill sites and water powers in the County, for the purpose of a mill - and I regard it as reasonably worth, on a credit of 1 or 2 years, Eighteen hundred or Two thousand dollars.

Cross examined

Question by Plaintiff. Do you make your estimate of the value of said property as of the year 1868 or as of the present time

Ans. I Estimated the value of said property as of the year 1868, or before the present mill was built thereon.

Question by same. Are you the owner of a Water Power Mill, or have you ever had experience in the use or handling of Water Crest mill property?

Ans I am not the owner of a mill; I had some acquaintances when young with one - as millers.

Question by same What would you have considered the value of said property in 1868 for cash paid down Ans I don't know that I would have made any great difference.

Question by same, Don't you think property in 1868 would have sold for a higher price on a credit of one or two years than it would for cash down?

Ans I suppose it would, probably the amount of the interest or thereabout.

Question by same, Have you known of the sale of any other mill sites in Lee County since 1865, if so what ones, and at what prices?

Ans I do not know that I have, as I have paid but little attention, however I remember that Deliftone boys sold a mill site which had run down as to improvements, with about 30 Acres of land attached, which sold for about the same price, but don't remember the exact price.

Question by same. Was not there a Grist mill and Saw Mill an Olifson property both of which were running at the time of sale?

Ans - Not to do any good, and since the sale, the parties purchasing have rebuilt the property generally, using mostly new timbers in the dam, and further this deponent saith not.

William <sup>his</sup> Elliott
witness

C. B. Fleenor an other witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes & says.

Question Were you present, at the taking of James G. Browning's deposition in this Cause at the dwelling house of A. L. Philmore?

Ans I was at the house of A. L. Bridenbush, on the day that said deposition was taken, but not there at the time of the taking of said deposition.

Question After said deposition was taken, and on the same day, did you see James H. Orr the plaintiff in this cause pay the said Browning any money if so how much, and <sup>what</sup> did the said Orr say it was for - state the whole conversation if any that occurred at that time?

Ans I was in Mr. Orr's Law office, I think on the same day, Mr. Orr and Dr. Browning was in a conversation concerning the cause in which said Browning had given a deposition, Mr. Orr took from his pocket a ten dollar green back bill and handed it to said Browning. Remarking that he had been thinking of paying him some money for some time that he was not satisfied with the way a certain matter had been disposed of, that Orr, had caused the said Browning heretofore to pay some money which he then thought he ought not to have done; and witness understood this conversation about the payment of the money to be in reference to an indictment made against said Browning for removing some rock off, of said mill lot soon after the purchase of said Mill lot by said Orr.

Mr. Orr remarked that he had not been satisfied about the matter and that the reason why he became angry at; and had the difficulty with said Browning was because he had been caused to do so through the influence and representations of the said Wm L. Turner; and just as Mr Browning passed out of the door said Orr gave him 50 cents for his attendances as a witness for him on that day, some thing was said about making a change in the deposition which said Browning had given on that day, but my recollection is not definite what was said or done concerning <sup>said change</sup> further than they said they would go down and change it, my recollection is that the 50 cents was paid after this conversation: —

At the time the conversation before alluded to took place, the said Browning had been drinking some, one could discern that he was under the influence of spirits, slightly.

Cross examined

Question by Plaintiff. Did not Dr Browning propose to have his deposition corrected, if it was put down as Mr Orr told him it was written down by Judge Morgan?

A. I don't recollect, whether Mr Orr or Browning spoke of the change. but I remember that they spoke of the mistake in the way the depo. was taken down, and I understood that it was this mistake they went to correct. Question by same. You state in your examination in chief that Mr Browning was somewhat under the influence of whiskey, was he so much so as to render <sup>him</sup> unfit for the transaction of business intelligently?

Ans He was not.

Question by same. How long have you been acquainted with James L Browning and you acquainted with his general reputation for honesty and integrity in the neighborhood in which he lives and how long have you been so?

Ans I have been acquainted with said J. L. Browning for about 18 years, I have lived within half mile of him during that time, I am well acquainted with his general reputation for honesty & integrity, and said reputation is good.

Question by same, Judging him by that general reputation do you believe him to be a man that could be bribed or in any way influenced by money to give false testimony?

The foregoing question is objected to because illegal and irrelevant?

Morgan & Primmer

Ans I do not.

Question by same Are you acquainted with the general reputation of James C. Browning in the neighborhood in which he lives for truth and veracity? if so state what that Character is?

Ans I am; and it is good.

Question by same Judging him from that general character is he entitled to full credit on oath.

Ans He is.

Question by same, Are you acquainted with the property now known as the James W. Orr mill property and was you a guaranteed with it in 1868 at the time J. W.

Orr purchased it?

Ans I am; and was at that time.
Question by same, What do you think would have been a fair cash price for said property at the time said Orr bought it, in 1868.

Ans At that time I think it was worth $80,000 or $90,000. Dollars.

Question by same. At the time Orr paid the Ten dollars to Browning, did he not tell Browning that he had been thinking for some time about repaying said money to him?

Ans He said he had been thinking of so doing for some time.

Question by same. Did he not say in the same conversation that he had no doubt, but that he Browning at the time he removed the rocks thought he had a right as to do, under his contract with Mr. Wynn.

Ans I think <sup>he</sup> did.

Question by same. Will you repeat all the conversation that occurred with reference to Sumner causing the difficulty between said Browning & Orr, so nearly as you can recollect it. Not hitherto repeated by you?

Ans I repeated about all I recollected.
Re-examined.

How far do you live from the said Orr Mill and have any knowledge which Mill his or Browning, Mill one mile above gets the greater custom?

Ans I live nearly  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles from Mr Orr's Mill, I can't say which Mill gets the greater custom.

Are you a practical Miller and have you as such, occupied a mill if so where?

Ans I am - and attend Dr Brownings Mill, and have been nearly 5 years

What is the, tools & profits of said Browning's mill, worth annually, estimating, the grain at its market value?

The Plaintiff objects to the foregoing question and answer to as to Browning's mill is not in controversy in this suit. Duncan

Ans Four Hundred, and may be as high as five hundred dollars.
What do you estimate, the cost of mill including improvements, to be worth on our account of one and two years?

Ans I think $3500. would be a fair price.
Do you estimate its value that it would cost more than $1500 or $2000. to build mill house & machinery not including the race?

Ans I consider the cost to build such a mill house & furnish such machinery would be about $2000. ~ Then if the whole property would be worth $3500, and it would cost $2000, to build the House & Machinery it would leave the site & race worth $1500. would not, or according to your estimate what it then in that view be worth.

Ans I reckon it would or nearly so. If a man able, to purchase such property, and desirous of doing so, was in search of such property what do you think such said site would sell for on a credit of one and two years that is its market value say 1868 on such terms.

Ans I expect it would have sold for one thousand dollars.

And further this deponent saith not.

Charles B. Fleenor

Charles F. Cook an after writing after being duly sworn deposes and says.

(14)

Question by Defendant

Are you acquainted with the Hymn or on mill property and if so how long have you known it?

Answer — I am, I have known said property ever since I have been old enough to know property of the sort that near Lewis.
I am now 43 years of age — passed.

What would you regard as a fair price for said property, in the year 1868, in the Condition it was then in — state your knowledge of said property then — and your reasons for having a price for said property fixed in your mind if you have a price or estimate thereof?

Ans I believe it to be the most valuable property of that kind that I know of in the County. and some where about the year 1868. I was desirous of purchasing property of that description, and I would regard said property as being worth at that time, about two thousand dollars, without any mill or improvement, except the race, as it then was. I am a ~~farmer~~ <sup>occupy work</sup> by occupation and ~~own~~ <sup>have</sup> a water power in connection with my business, and it was mainly for that purpose that I desired such a situation.

Cross Examination.

Question. Did you buy property near ~~St. Louis~~ <sup>St. Joseph</sup> for the purpose of erecting a sawmill thereupon about the time James W. Orr bought the Mill property & if so at what price & on what terms and did you pay money or in some other way?

Ans I don't remember as to time, it might have been a short time before or after such purchase by Mr. Orr. But I purchased a water power near Jonesville at the price of, I think $800. or $1000. for which, I paid in cash a short time thereafter.

Question What improvements were on the property you bought?

Ans An old saw mill, with a little patent grist mill attached, was on the property, which I considered worthless or nearly so. and a small staple & cabin & very good fence, which was of some value, I sold the old irons belonging to the old saw mill for about $60.

Question Did you afterwards put valuable improvements on said property, and if so at what cost?

Ans I improved said property by erecting a Lumber shed thereon at a cost of $1500.<sup>00</sup> & have since planted out an orchard & made some other improvements to the amt. of $100. —

Question After you so improved said property, was not the same sold by C. J. Surman, Justice at the front door of the Court house of Lin County, to the highest bidder, for eight hundred and fifty dollars and a credit of One, two and three years time?

Ans It was.

Question And further this deponent saith not

J. G. Gault

A. C. Williams an other witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says —

Question by Defendant

Are you acquainted with the Hynn or Ori Mill property, and if so what would you regard said property worth on a reasonable credit say in one and two years - with no improvements except the race; and with the improvements as they are;

Ans I ~~am~~ know the property, though not very well acquainted with it. I think the property as it is ought to be worth $2500. or $3000. and without the improvements I think it would reasonably be worth $1000, $1200 or $1500, I am not sufficiently acquainted with the property or such property to form a definite value of such property.

And further this witness saith not.

A. Williams

James Ferrington an other witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says.

Are you acquainted with the mill property known as the Orr or Hymn Mill, if so how long have you known it. And what would you regard as fair price for said property, in the year 1868 the time it was purchased by Orr or, and before the new mill was built, on a credit of any one or two years?

Ans. I have known said mill property ever since I was a boy, and I am now about 58 years old. My knowledge is such as a man would derive from frequently passing by and attending said mill as a customer from what I know of said property I would consider its worth, at the time Mr. Orr purchased it on a credit of 1 1/2 years at $1800.

I regard it as the most valuable property of the kind in our County.

Ex. 1000 Examined

Question by Plaintiff. Have you ever dealt in mill property or water power, or had any experience as an owner of such property?

Ans I never have.

Question. by same. What difference would you make in your valuation of said <sup>Property</sup> in 1868 on a credit of 1 & 2 years, and a sale for cash down, Ans I would make a difference, equal to the interest.

And further this deponent saith not.

Q. Was not said property offered for sale to you at any time by Selis Wynn if so when was it and at what price was it offered you.

Did Wm L. Turner, ever offer to he sold the same to James W. Orr if so upon what terms did he Ans Some time before the sale of said property to J. W. Orr, said Turner applied to me, and said he had purchased said mill site, and was unable to complete it, and wanted witness to go a mill, saying that he was unable to do so, but that he had some debts in Linn, if he could collect that he would keep some, that he was growing old; and that he wanted a support for himself & wife from the mill during his & his wife's life, and that if witness would finish paying for the site & build a mill thereon as before stated, that he Turner would at his & his wife's death, he ~~would~~ make witness his heir, witness states that said Turner remarked that said mill lot would cost about \$700. — lived there - How long have you known said property - And, what do you regard said property as being worth in the condition it was Ans I live within  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a mile of said mill and have so lived since Feby 1857:

In 1868, the time said Orr purchased said mill property my impression was and I thought it was worth Fifteen - Hundred dollars. I have always thought that it was <sup>one of</sup> the most favorable mill site in our County

Question by Sept -

~~Are~~ you or not acquainted with James Perminster, Albert S. Woodward and Andrew M. Ely and Andrew Mulhane if so, were they men preeminently able to have purchased mill property in 1868?

Objected to by Plaintiff because their ability or want of ability has nothing to do with the issues involved in this suit.

Dunsen for Plf

Ans as to Andrew M. Ely witness can not say; but as to the others he regards them as men being able to have made such purchase at that time.

Cross examined,

Question by Plaintiff. Did you not at one time negotiate for the purchase of said mill property, if so who with and at what time and at what price was it offered to you.

Ans I did, with Ales Wymer, I think in the year 1867 or 8, at the price of one thousand dollars.

Question by same. Do you know at what price Ales Wymer sold said property to Mrs L Turner and Mrs Siley Wymer.

Ans My impression is that it was $1000. — I wrote the title bonds between the parties.

Question by same, Have you ever owned mill property, or had any experience in reference to the profits yielded by mills?

Ans I have not.

And further this witness saith not.

Wm. F. Martin

Wm. H. Woodard another witness being duly sworn deposes & Says

Question by D. R. H. Mr. Woodard you will please State how long you have been acquainted with the J. W. Orr mill property, were you acquainted with it in 1868 and just before Mr. Orr purchased it and if so what do you think the property was reasonably worth in the condition it was in when the Suff. J. W. Orr bought it?

Ans I have been acquainted with said property ever since I was a mill boy and I am now 53 years old I was also acquainted with it in 1868, just before and about the time Mr.
Orr purchased it; and in the condition it was then in, I consider it was reasonably worth Two Thousand Dollars, this opinion is my own individual opinion as to the value of the property, I have had no practical experience with mills or mill property

Cross Examined

Question by Plffs. Did you ever own a Mill site, Grist Mill + Saw Mill, Ans I never did.

Question by same What would <sup>you</sup> regard as a fair cash price for said Mill property in the condition it is now in?

Ans I think, just as it stands to day, it is worth Four Thousand Dollars. And further this witness saith not.

Question by Defendants-

After you gave your deposition on yesterday, did you have a conversation with James N. Orr Plffs <sup>in this case</sup> concerning the purchase of his mill property, if so please state the conversation?

Ans I did have a conversation, with the said James W. Orr, in which he remarked to me, "would you give me $5000, for the property," to which I said that is very high, "he then asked, at me what I said to $4000," to which I remarked that I was too old, to buy.

Witness Examined.

Question by Plaintiff. Did not the conversation between you and Mr Orr occur in this way, when Mr Orr met you, Did he not say "Well Andy while you are up so high on Mill property what do you say to $5,000 for the whole."

Ans If that was the way he put his question I don't recollect it

Question by same Are you acquainted with the general reputation of James G Browning in the neighborhood in which he lives for honesty and integ

The deposition of Thomas W. Fleenor + others taken by consent of parties, at the Circuit Court Clerk's office on the 3rd day of March 1883, which are intended to be read as evidence in behalf of the defendants in a certain Chancery cause now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County in which James W. Orr is Plaintiff and Wm. L. Turner et al are defendants.
Thos. W. Fleenor a witness of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes and says.

Question by Defendant.

Please state, how long you have known James W. Orr, and how long has he the said Orr lived in Lee County and was he or not, sheriff of Lee County in 1868, and for some years before.

Ans I have known the said James W. Orr ever since the year 1857. when I first knew him he was a boy living on Sugar Run about 2½ miles from his present mill he was Sheriff of Lee County from the year 1865. to some time in the year 1869.

Are you, acquainted with the house now occupied by Wm L. Turner, and ipostatate the style and no of rooms and size of the house - when said Turner moved into the same - and whether or not Wm O. did not have a new house built on said lot for his miller; and whether or not his miller did not once occupy the the Turner house & move out for said Turner to move in, after him.
Turner quit merchandizing with Wm O. in Jonesville;

Ans I am acquainted with said house It is a log house consisting of two rooms, one below & one above with a small cook room attached; and is situated about 40 or 50 yards diagonally across the road from J. W. Ows mill, and is a moderately comfortable house for a small family to live in,

My recollection is that said Turner moved into the house where he now lives, ~~soon~~ after the the new house built by Mr. Orr for his miller was completed, but I cannot say how long after the completion of the new house; but it was thus occupied by the said Turner immediately on his leaving Jorruville, after he and Mr. Orr ceased being partners in the mercantile business. Mr. Burnett said Orr's miller lived in the house now occupied by said Turner while we were building the new house & said Burnett moved out of the old house, as soon as the new house was completed, in to the new; there is a tolerably fair garden spot of about  $\frac{1}{2}$  acre attached to the old house.

up to the time Mr. Orr built the new house, did or not, the Miller or Mr. Orr occupy the house now used by said Turner?

Ans I don't remember that any one except Mr. Burnett, as Miller, lived in said house.

Cross examined.

Q. By Puff. After the building of the new house of which you speak, and Mr. Burnett had moved to it, did not Elias Vanhuss rent from James W. Orr the old house and live in it from Feb. to October 1876.

Ans Mr. Vanhuss moved into said house, he told me he had rented the house from Mr. Orr, and about that time he moved into said house, and remained there until the next fall, I think.

Q. By same. When was the new house built, and do you know whether the plaintiff had it built for his miller estate.

Ans My recollection is that the new house was built in the spring of 1876. I don't know for what purpose it was built, I never heard Mr. Orr say.

Q. by same During the time Mr Vanhus was occupying said old house, as you have before stated, was not Mr Lerner then living in Jonesville?

A. Yes I think he was.

Q. by same Have not other persons than Mr Orr's millers occupied said new house, and if so who?

A. Answer They have I remember one Mr. Gillespie.

Q. by same During the time Mr Vanhus occupied the old house, was not a new roof put on said house by J. W. Orr?

A. Answer There was a new roof put on said house my understanding was that it was done by Mr. Orr.

Q. by same At what price was the new house built?

A. Answer I don't recollect.

And further this witness saith not.

Chancery Cause of James W. Orr in Circuit Court of Lee County John R. Gibson a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes & says.

Question by Plaintiffs Counsel. Will you please state whether or not you as clerk recorded the deed or paper purporting to be a deed from J. W. Orr to Wm L. Turner <sup>Wife</sup>, if so please state who brought said deed to you for recordation,

Answer, I did. C. L. Hamblen brought the said deed to me, to be recorded.

Question by same. Please state what he said to you about it, when he brought it to you for recordation.

Answer. He said for me to record it and say nothing about it.

Cross Examined.

Are the deed books of your office open to public inspection

And did Mr Hamblin request you to conceal them or in any prevent their being inspected?

Answer, They are, Mr Hamblen did not ask me to conceal them, nor prevent them from being inspected.

Is not known to you that Mr Hamblin and Mr Orr have for several years past been partners in the mercantile business; and on terms of personal friendship and intimacy?

Answer. I know they conducted the Mercantile business together for some years. <sup>on</sup> ~~on~~ terms of personal friendship so far as I know.

And further this deponent saith not.

John R. Gibson

James W. Orr another witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says.

Question by Plaintiff's counsel, Will you please state all about the contracts between yourself and William L Turner, giving the whole matter in detail, as fully as you can?

The defendant, C. L. Hamblin, and Phebe E. Turner, object to Mr. Orr testifying as to any, Contract made, by craving him, in which Phebe Turner or C. L. Hamblin, as her assignee have an interest. Because, she is a married woman, and hence incompetent to testify upon her part or that of her husband.

2.ly. Because the Bill of the plaintiff admits and his Contract shows as stated by his rail bill and exhibit filed that the same (the contract) is in writing and hence <sup>evidence</sup> parol, to alter Contract or change such Contract is not admissible.

1883, by consent of parties, which depositions are intended to be read <sup>in behalf of Plff.</sup> as evidence, in a certain suit in chancery now pending in

James W Orr is plaintiff and Wm L Turner et als are defendants.

A. P. Wynn a witness of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes as follows.

Questions by
Plff

Did you purchase any of the shares in the land of John Wynn, decd. of which the mill property was one share, & if so what did you pay per share?

Answer,

I purchased two whole shares and seven tenths of another share of said land, I paid for one share five hundred dollars, for another share I paid four hundred and seventy-two dollars, and for the seven tenths I did not pay quite as much as for the other shares in proportion,

Q. Plff

What are the dates of your said several purchases — or about the dates?

Answer,

I think I purchased the two whole shares in 1870, and the seven tenths were purchased at different times, some in 1870, and perhaps all were purchased in 1870.

2. Plff

Were these purchases made after the Commissioners partitioned the land?

Answer. They were;

And further - this deponent ~~said~~ <sup>not</sup>.
What do you think the mill lot was worth in Decr 1868.

Answer. In my opinion the mill lot was worth fully as much as any of the other shares. I would rather have owned it than any of the other shares.

Do you think it was in fact more valuable than the other shares, and if so how much more was it worth?

Answer. I would have been willing to pay one hundred dollars more for that share, than for either that I bought.

Verdict Examined.

In your estimate of the value of land are you governed by your own value of the land, or do you estimate its value by what it would sell for on the market?

Answer. I make my estimate of the value of the property, by what I would be willing to give for it.

2. If then the mill lot would in 1868 or 69 have sold to persons desiring to erect mills or other machinery on said lot for say $1500. would you not have regarded it as worth that to the holder of the lot?

Answer, If the property would have sold at $1500, of course it would be worth that amount to the holder of the lot, or the party selling the same.

3. Do you know the price agreed to be paid for said lot, by Wm S. Turner & Mrs. Aley Hyman?

Answer I do not,

And further this deponent saith not.

A P Hyman

Ailey Hyman another witness of law full age being duly sworn deposes & says. Question by Plaintiff. Did you and Wm S Turner purchase together or in partnership the mill property now owned by James H Orr and if so at what price was your purchase made?

Answer We bought the property together, and we were to pay one thousand dollars for it, Question by same. How much did you and Mr Turner pay towards said property?

and by whom was the same paid, and how much was paid by each of you?

Answer

I do not know how much Mr Turner paid. I paid two hundred & thirty five dollars towards it.

Question by same. Was the money paid out by you on the purchase of said property paid back to you by any person if so by whom?

Answer,

It was paid back to me by James W. Orr, at the time I sold out to Mr. Turner.

Question by same. Was this sum paid to you for Mr Turner by Mr Orr.

Answer,

That was my understanding;

Question by same. Do you recollect the amount paid you by Mr Orr for Mr Turner, if so please state how much?

Answer,

Mr Orr paid me for Mr Turner the sum of Two-hundred and eighty-two dollars, Mr Orr paid a Judgment to Elkannah Flanory Admr. of one hundred and eighty-two dollars principal, and a Grey filly, at one hundred dollars, making the Two hundred & eighty-two dollars, Question by same. Do you know the price which James W Orr agreed to pay said Turner for said property?

Answer.

I do not;

Question by same, how you had any convention with said Turner since the institution of this suit as to the price said Orr was to pay for said property, if so please state what he claimed the price to be.

The answer to this question is objected to so far as it relates to the interest of C.L.
Hamblin or Ophelia Turner his assignor?

Answer,

Morgan & Pilemore

I have heard Mr Turner say that Mr Orr would owe him fifteen hundred dollars, he said Mr Orr was owing him about Three Thousand dollars, and if he did not get that, he would get fifteen hundred any way;

Did Turner say to you that if he failed in this suit he would then sue <sup>said Orr</sup> him for fifteen hundred dollars the purchase price, ~~and~~ Orr was to pay him for the property or what <sup>did he say?</sup>

This question is excepted to because it contradicts the deed of the plff. under which he claims, and being in writing is the highest & best evidence of the contract.

Morgan & Pilemore

Answer,

Mr Turner told me, if he failed in this suit, he would sue Mr Orr on the first deed, and gain fifteen hundred dollars, I mention by name, What was the condition of the mill on said property at the time said Turner sold to said Orr. and what would have been a fair valuation of the Tolls of said Mill by the year in the condition said Mill was then in?

This question is objected to because, no such issue is raised by the bill or defendant's answer - and is therefore irrelevant. Margaret Pickens

Answer. It was very much dilapidated, and I don't think there was any mill running ~~on~~ on the place at the time;

Cross Examined.

What price did you S. Turner agree to pay you for your half of said mill when you sold out to him and was that price paid?

Answer. I do not exactly remember, but I think it was five hundred dollars, but the deed I suppose states the proper price, I was to have five hundred dollars for my half and have what I had paid towards the land returned to me, which was paid to me by Mr Orr as I stated before in this deposition

Question. There is a condition in your deed to Wm S. Turner, by which you had the privilege within five years to pay back said money interest on which has just been read to you. Did you afterwards sell that privilege out to Mr Orr the self; and if so how much did he pay you for that privilege?

Answer. I did sell that privilege to Mr Orr, and received the sum of two hundred dollars for the same.

Question. At the time Mr Turner purchased from you, at the price of seven hundred dollars would you have, sold that half interest, to Mr Orr for that price, or did you did you not so sell in part as a personal favor to Dr. Turner:

Answer. I sold to Mr <sup>Turner</sup> ~~Orr~~, because I could not pay, what I had agreed to pay, for the property.

Question. Was you advised at that time that said sale was for Mr. Orr; Answer. I did not know it at the time,

Re-examined.

Question by Plaintiff. You state in answer to the first question asked you by test Price more that Mr Orr had paid back to you the sum which you had paid towards the purchase price of said Mill. property. Now is there anything still due to you on said property if so who owes it to you.

Answer. There is nothing due me on the property that

I know of:

* Question by same, has anything been paid to you on said property by any one except what was paid you by J. H. Orr.

Answer, I do not remember of any one else paying me anything on the property.

Alexander B. Muncy, another witness of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes and Says.

Question by Plaintiff.

Are you the Commissioner of the Revenue for the Jonesville District and how long have you been so?

Answer I am, and have been acting as Comr. of the Revenue for five years in said District.

Question by same. During that time did you as such Commissioner <sup>aided</sup> assist Mr. L. Turner for taxation.

Answer. I did, each year: for the last five years.

Question by same, Did the said Turner at any time request or require you to assess him with any real estate or interest in real estate either for life or in fee.

Answer, He did not;

Question by same. Did the said Turner at any time since you have been Commissioner of the Revenue give into you for taxation any debts monies claims or demands of any kind on hand or owing to him in anyway, or from any person, and especially did he give into you any claim for any debt or demand against James W. Orr?

Answer.

He did not;

Question by same. Who was Treasurer of Lu County from 1875 to 1879, or 1880,

Answer,

Charles L. Hamblen;

Question by same Did Phoebe Turner wife of the said Wm L Turner. give into you for taxation any real estate or interest in real estate, situated in said County, or did she give into you, for that purpose any debts demands claims or monies on hand or anything of the kind or owing to her in anyway

Answer,

She did not; I did not assess her at all nor did I ever apply to her for a list of property.

Question by same. Was there any real estate or interest in real estate charged to Wm L Turner or Wm L Turner & wife or either of them are the land books of your District since you have been acting as Commissioner in said District.

Answer. This question is objected to because the books are the best evidence of such entries.

Morgan & Prudenore
Answer. There was none, that I remember of.

And further this Defendant doth not.

Alex B. Marsey

The further taking of depositions in this Cause is adjourned until to-morrow Jan 6th 1883, at the same place, This January 5th 1883.

Henry C. Joslyn J.P.

Met pursuant to adjournment, on the 6th day of January 1883, and John Burgan a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and say,

In answer by Plaintiff, Did you ever hear Wm L Turner say whether or not he owned any interest in the Ft Orr Mill property (now in dispute, in this suit) and if so when was it, where was it and what did he say?

This question is objected to so far as it same affects C. L. Hamblin or Phoebe Turner.

Morgan & Prudenore

Ans. Some time in the year 1879, at the dwelling house of Wm L. Turner near said Mill, a conversation arose between witness and said Turner, in which said Turner remarked about Mrs Hyman then in her yard in sight in which said Turner remarked - "Look there at the old fool, there she is in suffering; she had an interest in this mill once that would have supported her; to which witness said or you have an interest in the Mill have you not?" to which said Turner replied no more than you have.

Cross Examined -

Question. How did you happen to know that Dr. Turner had an interest in the mill which caused you to make the remark Answered. I had heard it talked about and my recollection is that John Hamblin for one told me that Mr Turner had an interest in said Mill Question. For how long have you been acquainted with Wm L. Turner and have you seen him often for the last say 10 years?

Answer. I have been acquainted with him for about 10 years and have seen him frequently during that period. I did the principal part of my mill<sup>ing</sup> at the Orr Mill while Dr Turner was Miller there.

Question. Did you on any other occasion, have any other conversation with said Turner about said Mill?

Answer. Not that I now recollect Question. Was it in the winter spring, summer or fall?

Answer. It was in the summer or latter part of the summer.

Question. Who else was present?

Answer. No other person was present

As Dr Turner is well known you, will you please state if he is in the habit of using such language as "old fool" about ladies in the neighborhood?

Answer. I never heard him use it but that one time

Question. Is not Dr. Turner a chaste man generally in his language, and did ever <sup>you</sup> hear him use such language at another time during your acquaintance, about any other person?

Answer. As far as I know he is a very smooth man in his language. and I do not know that I ever heard him use such an expression about any person at any other time

Question—was you & Dr Turner sitting down at the house or was you upon your horse in the road?

Answer He was both sitting down together at the back of Turner's house.

Question—What was your business at Turner's house on that occasion?

Answer I had been over to old Johnny Woodwards on Sugar run came by the mill on my way home. When Mr Turner asked me to get down and rest awhile which I did staying with him an hour or more.

Question—Please state what else you and Dr Turner talked about during your stay at that time?

Answer—He talked about one thing or another. I do not know that I recollect any particular thing that we talked about.

Question—Can you not recollect some few words or sentences that passed, about something besides the mill?

Answer No I can't

Question—What had you been over to woodwork for?

Answer I don't know that I went for anything except to see the old man Question. What time in the week was it?

Answer. It was on Sunday.

Question. What time in the day?

Answer. It was after 12 o'clock. I had not yet had my dinner at the old Man Woodards.

Question. Did this conversation you relate about the mill take place when you first got down or was it after you had been there for some time?

Answer. It took place after I had been there a right smart little while.

Question. On which side of the house were you sitting?

Answer. We were sitting on the East side of the house.

Question. Have you met at different times in this country and since 1879, said to C. L. Hamblin in conversation with him, that it was your belief or opinion that Dr. Turner had an interest in said mill?

Answer. I believe I have.

Question. If you had heard Dr. Turner say the facts you detail - How did it happen that you used that language to Hamblin?

Answer. As a great many men were getting the mill because they did not like said Turner. I thought he must have some interest in the Mill or Orr would turn him out, and this is what caused me to talk that way, what ~~Turner~~ had said to me did not make much impression on me.

Question - If I understood you then, you inferred that Dr. Turner did not make claim to any interest, he might have, lest it might affect the custom at the mill as he Turner was unpopular as a Miller?

Answer, That was my inference - from the conversation first detailed by me.

Re-examined

Question by Plaintiff How did you come to talk to C L Hamblen about the mill and about Turner having an interest in it?

Answer I don't remember how the conversation came up,

Question by same Did you tell C L Hamblen that Turner told you he had no interest in said mill.

This question is objected to because it is hearsay & irrelevant? Margaret Pickmore

Answer I do not remember telling C. L. Hamblen that Turner told me he had no interest in the mill - but I do remember telling John Hamblen that Turner told me so,

Question by same. How did these conversations between yourself and C L

Answer I do not recollect; Question by same In these conver-Answer. About a month, or perhaps a little more than a month ago. C. L. Hamblen and myself were talking about this Suite, and he told me that Mr Turner's claim against Mr Orr would be between four and five thousand dollars - back tolls and everything - he also said that it would be very hard on Mr Orr. I asked Mr Hamblen if Mr Turner had not been getting his living at the mill, he told me that he had gotten a portion of his living at the mill - but had made some corn on land near him, and that Mr Turner and Jim (a colored boy living with him) had been working there.

C. E. Bell

C. A Russell another witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says.
Question by Plaintiff. Are you a partner with C. L. Hamblen in the mercantile business at Jonesville, if so how long have you been so.

Answer. I am, and have been a partner of C. L. Hamblen, since March 1881.
Question by same. Were you and the said Hamblen in the habit of having your grinding of wheat for your mercantile business done at Orr's Mill, and did you not some time ago complain to Mr Orr about the unsatisfactory character of the grinding done for you if so please state about how long ago that was.

Answer,

We were in the habit of having considerable of our wheat ground at Orr's mill, and about a year or perhaps little more than a year ago, I did complain to Mr Orr and to Mr Turner about the unsatisfactory manner in which our wheat was ground and of the quality and quantity of flour we received from this mill.

Question by same. In any of these conversations with Mr Orr, do you recollect hearing Mr Hamblen ask Mr Orr if Mr L Turner had an interest in said Mill, if so please state the answer of the said Orr to the said Hamblen?

Answer

I do not remember of hearing Mr Hamblen and Mr Orr talk about it, Question by same. Has Mr L Hamblen said Mr Turner <sup>+ wife</sup> any goods wares and merchandise on the purchase which he claims to have made of them of their interest in said Mill property, out of the share of Hamblen & Russell. since the assignment or transfer of said property <sup>or claim</sup> to the said Hamblen?

Answer. He has not that I know of, and I think I would have known it if he had,
Mr Turner has been running an account with Hamblen & Russell ever since we have been in business. The last time we settled he settled with me, and paid his account in Cash and other things - he has made no settlement for the last several months

Croft Examined.

Does Mr Hamblen act as a clerk in the store, of Hamblen & Russell and as such recd, and deliver goods to customers?

Answer. He does;

Ques 2. Could, He not therefore, have made such sales to Dr Turner, agreed to settle & account for Dr. Turner over due account to Hamblen & Russell without your knowledge of that fact?

Answer. He could have agreed to have done so, but no such settlement has been made to my knowledge, Mr Turner still owes the firm an account of about Twenty four dollars and eighty-two cents.

Does Mr Hamblin keep an account with the firm and lift merchandise on his own account?

Answer. He does;

Is Mr Hamblin a man of any means, outside the firm and could easily pay from other sources say five or six hundred dollars?

Answer. He is a man of some means outside of the firm, and I think could pay several hundred dollars without calling on the firm.

Since the date of the institution of this suit say October last, has Dr Wm L. Turner been frequently at Mr. Hamblin and have you any knowledge of said Hamblin having <sup>at said time</sup> corn or other farm products?

Answer. He has been at the store <sup>and Mr Hamblin's house</sup> frequently but I have no knowledge of any transaction of the kind.

Examination

Question by Plaintiff, You have stated that you made the last settlement with Wm L Turner which he has made, with the firm of Hamblin & Russell, will you now state the date of said Settlement.

Answer. It was September 14th 1882,

Question by same, Has C L Hambley any other store or interest in any other store than that of Hambley & Russell.

Answer. Not that I know of;

Question by same, Did you not clerk for Hambley & Orr for sometime in their store in Jonesville while they were partners in the Mercantile business, and if so did the said Hambley & Orr use a house which is situated on said Mill property as a granary during any of that time.

Answer. I did clerk for Hambley & Orr, and during that time I heard them speak of having such a granary. I heard them say they had grain in it.

Question by same, I her now exhibit to you a paper marked (O P 2), purporting to be a contract, between James H Orr and C L Hambley with reference to building a granary on the Mill property, Will you please state in whose hand writings the names to said agreement are.

Answer.

The paper here referred to and the above question is objected to as irrelevant to any issue in said case.

Question by Plaintiffs. Did you ~~attempt~~ attempt to purchase, from Wm L Turner the Mill property, or did he attempt to sell the same to you at any time before he sold the same to James W Orr.

Answer.

There was Considerable Talk between myself and Mr Turner in regard to a sale by him to me of the Mill property, before he sold the same to James W Orr.
Question by same. At what price did he offer said property to you?

Answer.

My recollection is that he asked me one thousand dollars for the property-but he reserved the use of the House where he then lived, and where he now lives, with the inclosure around it, during his lifetime and the lifetime of his wife. I understood this to be a proposition for the whole Property and not for one half thereof.

Question by same, Did he propose to reserve any interest in the mill or the tolls thereof?

Answer, Not that I have any recollection of,

Question by same, Have you had any conversation with said Turner since the institution of this suit about the amount of his claim against James H Orr, or the value of said claim, if so what did he say said claim amounted to or was worth?

Answer, Mr Turner and myself have had a conversation about the amount of his claim against J. H. Orr, Mr Turner and myself made a calculation of the amount that one fourth of the toll ought to amount to, and also the use of the house and lot, and we made the whole amount to somewhere between Twenty-five hundred and four thousand dollars.

The foregoing, question ~~and answers~~ are ~~excepted to~~, be was objected to, and is now objected to as well as the answer thereto because at the date fixed for the conversation was after the assignment to C. L. Hamblin and so far as he is involved they are each excepted to Morgan & Pridemore

Cross Examined.

In the ~~conversations~~ conversation, alluded to you as had with Dr. Turner since the institution of this suit, will you please state all that Dr. Turner said in that conversation.

Answer,

The Plaintiff by his attorney objects to the witness stating anything stated by said Turner in said conversation in reference to anything else except the amount or value of said claim.

Duncan.

Answer,

The conversation before partly detailed by me occurred in this way, Mr Turner whose wife is an aunt of mine, came to my house when we were gathering apples in the fall of last year, and had not been there long, when the conversation turned upon the suit between Mr Turner and Mr Orr about the mill, He took from his pocket a paper which he called a deed, and read it, which paper was read, and seemed to call for one fourth of the tolls from the mill, said paper was very dim and the said Turner told me it had been lost for sometime but had been recently found by his wife,

He said he Turner did not know where the paper was - but his wife had found it. There was something said in the deed, about the consideration mentioned in the deed of five hundred dollars, - but Turner said the deed was executed to him by Orr, in pursuance of the agreement between him and Orr, that when he executed the deed to Orr for the mill property, Orr was to execute this deed which was then before us. and the deed Turner executed to Orr was the reason of Orr's executing this deed, and the money which he Turner had promised to Orr was not to pay for his deed - but was promised to Orr in case he could collect some debts in Tenn., or get it otherwise but the money thus promised was only as an accommodation and loan, and he could not collect said money and consequently did not let Mr Orr, have it, he said he did have debts due him in Tenn. - but did not care to say much about it, he

In the said conversation, Mr Turner spoke of some small amounts he had paid towards repairing the mill and also of fitting up a house on said lot for a storehouse, with a view of occupying it as a storehouse but Mr Orr asked him to write a few days and subsequently told him he had declined to let him have it. The reason Mr Turner said he wanted the house for a storehouse, was that he was out of <sup>the mill</sup> ~~business~~ after being And out of employment and so told Mr Orr, and in this same conversation Mr Turner told me he had sold out to C. L. Hambley.

Ques. Do you remember of anything further in this same conversation relating to the matters in regard to said mill, as spoken of by you in your examination in chief?

Answer I do not, except he said he had received something near a year's support from said mill.

Questa In the first conversation detailed by you, was you stipulating, with a view to purchase, or was it a mere conversation in reference to said property?

Answer, I was in earnest, and wanted to purchase the property

Question Can you give us any reason why you did not so purchase? or was it on account of the highness of its price?

Answer, It was not on account of the price that I did not purchase it. for I considered the property worth all he asked for it;

Question. Was you a resident of this County in the year 1868 & 9 and on to the present time? And if so what was the relative market value of real estate, then and since the year 1873.

Answer, I was a resident of the County in 1868 & 9. and have been a resident of the County ever since. I think real estate at the present time is worth fully as much as it was in 1868 & 9.

Question - What would you regard, the mill seat and water power of the company on mill property <sup>to be worth</sup> without any mill upon it considering its location &c - The sale to be upon say 1 or 2 years credit?

Answer, I should think it would worth at least fifteen hundred dollars, - for the property without the mill, or dam or anything on it, only what was on it when I proposed to purchase it, Present. James W. Orr, Plaintiff & C. T. Duncan one of his counsel, and W<sup>m</sup> L Turner & C L Hamblen two of the defendants and A L Pridemore their counsel.

Frank Wood a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes, & says, Question by Plaintiff's Counsel Did you work for and assist, W<sup>m</sup> L Turner in the Mill during any part of the time said Turner had rented the Mill of James W. Orr If so please state how long you so remained with him & if you as nearly as you can when you commenced and when you quit.
Answer - I stayed with Mr. W<sup>m</sup> L. Turner and worked for him in the said Mill from the 10th day of February 1879, until about 1st day of November 1881.

Question by same. Did you work for a part of the tolls of the Mill, if so what part were you to get?

Answer - I worked for a part of the toll and received one sixth part thereof for my services.

Question by same. Did you keep an account of the tolls so received by you for the first year you remained in the mill ~~for the first year you staid in the~~ ~~mill~~ with Mr Turner? and if so what amounts came to your part?

Answer. I did - and I received as my part  $103\frac{3}{4}$  Bu wheat, and about 53 Bushels of corn.

Question by same. How did this year correspond or compare with the remainder of the time you staid there in way of tolls?

Answer. I don't think the custom to the mill was quite so large, after the first year, for the remainder of the time I staid in the mill.

Question by same. Do you know under what contract Mr Turner had the mill rented, I mean did he rent for a part of the tolls if so, what part did he get?

Answer - Mr. Turner was to receive  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the tolls, as he informed me being the same terms upon which Mr. Burnet had, had the mill rented, and that Mr. Orr was to keep the mill in good repair.

Question by same. Was the account you kept, kept by direction of Mr. Turner or did you merely keep it for your own information.

Answer - I kept said account for my own benefit.

Question by same. Do you know whether Mr. Turner kept any account of the tolls during the time you staid with him?

Answer - He did - during the first year - and I don't think he did afterwards.

Question by same. During the time you stayed with Mr. Turner in the mill did you ever hear him set up any claim to said mill property or any interest in it?

Answer - I never heard him say that he did or did not have such claim.

Question by same. When any repairing was necessary to the mill who had it done?

Answer - When any thing of consequence got out of order, Mr Turner would go after Mr. Orr, who would get up hands and have the work done but I don't know who done the paying.

Question by same. Did or did not you and Mr Turner rent from Mr Orr the granary standing on said Mill property for a store house -

Answer - Mr. Turner rented said granary - I had nothing to do with the said renting. He & I were partners or expected to be, & he informed me that he was to have said granary (for repairing the same) for one year.

Cross Examined by Defts counsel Was you employed, by Mr Turner, alone, or was it not a condition of his occupancy of the mill, that you was to remain in the mill is practical miller?

Answer - No it was not. Mr. Turner rented the Mill and afterwards employed me.

Question 2'. Is Mr Turner a practical miller?

Answer - I don't think he was when we commenced business at said Mill.

How long, have you been engaged, in and about, said mill; or been acquainted with, the same;

Answer— For about 3 years, I was in said Mill with James B.
Burnett, which was before Robt Vandeventer occupied the said Mill.

Question During the time, Burnett and yourself occupied said mill, was not the custom work done at it, much greater than after the year 1859,

Answer I think that the custom work was greater.

And further this deponent says to not.

November the 18th 1882 Met pursuant to agreement at A L Pridemore's Office when James G Browning a witness of lawful age after being duly sworn deposes & says,

Question by Plaintiff. Or will you please state if you did not purchase from Ales Hym the notes executed by Wm L Turner and Hiley Hym. to him for the purchase price of the Mill property now owned and occupied by James W Orr.

Answer. I did. I made said purchase according to my present recollection on the 5th day of September 1868 or it might have been in 1867.

- 2 Question by same. Please state the sum for which <sup>said</sup> notes were executed, and the amounts paid on them before you made the purchase if anything?

Answer. I collected on said notes after I purchased them. Seven hundred and thirty five dollars, <sup>which was paid me by W<sup>m</sup> L. Turner</sup> and that is the sum I paid to A. C. Hoyle, for them, and my understanding was that the sum of one hundred and sixty or one hundred and sixty five dollars had been paid to Mr. Hoyle towards the purchase price of said property before I purchased the notes.

- 3 Question by same. Did not Mr. W. L. Turner try to sell said property to you before he sold it to Mr. Orr. If so will you please state what price he asked you for it?

Answer. He did come to me to sell me said property, and he asked me for it the sum of $1300. This was some two or three or four months before he Turner paid me money on said notes.

- 4th Question by same. State as nearly as you can when he paid you money for said notes.

Answer. As well as I now remember it was in November or December 1868, at which time I understood from B. Turner he had sold the property

5th Question by same. Will you please state what you consider was a fair cash price for that property at the time Mr Turner attempted to sell it to you Answer I did not consider the property at that time worth what Dr. Turner asked me for it.

6 Question by same, At the time Mr Turner offered to sell to you, did he propose to sell the whole property or did he want to make any reservations, of a life estate or anything of the kind?

Answer My recollection is that he wanted to reserve a House and perhaps a lot for the use of himself for life, but I do not remember of his wanting to reserve any interest in the mill.

7th Question by same What reason did he assign for desiring to sell said property?

Answer, My recollection is that he gave as his reason for wanting to sell was on account of his affairs in Tennessee and being unable to pay for the property.

Croft Examined.

Answer - I think he proposed to sell, his, and Mrs. Hymns interests

2<sup>d</sup> Do you know what price Dr. Turner & Mrs. Hymn agreed to pay Ales. Hyatt for said property and what the original note was executed for Answer I do not

3<sup>d</sup> Ques. After James W. Orr purchased said property, did he ever propose to construct the new mill, in partnership with you?

Answer He did not.

4. Did he ever propose any terms of partnership or joint occupancy of the same with you?

Answer He did not.

Did you ever propose such partnership with him or have any conversation about such partnership or occupancy, and if so state, what terms you asked and he offered in such arrangement?

Answer Some time after Mr Turner offered to sell the property, I met with Mr Orr in town, where I asked him if he would join with me in the purchase of said property, where he declined to do so, saying he was then not able.

James B. Burnett a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes & says -

Did you, as practical <sup>mill</sup>er, occupy the water grist mill, of James W. Orr? If so how long and for what years?

Answer. I occupied said Mill as the miller for the period of about 4 years and 3 months. I do not recollect the year in which I went into said Mill nor the year I left it.
I have been away from said Mill ~~five~~ years last April as I now think Question 2<sup>d</sup>. How much grain, was received by you, for toll of said mill, what proportion ~~was~~ wheat, what corn?

Give your best estimate:—

Answer. I kept no account for any part of the time & except the first three weeks I kept the mill. I therefore cannot give you a satisfactory answer. to the question for the first week I got to my part, 1 Bu  $1\frac{1}{2}$  gals of grain the second week I got 2 Bu and 3 gals of grain and the 3rd week I got 4 Bu of grain, to put the 4th week of the month. at the same as the third week my part for the 1st month would be about  $11\frac{1}{2}$  bushels.

My part or the amount I got of the tolls of said mill <sup>was</sup> one third part.

Question 3<sup>d</sup>. Was the mill, employed, as a general thing, for its working hours of each, would it average, a constant employment for each <sup>day</sup>? If not About how many days in the week would it require the mill to grind up the custom work?

Answer— While I cannot answer the question with definiteness, my best opinion is that the tolls of said mill for the time I kept it would average with the third week as given above.

Question 4th. During your term as miller, did Mr Orr, direct you to pay Wm L. Turner any part of said tolls? if so how much, tell all about it?

Answer. I received orders from Mr Orr to let Mr Turner have some grain but how much he got I cannot tell. Some of said orders were limited to so many bushels or pounds another one was unlimited in amount.

Question 5- Can you give any estimate of the amount of grain delivered to said Turner under the unlimited order?

Answer I cannot.

Cross examined by the Plaintiff

1 Question by Plaintiff Will you state as nearly as you can what proportion of the tolls made by said Mill was wheat and what proportion was corn?

The deposition of Michael McLure taken before me on the 28th June 1884 at the time of taking an account in the above styled Cause, The said Michael McLure being duly sworn deposes and saith.

As well as I now remember I moved to the house in which Dr. W. L. Turner now lives, in the month of July 1869, for the purpose of tending a mill known as the "Dart Mill," <sup>erected by Mr. Orr</sup> previous to the time he built his present mill. I attended said Mill from that time until the next Spring, during some time of said spring the water cistern of the Dart Mill, bursted. Mr. David Orr Sr. tended the mill a short time before I commenced attending said Mill, while I attended said mill I kept an account of the tolls arising therefrom, in order that I might divide justly between Mr. Orr & myself - and at one time knew how much said mill yielded, but I have forgotten at at this time, all about it, and I have no means now at my command of forming an approximate estimate of what said mill did produce in tolls, either by the day, week or year. I remember however that the mill did very little grinding while I tended the same.

My recollection now is that I lived in the house I moved into something over one year at the lapse of which time I turned over said house to Mr. J. W. Orr who informed me he desired the same for Mr. Taylor to live in while he, Mr. Taylor was engaged in building the new mill house.

Gross Examined

Question by Defendant Orr. Did you pay any rent for the house and lot for the time you lived in it

Answer. I did not. Mr. Wm L. Turner informed me, while I was living in said house, that the house and lot, would belong to him & his wife during their lives and that I could occupy said house till he returned, he was then preparing to start off to take charge of a circuit. He and his family stayed with me about one month while I lived in said property.

Question by same. Do you think the earnings of that mill, in the condition <sup>it</sup> was when you attended it as Miller would have been worth as much as one hundred dollars or <sup>for the entire time it was running</sup> more or less. Give your best opinion,?

 James W. Orr Defts } In Chy

To the Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County...

The undersigned having been appointed a commissioner in the above styled cause to "take an account under the Crossbill of the rents, issues and profits, of the Mill property, in controversy in this cause, in which account the mill property shall be charged with all necessary repairs thereon from the time at which Wm. L. Turner & wife became tenants in common with James W. Orr, that is from the date of the deed to Turner by Orr, until the sale to C. L. Hamblew in the bill & exhibits mentioned; and of all necessary expenses in running said mill; and the said mill property shall be credited with the income or tolls received therefrom; and said Commissioner will show what balance of income or tolls, if any, is thus left for distribution.

He will then Charge Mr. Orr, with the whole income or tolls received by him; and Mr. L. Turner with the whole amount of income or tolls received by him either directly or through Mr. Orr; and allowing Mr. L. Turner one fourth of the net tolls or income, and Mr. Orr three fourths of the net income or tolls, after deducting cost of necessary repairs and expenses. He will show whether either party is indebted, on account of such income or tolls to the other, and if so how much.

And the Commissioner will further ascertain the cost of the permanent improvements on the said Mill property, and what would be a just and fair proportion of said cost to be borne by Mr. L. Turner on account of his and his wife's interest therein; and he will finally show upon the basis of this decree what is the state of the account, thus made up between said Orr & Turner:— and a similar account may be taken between Jeff. Hamblin and Deft Orr since Hamblin's purchase.

Respectfully report, that in obedience to said decree, after giving all the parties in interest and their Attorneys notice, I commenced on the 3<sup>d</sup> July, 1884, to take Deps in said causes; and after taking the deposition of several witnesses concerning the cost of erecting the new mill &c, the parties, to the very great satisfaction of your Commission, and to the interest, no doubt, of all concerned, entered into and signed agreement "A." herewith filed, which fixed the cost of the "Darter mill," at $300<sup>00</sup> as of Apr. 1st 1869, and that of erecting the new mill at $2280.17 paid Aug 15th 1872, which amounts constitute a count "D" as amended filed with Mr. Orr's answer to the Cross bill. making a total cost of $2580.17, expended on said mill property down to Aug. 15th 1872.

Said Agreement also fixes the amount of tolls (net,) after deducting Mrs Wynn's share, received from the Darton Mills at $80, as of April 1st 1870, and the annual amount arising from the net tolls of the new mill, from Aug. 15th 1872. to Sept. 15th 1882, at the sum of $408.00 these facts could hardly have been obtained or even approximated in any other way than by an agreement, Some small expenditures by Mr. Turner as will be seen, are admitted in said Agreement "A." as well as some small receipts by Mr. Orr.

It then only remained for me to ascertain the cost of necessary repairs &c to keep the mill in running order from the time the new mill started Aug 15th 1872 to Sept 15th 1882, time of sale by Turner to Hamblen, in order that I might take the account as directed by said decree with the mill property.

And after spending several days in taking proof on this and other points, all of which is herewith filed marked Depositions, the parties announced that they had no further evidence to offer. I then proceeded to scan the Depositions, and found that there had been expended for necessary repairs and running expenses down to Sept, 15th 1882, the sum of $717.13, in which amount is included $60.00 as allowed Mr. Orr for his services in superintending the repairs to our said + mill - the evidence seems to indicate that his services in superintending was reasonably worth from $10 to 15¢ annually, but as there was but little expended above taxes and a small sum on the race, for the first four or five years after the new mill started - I have only allowed him <sup>pay for</sup> services for such years as there seemed to be considerable amounts expended - I have also failed to embrace in this summary amount for the rents of the house now occupied by Wm. L. Turner the exclusive use of which has been decreed him & wife for life, <sup>in this cause</sup> from the fact that these allowances were not sufficiently connected with the mill property to be chargeable thereto - In this your Court may be mistaken and if so, he is honestly so, and herewith files Special statements 1, 2 & 3, which allow said sums as claimed & partially proven. As will be seen by Statement "D. & E." all the expenditures are charged according to the dates of payments, except the work on the race which seemed to have been performed indefinitely, and the amt. for this work I have averaged for the ten years, giving $8.97½ annually as the amount of average work done on the race. to which average I have added the annual other expenditures, and as before stated resulted in finding that there had been thus expended the ~~the~~ sum of $717.13 down to Sept 15th 1882, of which sum W. L. Lurmer had expended the sum of $41.00 and Mr. Orr the balance $676.13 - See Statement "R. E."

Upon the agreed Cost of Darter & new mill, <sup>account "C."</sup> and Statement "R. E." I base the account with the Mill property herewith filed marked "M. P." In taking this account I have charged said Mill property with the taxes paid thereon, Cost of Darter Mill Apr. 1st 1869, and with amt pd by Lurmer for banding Gott & son as agreed, ~~on~~ which amounts I have calculated & added interest to Apr. 1st 1870, time of first receipts in the way of tolls from Darter Mill rec'd Apr. 1st 1870. and given credit of 80¢ amt of tolls rec'd. leaving as balance due or unpaid of this investment Apr. 1st 1870 the sum of $250.15-upon which sum I compute & add int, to Aug. 15th 1873, the time of next receipts, I also charge said property with the cost of new mill & interest to said time, with the taxes as paid, & interest and with the annual expenditure for taxes & repairs to Aug. 15th 1873, giving the sum total as expended for all things to said date the sum of $276.68

I then give this amt credit with $420.24 as amount received in the way of tolls, this sum includes $12.
24 cents as half interest on the \$408.<sup>00</sup> in tolls rec'd, which your Commissioner considers fair as between the parties, the tolls being received, ordinarily every day, it appears to me that Half interest should be allowed; this course is pursued, calculating interest on balance due the mill at 6% and 3% on tolls, annually down to Sept, 15th 1882, which results in finding that there is of net <sup>less expenditures</sup> tolls, the sum of \$161.00 for distribution between Jas. W. Orr & Wm L. Turner in the proportion of  $\frac{1}{4}$  to Turner &  $\frac{3}{4}$  to Mr. Orr.

I then as directed by said decrees Charge <sup>The mill Property</sup> ~~Mr. Orr~~ with all amounts as p'd by Mr. Orr, in the construction of said mill &c, and give him Credits for all amounts received by him, annually, See Statement "O," down to the said 15th Sept 1882, which results in finding that he is on that day due from said Mill the sum of $34.09

I also make a similar Statement herewith filed marked "L" in which

Mr. Lurnen is charged with all his receipts from said mill property, and given credit in like manner for all amounts he paid in which is embraced in Statement 'R.E., which results in finding that Mr. Lurnen is indebted on the 15th Sept 1882, to said mill property an Mr. Orr the sum of \$34.09 this result is obtained after giving credit for the  $\frac{1}{4}$  interest in the net tolls of \$161.00 found for distribution in Statement M. P. and is the amount due from Lurnen on account of the tolls of the mill & cost thereof.

I have considered the building of the Millers House to completion and the erecting of the Granary as permanent improvements on said mill lot, and made a statement of the cost thereof, herewith filed marked "P. I.", which shows that the entire cost of such improvements down to Sept. 15th 1882 including 6% interest from the time of the ~~pay~~ ~~payments~~ amounts to \$720.09 subject to a credit of \$29.00 as amount received by Orr, ~~for~~ house rent from Gillespie - which leaves on said day the sum of \$691.09; all of which was paid by James W. Orr, — A fair proportion of this sum for Mr. Lurner & wife to account for, considering their  $\frac{1}{4}$  life interest in the property according to the rule governing life interests, is \$86.02, as shown by said Statement.

And upon the basis of the decree, the proof in the Cause, and your Commissioners views, Mr. Wm. L. Lurner, is due, on account of tolls and permanent improvements to Mr. Orr on the 15th Sept 1882, the sum of -- $120.11.

$120.11

I have also made a similar Statement, between Mr. Orr, the mill property and E. L. Hambley, since Sept 15th 1882 time of his purchase from Turner wife down to July 12th 1884, herewith filed marked "Ex. O," which shows that Mr. Orr is due said Hambley on said day on account of tolls arising from said mill above the necessary expense in running said mill, the sum of $131.05<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>, and <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> of the amount arising from the rent of store house the sum of $7.50 - which in the opinion of your Commissioner, is all that said decree demands at his hands - But at the request of the Defendant I have prepared and herewith file Special Statement No 1 & 2, - in which statements Defendants views of what it takes to constitute repairs on the mill property, and what should be termed permanent improvements thereon are considered &c.

In Special Statement No. 1 as will be seen said Mill property is charged (as paid by Mr. On) with taxes, Cost of constructing Darter & new mill, with Interest on these sums from time of payment down to Aug. 15th 1873, and with $100. & Int, for his services in superintending the erection of the new mill, (which amount was omitted in Statement No. 1 from the fact that Account "D", as amended, was agreed to be taken as the entire cost of the mill property in the way of repairs down to Aug. 15th 1873,) which sums amount in the aggregate including the average expenses for repairs <sup>$79.61</sup> as claimed to be the fair

Mode by Deft, to Charge annual Expenditures, on the 15 Aug. 1873 to \$3005.08 as the entire cost of repairs up to the 15th Aug. 1873, which amount is credited with the 80¢ with Interest thereon to said date, the amt of tolls recd from Garten Mills, and with \$408, the amt of agreed annual, <sup>net</sup> tolls, less Mrs Myrns $\frac{1}{4}$  interest therein which was due her or her assignee on account of the interest she reserved in her deed to Turner & Orr herein filed. which left the sum of \$306.00 $+ 96.20 = \$402.20$  as credit of this date, it will be observed that no part is interest on the 408¢ as tolls; there appears to be due Aug 15 1874 the sum of \$2838.66, adding interest and average annual expenditures as before - which sum is credited with 408¢ less 34¢ as the amount due Mrs Wyam at the time her interest in the tolls of said mill expired leaving as a credit the sum of \$374.00 as of Aug. 15th 1874, the same course is pursued from this time to the 15th Sept 1882.

Calculating interest on balance due & giving credits annually for the 408¢ recd as tolls, and taking this view of the ~~case~~ the statement shows that the Mill property is indebted to Mr. Orr the sum of $1352.17, ~~Sept 15th 1882.~~

It will be observed that said statement considers all the improvements as repairs on the mill property, of which Mr. Turner should pay  $\frac{1}{4}$  except the building of the granary, which is considered a permanent improvement, to which Mr. Turner should only contribute his proportional share \$12.45 as charge &

Special Statement No. 2. is exactly on the same principal as No. 1. Except that the Mill Property is Charged with \$200.00 as paid to Mrs. Myron for her interest by Mr. Orr. (See her Depo. & Deed.) This statement Charges the 200¢ item and gives Credits for all receipts, resulting in finding that the Mill Property Considering all expenditures, except the Issuance, as ~~repairs~~ is indebted to Mr. Orr in the sum of \$1518.32  $\frac{1}{4}$  of which would be \$379.58 the amount Turner should pay over taking this view of the case before he could share in the distribution of the <sup>net</sup> income or tolls arising from said Mill.

And at the request of Counsel for Defendant Turner, Special Statement No 3, herewith filed, is made and.

assumes that, the cost of building the Darton Mill, cost of erecting the new mill ready for grinding flour & meal with all its attachments, the building of the millers house and the granary, are all permanent improvements, and they are so considered in this statement, and that the necessary expense <sup>in the way</sup> of repairs &c. in keeping the mill in running order since the new mill started Aug. 15th 1872 are held and considered as ~~the~~ repairs on the mill property of which Mr. Lurner should contribute  $\frac{1}{4}$  and Mr. Orr  $\frac{3}{4}$  - and that Mr. Lurner should only contribute a fair proportion of the permanent improvements as compared with his  $\frac{1}{4}$  life interest - This statement shows that ~~of~~ the amount expended together with its interest to Aug. 15th 1873 is \$2795.68 and that Lurners proportion of this amount is \$397.49, and the amount with which he should be charged, as will be seen by said statement I have given Mr. Turner credit with \$35.00 & interest thereon annually for the use and occupancy of his house & lot near the mill, for 6 years, and with the amount of expenditures by said Turner, and charged him with his  $\frac{1}{4}$  annual expenses, and with all his receipts, and taking this view of the case, it will be seen by said Statement that there is due to said Turner & wife on account of said income & tolls on the 15th Sept 1882 the sum of \$627.59.

There has been some admissions and proof setting up private and individual claims of the parties indebtedness to each other, which

Your Court, has not noticed in casting up this account, but as the decree directs, I have endeavored to confine the account to the mill transactions, the results of which I hope are plainly set forth in the statements, if not in this report, which has been, for want of time, hastily written.

Respectfully submitted.

Court.

There is some proof concerning the use of a stable, and store house by Mr. Lurner, situated on the mill property as well as various amounts expended by Mr. Lurner in repairing said stable & store house, which in your Commissioners opinion about balance.

Hyatt.

This report is excepted to because, the Com treats the mill house & fixtures as repairs, when in law or fact they are permanent improvements and Lums & wife should only be held liable for the same in proportion to the interest they hold 2 Because no rent is allowed Lums & wife for their House lot - Because the acct for repairs is out of all proportion for such work each and every item of each & every statement which allows acct for new mill or repairs is excepted to - see memo of exceptions in paper

Commissioners fee $100.00

$200.00 and in consideration thereof Mrs. Wynn by deed dated the 18 relinquished to Mr. Orr said reserved rights <sup>as</sup> ~~as~~ and it is this relinquishment which now entitles Mr. Orr. to three fourths the tolls of said Mill, and these being the substantial facts of the case, as disclosed by said deeds, copies of which are filed in the original cause, Mr. Orr cannot now charge said $200.00 or any part thereof to W. L. Turner or B. L. Hamble, or as any part of the costs of the erection of said Mill, or its current running expenses:
That sum was simply the price paid by Mr. Orr. to extinguish Mrs.
Wynn's reserved rights under her said deed.

The claim set up by Mr. Orr. for $100. or any other sum for his services in superintending and directing the erection and construction of said Mill cannot now be allowed as a charge in his favor for any purpose whatever. For were it a proper charge in any view of the case, it would add that much to the cost of the erection and construction of said Mill, and the parties have agreed in writing that the cost of the present Mill was $2280.00 and that of the Dexter Mill $300. so that nothing can be added thereto or taken therefrom except by consent of parties.

The Off. says that the claim of Mr. Orr for compensation for superintending the repairs on said Mill is not a proper charge and should not be allowed. But if any thing should be allowed for such services, the same might not under any circumstances to exceed 5 or 10 per cent upon the amount of the cost of such repairs.

Wm L Turner was and is entitled to the exclusive <sup>use</sup> of the House and lot on which he now lives, and these were used and occupied from Jan 1869. to Oct 1876 by others than said Turner and during nearly all that time were used and occupied by Persons working on the Mill in its construction, and as keepers of the Mill & thus the same was used for the mutual benefit of Messrs Orr & Turner and these being the facts said Turner is entitled to charge the firm of Orr & Turner for the reasonable rental value of said house lot for the time so occupied by others, and the annual rents to be paid by said firm in the same proportion that they are each required to bear of the <sup>cost of the</sup> repairs and improvements on said Mill property.

It is known to all who know Mr. Turner that he is a poor man and greatly needs the annual tools of said Mill due him upon which to live, and support his family, and since it is shown that said Mill would rent to the average Millers of the country for one third of its gross earnings without any Miller's house at all, or with a Miller's house which would not cost more than $100. or $150.00 And the new Miller's house erected on the Mill lot having cost more than $400.00, and with this more costly house the present Miller still gets one third of the gross tolls of the Mill, it would seem to follow from this state of facts, that said Turner is not benefitted in the least by the building of the more costly Miller's house and that so far as he is concerned the money spent in the erection of the new Miller's house beyond $100, or $150.00 was idle and altogether unnecessary so far as Mr. Turner is concerned, and being so. no more than $100. or $150. should be charged on account of the new Miller's house. either as a repair, or as a permanent <sup>an</sup> improvement.

The plaintiff says that the ~~permanent improvements in this~~ ~~are all the~~ Erection of the Mill House, the building and constructing the Mill, with all its Machinery and appliances for making flour & Meal: The erection of the new Millers House, and the building of the store House or granary: <sup>are all permanent improvements.</sup> And W. L. Turner having only a life estate therein during the life of himself and wife both of whom are now old that said Turner ought only to be charged with such part of one fourth part of the cost thereof, as his life interest therein would bear to a fair sample till then. And the Plaintiff further says that the <sup>expenses</sup> running and incidental repairs on said Mill since the same has been in operation, and the repairs on the stable and store house constitute the repairs in this case. And the said Turner admits he may be required <sup>by the court</sup> to pay one fourth part of these repairs; And the said Commissioner will so state an account between said Turner and Orr as to present the ~~in the~~ view here contemplated for and attempted to be laid down:

There is nothing in the original cause, or in the complaint or answers thereto or in the decree under which you are acting which contemplates, asks, or requires you, to make any settlement or statement of any private ~~and personal~~ and individual matter as between D. Turner and Mr. Orr or between Mr. Orr and Mr. Hambley, the only thing sought or contemplated by the whole proceeding is a settlement & adjustment of the matters pertaining to the Mill property & its appurtenances, And hence the plaintiff says that you ought not and cannot under said decree and the pleadings in the cause, undertake to settle and adjust any individual matter of account <sup>that may exist</sup> as between any of said parties ~~that may~~ ~~not~~ And any special matter which you are required to <sup>state, report or</sup> make by the terms of said decree at the request of either party, relates solely to the matters pertaining to said Mill & the matters directly connected therewith.

To Commissioner
John A. G. Hyatt.

This statement numbered 3 is accepted to, because it only makes Turner, pay in proportion to the value of his life estate. This is clearly erroneous because under this deed from Orr they were only entitled to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the mill tolls of the mill that was then on the property and before they can elect if they have the right of election to take  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the tolls of the new mill, Mr Orr must be fully repaid for all expenses incurred by him in putting the property in a condition to yield the tolls out of which they now claim a part.

2. Second Statement is further accepted to because it charges Mr Orr with rent of the house and lot which he did not use.

Richmond H. Dunsen

Mr. J. W. Orr,

Dear Brother,

With feelings of much interest and anxiety I again address you. After we reached our circuit and got well settled down at our work, I wrote. But have received no answer from you. Supposing you may not have gotten my letter, and consequently, do not know my place of address, I have concluded to write you again, for I am very anxious to hear from you. Yes Sir, very anxious—

My acquaintance with you (though of not much consequence in the beginning) has grown with time and circumstances, and matured into a regard which I have for no other man. I sometimes think it is something similar to that which existed between David and Jonathan. Be that as it may, I know, or think I know that I feel as much interest for your welfare in this world as I do for my own. Write to me on the reception of this. Give me such information as you may think I would like to hear. How is your health, and the health of your family and our relatives generally. I suppose you were elected Clerk. How are you succeeding in business generally, and do you come on with the Misses particularly. What has become of M<sup>r</sup> Clare, and who is living in the house. Mrs Turner wants to know what has become of our things, see that they are all well taken care of, and— You shall not lose your reward. How is Mrs Wirm, and last but not least how is Dr Browning.

I reckon, perhaps, you would like to know how we are getting along. Well after a tiresome and expensive journey, we arrived at our place of destination.

without any serious difficulties, more than is common to men in passing along the journey of life. Found a good Circuit, kind people, and upon the whole I am very well pleased with my work this year. They also seem to be well pleased with their preacher. When we come here we found no parsonage, no preparation for preachers with their families. But I preached for them a few times, and laid my cause before them and as I was pretty good looking, they concluded to give the site, build a good parsonage thereon, furnish it well, and pay five hundred and twenty five Dollars to the preacher. So they went to work and got timber to the saw-mill, and sent us to board at a good house and fine family until the parsonage could be completed, but the weather being very disagreeable, about this time, they thought it might take them longer to build than they anticipated at the start, and lest I should grow impatient waiting so long, they concluded to make other arrangements for my comfort, which would give more time to complete the parsonage. Whereupon, a rich man, not a member of our church. But he was a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, tendered me a fine house, with six rooms, ample, convenient, and comfortable, a fine garden, a beautiful yard with shrubbery and flowers, a fine fine convenient soft water spring with plenty of out building. Which of course I accepted. Then the people furnished the house with the following useful articles 2 fine beds, 2 beds, 2 dozen fine chairs, 1 fine bureau, with large mirror on top, 1 fine wash stand, 1 fine table, 1 fine cook stove, knives and forks, plenty of cupboard-ware with many other useful things too tedious to mention. They have also furnished our table bountifully with the good things of life, and a fine cow, which gives six teen cups full of rich milk twice a day.

Mrs. Turner sells a dollars worth of butter nearly every week after keeping plenty for cooking and table uses. They gave us 6 hens and 1 rooster, we have sixteen young chickens and more hens setting. So you see we expect to live pretty well, we have a garden of nearly all sorts of fine vegetables grown in this climate coming on, now don't laugh, I know you love good things, and will be pleased learn that I am getting some two. Mrs. Turner sends her love to you and wife. Give our respects to uncle Darys and all the Arr families especially give our kind regards to Bob, we have not forgotten him, and to all who feel any interest in our welfare. If you are building the mill, which I think by all means you should, I think I will be able to help you some this fall. How is your Rail-Road progressing? Oh how I would like to see you and talk our matters of interest over, but I am here 250 miles away, my circuit it lies in Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama. But we will change the subject. Time is short, it is fleeting away at the rate of more than two thousand miles an hour. This world is subject to change, and is rushing on to a grand and awful crisis. Here we have no continuing place of abode, let us seek a mansion, a house not made with hands eternal in the heavens. How are you getting along religiously. O my dear friend and Brother do not suffer the cares of the world, the perplexities of business, and confusion of office, to cheat you out of a part in the first resurrection. As for myself I feel more and more the great necessity of being thoroughly religious, more holy, more devoted to the services of God. That I may be more useful and happy. Well I some times think I am making some improvement. But Oh how slow. As to the state of the work on my circuit, we have good congregations, good attention, very pleasant and interesting meetings, frequently the whole congregation is bathed in tears, now and them a shout of rejoicing, bursts forth, some come to the altar for prayer, a few obtain peace, and a few join the Church. But as yet no general ingathering though the Church seems to be looking for a sweeping revival. God grant to hasten it in his time.

Pray for us. I hope you are pleased with your preacher, how is he getting along is the pleasure of the Lord prospering in hands, have you got a good religious work on Jonesville circuit. How is Brother Baldwin getting along on his circuit. Hoping to hear from you shortly, I will say in conclusion we are both well. My address is White Side Marion County Tennessee

Yours respectfully,

Mr. James W. Orr.

Dear Brother,

We received your letter a few days ago, and was glad to learn that you were all well, and from any thing to the contrary in your letter, doing well. We are also both well, and we think doing tolerably well. You write you contemplate putting up the mill this spring and summer, that you will build the house any how. That will be all right we think, for if it is never begun, it will never be completed. And it does seem to me, that such valuable property should not be idle. As to my ability to assist you in building the mill. I will just say a few things, I wrote you last May, that, I thought I would be able to assist you some last fall, and if times had remained as they were when I wrote, I have no doubt that I could have furnished you with two or three hundred dollars. But we had a great Rail Road crash. The contractor and builder of the Alabama and Chatanooga Rail Road broke, and is behind with the people and state, perhaps a million and a half of dollars. He was largely indebted to all the business men, farmers, mechanics and laborers, and could not or did not pay them, and so, as usual, in such cases, the preacher was among the first to feel it, so I failed to realize my expectations. How it will be in the future I know not, but from all lights before me, I think I may be able to assist you some this year, likely two or three hundred dollars. I would like very much to see you, so we could talk together, and come to better purpose. I would have visited you after conference, but Mrs. Turner was not very well when

I left home, and she did not want me to stay so long, and perhaps it would have caused me to have missed the first round on my circuit, which would have been a great draw back, and besides I went up on the cars and was there without my horse, and under the circumstances it would have been very troublesome and expensive to have visited you at that time, but I will try to see you next fall if, not before. In reference to that business with McPherson, all I can say is this, if I could be there I would settle it now, I would send it by mail, but they are so uncertain I am afraid to risk it. But you can tell him to have patience with me till next fall and I be there and pay him all, use your influence to quiet him as far as you can, and if he has commenced any further legal proceedings, which are likely to bother and trouble you as well as me tell him to stop it, and I will certainly just before or immediately after conference, and that will be as soon, perhaps, as he would be likely to get it by any other course, manage him the best you can, and I will make it all right when I get there. We have been thinking about locating this fall, but we are not fully determined as yet. I think if I could be settled there and we were to put our heads together, we would achieve greater results, for one shall chase a thousand, and two shall put ten thousand to flight. Mrs. Turner wants you to take good care of our things, you wrote that you had moved them all to your house, with the exception of the boxes in the loft, so far all right, if you left nothing but the boxes, but if you left their contents in them, we are afraid they have fared badly, please write to us how it is. We are well pleased with our circuit, the people are intelligent, kind and hospitable. She has supplied our wants beautifully, and seems to emulate each other in kind attention and liberalities. The work on this circuit is comparatively pleasant and light, only mind appoints to be filed in four weeks. But still we have plenty to do, the nature of the work requires a large amount of pastoral visiting. We have quite a variety of religious denominations here, which are all striving no doubt to do good, but we think are too sectarian. Thanks God we are at peace with all of them. We labour not so much for sect, but for Christ, and the consummation of kingdom, I think also that I am making some advancements in the divine life, how are you getting along religiously, don't forget in the bustle and confusion of office and business to try to secure the one thing needful. God bless you and wife and babies. Write to me immediately on the reception of this, give me all the information that directly concerns me, and our business, and then every thing else you think I would like to know. But I must close, let me ever meet upon the level, and part upon the square, and circumscribe our actions so as to move within the circle, and we shall not materially err, and be able to realize how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. That it is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to skirts of his garment, and as the dew of hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountain of Zion. So may the Lord command his blessings even life evermore.

Yours truly,
William L. Turner

C. L. Hamblen against

James W Orr.

Deft.

On x Bill.

The defendant insists that the construction of the Dexter mill, the building of the present mill including mill house, machinery, Dam &c, (Account "O") his services and the Miller's house together with the expense of running the mill since it started to the present time, are all repairs on the mill property, and that the store house is a permanent improvement, not being in any way connected with, or necessary to, the operation of the mill.

He also insists that the rents, or tolls, should be charged at the end of the year, and the entire expense of running the mill, including his services, <sup>since it started,</sup> should be averaged and credited annually.

The agreement in writing only admits the items in Account "O" to present, as it states, the necessity of proving them, that is that debt paid out for repairs of old or Dexter mill $300 or as charged, and that he paid out for material work &c on new mill $2280.17 as charged, Aug 15th 1872, and was not intended to cover the item of services by debt.

The amounts charged for services are clearly proved <sup>to be reasonable</sup> and no effort made to disprove them & the Comr. should allow them.

There is no evidence in the cause to charge debt with rents for the Turner house & lot and plaintiff Hamblen in his bill page 2. states that "No Complaint is here made as to the dwelling house & lot attached thereto that is now occupied and for several years past has been in the possession of your orator's (Plff's) Vendor. This is a waiver of all claim, if there had been any foundation for any.

The evidence shows clearly that the Miller's house did not cost more than is usually expended for Miller's houses in the Country, and not more than was necessary to secure the services of a good Miller & Command a good custom, which was certainly to the advantage of all parties concerned to secure & Command, and was a necessary appendage to the mill.

The defendant claims credit for the \$200 - paid Mrs Wynn. It was an expenditure for the benefit of the tenants in common, Turner alleges that the two deeds were one and the same transaction, he admits knowledge of the right of Mrs Wynn & no one denies that it was a judicious purchase and resulted advantageous to all parties concerned, but if mistaking this, he claims he was substituted to her rights and <sup>thereby</sup> entitled to one fourth of the nett tolls of the mill, while Turner was only entitled to one fourth of the residue, or  $\frac{1}{4}$  of  $\frac{3}{4}$  of said nett tolls, for the period from the time the mill started until the expiration of the five years.

Turner having tendered the issue of a settlement of individual matters between defendant & himself, by presenting his account marked "J" Can not now avoid such settlement and the defendant insists that the settlement be made, but of course only of such items as are proven by the parties.

Defendant asks <sup>such</sup> statements are necessary to meet the views here presented, and also a statement showing the result if Turner received, in addition to the one years tolls before 1876, admitted by him, his  $\frac{1}{4}$  from the time he took charge of the mill Feb 10th 1879, to Sept 6/82, which we are compelled to presume he received, as he had it in his own hands and if he did not it is his own fault for which debt is not responsible. Debt objects to Turner receiving credit for <sup>claimed to have been</sup> any sums paid by him for repairs upon mill or race as the proof shows that debt had all such work done & paid for it himself or it was paid for out of the tolls of the mill, and that Turner done no work of that character except such as was his duty to do as Miller & without any charge to debt or to the mill.

Wm L. Turner.

Wm L. Turner

Def.

This is a bill filed by James W Orr for the purpose of having ~~vacated~~ <sup>annulled</sup> and declared no longer binding a contract made on the 12th day of December 1868, between Wm L Turner & himself, and to this end to set aside vacate annul & declare void, for reasons stated in the bill, a deed or pretended deed on that day made by the said Orr to the said Turner & wife.

The property to which this deed, and the deed of earlier date from the said Turner, to the said Orr <sup>refers.</sup> is valuable alone as a mill right. (See Depo. of witnesses) And was purchased by the parties with reference solely to the erection of a mill on it.

The grounds relied on by the Plaintiff to support this prayer of his bill, is.

- 1st Abandonment by the said Turner of his contract and a waiver of his rights under said contract.
- 2 Failure by the said Turner to do anything towards perfecting his contract, failure to assert for many years, any rights under said contract, failure to improve said property, or to assist in any way in its improvement, or to do any other act or thing demanded of him as a joint, or part owner of said property.

The Plaintiff claims That the contract between the said Turner and himself was executory.

That the deed from him to Turner & wife was made and delivered upon the condition understanding and agreement, That the said Turner would proceed at once to collect certain debts which he claimed to be due him in the state of Tennessee, and pay to him the sum of $500 the consideration mentioned in the deed. But the respondent Turner denies this allegation, and attempts to set up an avoidance. To do this he sets out or attempts to set out, a contract different in terms from the contract under which he claims as shown by his deed, from Orr, and entirely different from the contract of an earlier date as evidenced by the deed from him to Orr.

He alleges in his answer. That the two deeds dated respectively on the 10. & 12 days of December 1868 are one and the same transaction, that the deed from him to Orr dated 10th of December 1868 was conditioned on the deed afterwards to be made by Orr to him.

Is this reasonable, why not finish the whole matter at once. But then the deed of Decr 10th is perfect on its face absolute in its terms without condition of any kind expressed in it.

Now it is true as well expressed by Judge Tucker, "Conditions may be annexed to every species of estate and interest in real estate but the conditions must be created or annexed at the time of the creation of the estate itself either by the same deed or by another deed sealed acknowledged and delivered at the same time of the principal deed. 1. Justice 2 Book, Page 92.

Turner, no where claims that $500. was not the true consideration of the deed of Decr 12th 1868.

He no where claims that said consideration was paid by him either at the time said deed was made or since that time, but as before stated tries an avoidance of payment on the fact that he had a few days before sold the same property to the Plff and that in that trade there was a secret condition. This he cannot do, because that contract was and is evidenced by a deed dated, Decr 10th 1868. and said deed is complete on its face and without condition. By that deed Turner parted with all his right and all his interest. and the second deed, that of Decr 12 1868 stands distinct from the first in every particular.

Taking the two contracts as they stand evidenced by said two deeds, (and Turner in his answer, says the two deeds without one word of explanation fixes the contract and all the contract there was) each is separate and distinct from the other, each complete within itself, and just as much so as if they had been made between entirely different individuals. Then Mr Turner cannot claim that both deeds are one and the same transaction, and this matter of avoidance set up by him, even if he was not estopped from setting it up, is our matter not responsive to the bill, and as such must be proved, by affirmative evidence.

Then if Plaintiffs claim is true, that the deed from him to Turner and wife was made and delivered upon the express understanding and agreement that Turner should proceed to collect the debts due him in Tennessee and pay the $500. ~~with the balance of the~~ the contract was purely executory, and, Turner not having done so, the Plaintiff has a perfect right to infer that he has abandoned all intention whatever of going on to complete it, and he has a perfect right to demand that the deed of Decr 12th 1868, evidencing said contract be delivered up for cancellation. or if the said Turner elects, to complete the contract and now has a right to do so, then for specific execution the contract,

But They say, That Orr has acknowledged in the face of the deed the receipt of the purchase money

This is only a formal matter in a deed, and one of the things which may be disputed contradicted or explained and is binding on nobody. (See Bigelow on Estoppel page.

And again They say, That the Vendor's equitable lien has been abolished, by statute and that Orr retained no lien in his deed and can therefore enforce none, This may all be true, but it does not, if true affect the position here taken that the deed was delivered on condition and that the contract was executory.

But suppose the contract was executed by the delivery of the deed. But this deed (if it can be called a deed at all) like the writing under seal in the case of Lexington & Atchison v. Nicholas, Executors, 1st ~~Henning~~ & Munford 438. Can have no more force than a memorandum in writing sufficient to take the contract out of the operation of the Statute of Frauds.

But, I say, suppose the contract was executed by the delivery of the deed. It was a contract for a specific purpose, That of building a mill. all the testimony in the case with reference to the value of the property, proves that it was alone valuable as a mill site, and it is clearly shown by Orr's letters to Turner & Turner's letters to Orr That said property was regarded by them as valuable alone as a mill site, and that their whole object was to build a mill on it, That for that purpose they had purchased it, and for that purpose alone. Then the property having been purchased by Orr for the purpose of erecting a mill on it, and then an interest having been purchased by Turner for the same, each became bound to the other to carry said intention or purpose into execution, and to contribute proportionately to the expense of that undertaking, And yet each of said parties had a right to abandon such intention if he desired so to do, but if he chose to exercise this right of abandonment or waiver, he abandoned such interest as he had in it, provided the other party, went on and carried the intention or purpose into execution.

Then when Turner stands by and sees Orr at great expense go forward and build the Mill at great expense, (notwithstanding he knew as he says in his answer that Orr was hard run and he wanted to help him) without contributing one cent towards the undertaking. Shall he not be considered as having abandoned or waived his interest, as much as as if he had abandoned or waived it by a deed of release. He certainly had a right, by written agreement to waive his right or to release his interest. and it has always, or long at least, been held that the delivery of possession of lands was deemed a sufficient execution of an agreement to dispense with a writing under the statute of frauds. See Coryman & Atcheson vs. Nieblaens Executors, 449. Now did not Turner deliver possession to Orr, and that too not as joint or part owner, but as sole owner. Certainly this cannot be disputed, to be a fact existing from 1872 (the date of building the mill) up to the day when he had the deed to record an improved and unacknowledged deed. And not only is this possession shown to be with Turners full knowledge but it is also shown to be directly with his consent. but it is also clearly shown That he acknowledged Orr's Right for many years by renting said property from him, and paying full rent therefor and by the further fact That during all those years while he kept said property as Miller he never kept or had kept any account whatever of the amount of tolls received or made by the Mill or ~~see~~ an account of any of the expenses of keeping said property in repair. And then couple this fact with his disclaimer of interest in said property to Benjamin Surgenor & Rutland See their depositions, and his failure to have his deed recorded, or to enter it upon the land books for taxation, or to list for the same purposes any claim against Orr, for rents of said Mill; and Can any other rational conclusion be drawn than That he had abandoned, waived or surrendered up all rights acquired by him under his deed from Orr of Decr 12th 1868. Again. suppose you take the deed of Decr 12th 1868 as an execution of the contract between the Plaintiff and Defendant Turner & wife, it may be abandoned and That abandonment may be conclusively proved by Circumstances See Lady Langboroughs Case cited by Powell on Contracts 413, 414 and again cited 1st Henning & Munford 435 & 436.

In That Case The lord and Tenants of a Manor entered into an agreement for enclosing a part of a common, to effectuate which, the Lord by

A separate instrument had released each particular Tenant from <sup>all</sup> quit rents and services; and the Tenants by another consented to the inclosure and released their right of common. The inclosure was begun, but some of the hedges being privately thrown down and other obstructions happening the Lord relinquished his design and the Tenants continued to enjoy their right of common, and to pay their quit rents and to do suit and service in the same manner as if no such agreement had ever been made; but the instruments which had been executed were neglected to be cancelled.

It was afterwards held that these subsequent transactions amounted to a waiver of the agreement. Now do not the facts and circumstances of the case at bar as clearly show abandonment of the contract and waiver of the rights secured in the deed of Orr to Turner & wife by the said Turner as the facts of the case of Lady Lamborough. Thus, there was a contract or agreement to do certain things, and that contract was carried into execution by the execution of deeds, by the Lord to the Tenants and by the Tenants to the Lord. Here there was a contract between said Orr and Turner - executed by a deed by which Orr conveyed to Turner a one fourth interest in the Mill and  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the Tolls &c. for the joint lives of the said Turner & wife or the survivor of them.

There after the Hedges were broken down &c. There was no rebuilding by the Lord and the Tenants continued to pay quit rents &c Service &c.

Then Turner left, after putting Orr in possession & said away some years promising during the years 1871 & 1872 to furnish money to Orr, but failing to do so, then coming back about 1874, asserting no claim whatever to the property or an interest in but instead thereof renting it from Orr, paying full rent, reserving nothing for his interest keeping no account of tolls, contributing nothing to the repairs of the property, <sup>for the payment of tax on it.</sup> Standing idly by and seeing Hamblen & Orr under a contract with Orr, build a granary on the lot, and then after they had ceased to use said granary actually renting <sup>it</sup> from Orr. Could there be acts which would more strongly prove an absolute abandonment of rights than is here shown, even stronger if possible than Lady Lanesboroughs case.

Now is this all. He saw or knew that the mill was built, he had an account rendered by way of a letter, which he files as evidence and by which to that extent he is bound, of the costs of erecting the mill machinery outside of the house &c &c, and yet from that good day of June 1872 up to the time Mr Orr had to get a new Miller you never hear of him once demanding an account of the expenditures in building the mill, nor.

offering to pay, or repay one cent of. The amount thus expended. Nor do you ever hear during all that long time of his once demanding an account of the amount earned by said Mill. Why all this negligence, in asserting a right? Think you if he had believed he had an interest, that he would not sooner have asserted,? And if he is the kind considerate and charitable individual that his answer would have us believe why & why has he not offered to pay back, to Orr his part of the expenses of building the mill. The whole is inapplicable upon any other hypothesis than that claimed by the Plaintiff. That he had abandoned all claim to or interest in said property.

Then Turner is a prudent man in his talk, he says he has no interest in the property. Can we say that he did not know what he was talking about, and that he did know, or in other words, was he not then telling the matter exactly as it was, and that this all resurrected deed, is an afterthought born of the fact that Mr Orr was compelled to get a Miller other than Mr Turner.

Again the Defendants knowing the matter of avoidance set up by them was affirmative matter which devolved upon them to prove have introduced testimony to prove the value of the property at the time Orr purchased, it and for this purpose have introduced and examined 10 witnessed to which Plaintiffs have replied by an equal number. And it is a little remarkable that of the 10 witnesses introduced by the Defendants on this point not one was an expert in mill property, not one was a mill owner or occupier, not one even ever had any experience in running or dealing in mill property.

Of the 10 witnesses introduced by Plaintiffs on this point every one but one was either an owner of mill property or an experienced dealer in and occupier of such property.

The average value of said property as fixed by Dfts witnesses is about $1700 the average price as fixed by Plaintiffs witnesses about $700. Total average of all the witnesses about $1200. Just what Turner admits Orr paid him & Mrs. Ryan together for the property, but if most weight is given to Pltffs witnesses as this must be for the reasons 1st Because they were men of experience in the handling of property of that description, & 2- Because this being an issue raised by the defendant and for him to prove then the fact is fairly established that Orr paid too much for said property, and down falls the beautiful building of avoidance set up and relied upon. and this case stands exactly as put by the Plaintiffs, a contract, not executed, a debt still due for property, cancelled by abandonment,

Upon the principles here contended for we cite the following authorities.

1st Tucker Book 2. page 92. same book. 341.

Powell on Contracts 413, 414. 1st Henning & Munford Page, 428 to 449.

Now as to the interest of C L Hamble in this suit.
And 1st Hamble has no greater right than I we had on the day of sale and purchase between them, and on that day we have shown as we think clearly that Turner had no rights. That all interest which he ever had under his deed from Orr had long before that been abandoned, and therefore having nothing he could sell nothing to Hamble.
If we are right in this position then it would be useless to pursue this subject further, nor would we do so if he was not here claiming to be an innocent purchaser for a valuable consideration and without notice. This claim upon his part compels a further examination.

Now he who claims to be a purchaser without notice and to be entitled to the rights of such must stand clear in every particular

Does Mr Hamblen so stand? had he no notice was there nothing to put him on enquiry? If so he is not entitled to the position he claims.

Is there no fraud or collusion on his part with Turner nor no evidences thereof? if so, he does not occupy the high position which Courts of equity delight to protect as purchaser.

Had Hamblen notice, it is proved that he was Treasurer of Lu County from 1876 to 1879, and as such charged with collection of taxes, and it is proved that during all those years the property was charged to Orr and that he paid the taxes on it.
It is proved that Orr was in the possession of the property all the way down from 69. to 1882 when Hamblen claims to have purchased, that Hamblen knew it, that he entered into a contract with Orr the object of which was to erect on said property a granary to be used by the firm of Hamblen & Orr.
= It is further proved that Hamblen & Orr, were partners for some years in the mercantile business and that in said business the firm did its milling at said Mill, then add the fact that the paper evidencing Turners right if he had any was old & stale and that it had never then been assented, proved or recorded, and then add the inadequacy of consideration of $500. for a claim estimated by both he and Turner at from $3000 to $5000 to Turners declaration in his answer "I knew I was to pay nothing and so told Hamblen" and what then becomes of his innocence as a purchaser - He is not the man.

~~Now one thing more and I am done.~~

Now one thing more. Unless the plaintiff's bill is sustained, what becomes of this case, there can be nothing done with it save and except to dismiss it, no when have the defendants, shown themselves entitled to anything. Then shall they without anything showing themselves entitled to an account, be granted an account, <sup>without</sup> allowing the Plaintiff, ~~the~~ this case who would be the defendant in that, the privilege and benefit of an answer. I think not, especially, when it appears, as it does in this case that the defendants have ~~been~~ have objected strenuously to Mr Orr testifying in the case, So clearly unless the Plaintiff has shown himself, entitled to the relief asked the bill must be dismissed.

Orr & Turner & Turner & Orr.

Having filed a written opinion, upon entering the two principal decrees in these causes, I deem it proper also to state my reasons for the decree I am now about to enter. It is a case of novelty & difficulty. This is not to be wondered at, when the situation and relationship of the parties are considered. Their contracts and dealings were entered into, when the best feelings existed between them, and were treated by them as merely formal, and tending to consummate the end manifestly then in view, - Mutual aid during the life time of Dr. Turner's wife, & Mr. Orr's succession to what they might have. While this state of feeling continued, it was deemed a matter of little moment as to the state of accounts, or of legal right between them.

When, unfortunately, this state of feeling was interrupted, they were at sea, without a compass. This is at once made manifest by the very vague, & yet very large claims mutually asserted. That a Commissioner in Chancery, or a Court, can apply the plumbline with precision, and draw out a clear and distinct and well defined result, upon settled principles, from such dealings as these parties had, is hardly to be expected.

This Court hopes however, by the aid of principles applicable to such cases, to arrive at a safe decision, and one, while it comes not up to the claims of either party, will approximate justice between them.

The defendant Orr was certainly disappointed, in his reasonable expectation of aid, from Dr. Turner. Struggling in his early life, & his disabled condition, he undertook a heavy enterprise, expecting considerable pecuniary aid from Dr. Turner; but <sup>he alone,</sup> did both the entire work of managing, supervising, controlling, planning, and what was still harder, the paying, until the work at an outlay of \$2762. <sup>68</sup> over all receipts, <sup>except</sup> ~~\$8.48~~ <sup>an item of board furnished by Dr. Turner</sup> ~~as shown by \$8.48~~ <sup>board</sup>, running through 5 years, had been completed. Dr. Turner felt the force of all this. He regretted no doubt, his inability and acquiesced in Mr. Orr's receiving, as a reimbursement, all the property yielded, <sup>that</sup> in possession for several years, <sup>Dr. Turner</sup> he took only the tolls coming to him as miller, and receiving of the net tolls during all the time <sup>on his 1/4 part of the property only</sup> <sup>or perhaps a few delay more</sup> <sup>one single year's income.</sup> Now these transactions run through a period of 14 years. Neither party kept accounts of the income, neither party acted as an accounting party. In view of all the circumstances the lapse of time, the mode of dealing of the parties, and especially Dr. Turner's turning <sup>over to Mr. Orr</sup> all the tolls that came to his hands, save one year's toll, <sup>on his 1/4 of the mill</sup> it occurred to the Court, & this <sup>statement</sup> ~~opinion~~ <sup>view</sup> is expressed in the opinion filed in the cause, July 5. '84, that the parties ~~assumed~~ might properly be presumed to have thus adjusted all matters of account, up to the time of their disagreement, & had waived any further account thereof, & but for the pleadings, this would have been the decree of the Court. Now it is a little singular that the Commissioner, after wading through all the intricacies of the case makes only the small difference of \$120.<sup>11</sup> between them. And in a review of the Commissioner's work, the Court sees no material error, except in his estimate of what <sup>and of a proper allowance to Mr. Orr</sup> are permanent improvements. The precise mode of his ascertaining the ratable value of the life estate is not given, but as far as it has been made, it is manifestly not unfavourable to ~~Mr.~~ Turner. There is, I think, clearly an error against ~~Mr.~~ Turner, in treating the new mill, as a part of current repairs. As there was a dam & race already there it is probable they were only repaired. But the bulk of the sum of \$2,280.<sup>17</sup> cost of new mill &c. was manifestly an improvement. The house, kept in repair, will come to the remainderman. Many of the attachments, which constitute a part of the mill, will likewise come to the remainderman. All more or less impaired, of course, as time proceeds on every thing. This mill was built in 1872: it has now 10 years. Mrs. Turner is 70 years old. Her expectation of life is 10 yrs. Now when Mr. Orr comes into possession of it, taking the whole of the improvements, embraced in the \$2,280 &c. item, after this 20 year use, it must be impaired. The  $\frac{1}{4}$  of this charge is \$570.<sup>12</sup>. If we suppose the deterioration to be  $\frac{1}{3}$  in value in the 20 years, Mr. Orr will come into possession of \$570.17 - 190.05 or \$380.12 in value as his remainder. That is not to be received for 10 years (Mrs. Turner's expectation of life. 2 Prob. (old) 381). What is its present worth?  $160:100::380.12=$  \$237.<sup>7</sup> is the present worth of that life estate. And if this is a correct mode of estimating the life estate, the Commissioner's report does that much injustice to Dr. Turner. C

While probably, the agreed price of mill &c. may militate against the idea of Mr Orr's allowance for services prior to 1872, yet for 10 succeeding years, he supervised the mill and acted as manager and receiver of tolls &c. and I think \$100, ten dollars per year, for Dr. Turner's part, would not have been unreasonable. The Commissioner allowed him \$60 charging Dr. Turner with  $\frac{1}{4}$  of that or \$15.00

Deducting $15 from $100 = $85, & adding 30 p. ct.
int.  $\frac{1}{2}$  the time, \$85 + 25.50 = 110.50. Correct Coms. Statement

Balance due J.W. Orr (Coms. report) $120.11

Additional allowance (above found) 110.50 making this sum in favor of J.W. Orr $230.61

Contra. Value of Dr. Turner's life estate $237.57

These estimates are not treated as absolutely correct. Perhaps if the judgment of the Court was to be solely based on them a recommendation <sup>of the account</sup> would be necessary, to ascertain more accurately the character, durability & probable value of the remainder after the life estate of the Turners. But the result could not be materially different, and they demonstrate the soundness of the view, that until these parties disagreed, they adjusted their accounts without any formality, treated the tolls ~~with~~ drawn by Dr. Turner, as the whole amount, to which he was then entitled, and that this informal adjustment, running through so many years should not be disturbed, and that the account should be ~~kept~~ <sup>settled</sup> up the account, with Mr. ~~Orr~~ <sup>Turner's</sup> accession to the property. If any thing were wanted to confirm this view it is found in the price at which Dr. Turner sold his whole interest, life estate & all claims for back tolls. Five hundred Dollars being the price to be paid.

The final decree will be entered accordingly.

C.L. Hamblin vs. Jas W. Orr X. Bill

Upon the original bill, it was determined by an opinion prepared & filed in the cause August, 2d., 1883, determined that the plaintiff could not have a cancellation & delivery up of the deed of plf. Orr to Turner & wife, of the  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the mill property in controversy, but that the plf. might have relief, upon an amended bill, upon properly making out a case, for repairs &c. and the questions were all reserved, to allow the plf. to elect to amend if he chose. He did not so elect, but the defendant asked and had leave to ~~renew~~ file an X. bill to assert his claim to rents & profits. The case now comes on to be heard on bill, X. bill, answers to Original & X bill, depositions and exhibits. There is nothing new at all in the case, since the hearing on the Original bill, except the X bill & answers thereto. There do not seem to modify the case, as it stood, ~~at all~~ before the filing of the X. bill at all, except that it raises this question, Is the Deft. in the X. bill due any thing to the plf therein for Tolls?

There are two modes of settling this question. First, to treat of the property as it stood on the day of the date of Orr's deed to Turners of  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the mill property. Second, to treat of the property in its improved condition.

Under the deed to Turners, which can alone be consulted, in deciding the rights derived under it, Turners acquired a right "to  $\frac{1}{4}$  the mill lot or tract of land + + +  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the tolls of the mill & the exclusive use of the house & garden". This is the grant. It is manifestly a simple grant of a tenancy in common in the mill lot & the mill, & the expression of  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the toll, is explanatory, meaning simply that the tenants in common shall share the tolls in the proportions of  $\frac{3}{4}$  &  $\frac{1}{4}$  to the The tenendum in the deed makes this interpretation manifest. "To have and to hold the said undivided one fourth part of said mill lot or tract of land with its appurtenances to the said" Turners. And the warranty — likewise distinctly <sup>guar</sup> ~~infeoffing~~ them  $\frac{1}{4}$  undivided. "Will <sup>forever</sup> warrant and defend the said undivided one fourth of the said mill lot" &c. It cannot therefore be doubted but that, on the delivery of this deed, <sup>instantly</sup>, the Turners became simple tenants in common <sup>with Orr</sup> of the mill as it then stood. And they were <sup>entitled</sup> to share the tolls in the proportions of  $\frac{1}{4}$  &  $\frac{3}{4}$ . But how were these tolls to be realized? Was Turner to run the mill at his sole charges & set apart a $\frac{1}{4}$  of the tolls? Or was Orr to run the mill at his sole charges & set apart to himself  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the tolls? Reason, equity (which is equity) says then <sup>charges</sup> should be a common charge as the benefit is common. The effect therefore of this grant or deed, is to give to the Turners  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the net toll of the mill in its then condition: i.e. if they used & managed it jointly, & at their common charges, of the tolls rec'd. Turner would take one ~~half~~ fourth & Orr  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the Toll. If it was rented Turner would get  $\frac{1}{4}$  & Orr  $\frac{3}{4}$  of rents. If it was held exclusively by Orr, then Turners would be entitled either to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the net tolls; or if this could not be determined, to  $\frac{1}{4}$  part of the <sup>reasonable</sup> rents. — <sup>Therefore</sup> Pierce 19th Cent. 28. Buchanan v. King 22nd Cent. 423. Newman

v. Newman 27th Cent. 714. Elliott v. Buchanan in 11th & White 25th Cent. 300

If no question as to improvements was involved, then the rents or profits to be estimated would be "a reasonable rent for the mill" in the condition it was when Orr took possession, after his sale to Turners. Early v.
Turner, &c., approving this case. Buchanan v. King's heirs. In Buchanan & King's heirs the property was unimproved when King took possession and was of no rental value &c., no rents were allowed.

In this case the defendant to the X. bill claims for improvements. Ordinarily this claim arises upon improvements merely equitable principles. In this case the improvements were put upon the property with the assent, approval & promise (see letters) of the plaintiff, W. L. Turner, to contribute. Under this view of this case, it seems to me that a mere fixing of a reasonable rent of the property, <sup>in its condition</sup> as of the date of the deed to Turners, is not the most equitable mode of adjustment; but under the circumstances the true mode would be to charge the ~~cost~~ <sup>bill</sup> with all necessary repairs, and expenses of running it, and to divide the net profits realized thereby: and this would show the account, independent of improvements. And as the improvements were put on the property by the approval of W. L. Turner, accompanied with promises of advances to aid in their construction and he should pay his proportion of their cost, being at the same time allowed to share in the advanced net profits, produced by these improvements.

There is some tendency in the testimony to show that the parties did not contemplate a strict accounting with each other, and the tendency of my mind was for sometimes to assume that up to the time Turner became Miller, the right to account for any period previous thereto was waived, or at least lost by lapse of time; and that the possession by Turner and his receipts of the tolls, and turning over to Orr what he himself did not use, was to be treated as a mode of adjustment adopted by them which should not be disturbed by the Court; but ~~has~~ treated also as a waiver of any further account;— but as the pleadings do not make such an issue; and the one party asks an account of profits, & the other party asks for an account of repairs & improvement, the decree following will be entered. ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

vs

Com L. Turner et al

} In Chy. - Brief of Com A. Orr of counsel.

Statement of Case

This is a suit brought by the plaintiff for the purpose of rescinding a contract, made and entered into on the 12th day of Decr 1868, and to have the paper evidencing that contract canceled and annulled.

Upon the grounds that the said paper was delivered to the defendant Com L. Turner upon the condition that he would pay to the plaintiff $500 - the consideration contained therein, and that he would contribute to the improvements, repairs &c of the "Hill Property" described in the pleadings and evidence in said cause.

Which contract and conditions the said Turner abandoned and failed to perform. If mistaken in this view of the case, the plaintiff then asks for Specific performance.

The plaintiff claims that the deed to Turner and wife was delivered to him upon the "distinct and positive agreement" that he would pay the $500 - therein named. This, defendant Turner denies, and alleges that the two deeds, the one from Turner to Orr and the one from Orr to Turner & wife, were one and the same contract made at the same time; that the first deed was made upon the express contract and agreement that the second should be made as it was. This position is, not only most clearly, contradicted by the deeds themselves, but is strongly contradicted by the proof in the Cause. If the first deed was made upon a condition, why was not that condition embodied in the deed, or, in some writing on that day; or why was not the second deed, the fulfillment of the condition, executed on the same day, Dec. 10th 1868? "Lectur" says: (Nat. Vol. Bk. 2nd p. 92) "Conditions may be annexed to every species of Estate, and interest in real property; but they must be created or annexed at the time of the creation of the estate itself, by the same deed, or, by another, sealed and delivered at the same time with the principal Deed." Defendants Turner in his Answer says: "The two deeds without one word of explanation fixes the Contract and all the contract there was." The two deeds without one word of explanation show two separate and distinct contracts, as claimed by plaintiff, and this he is estopped to deny.

The two deeds are dated on different days, and there is not one word in either referring to, or connecting it in any way with, the other, as part and parcel of the other, or as part and parcel of one and the same contract.

The defendant Turner no where claims to have paid the purchase money named in the last deed, and if the plaintiff shows by the deeds themselves and other evidence that they were separate contracts, then the last is, according to said deeds and proof, and defendant Turner's admission of non-payment, Exeuntory. This view of the case is strongly supported by the evidence in the cause of defendant Turner's acts of Abandonment, &c. Which <sup>acts</sup> must be considered as referable to, and explanatory of, the Original Contract. It is contrary to the experience and observation of all mankind, that a man would have in his possession a vested right, and it paid for, and would neglect and refuse to assert or claim it in any manner whatever during a period of fourteen years; and not only neglect and refuse to assert or claim it, but actually disclaim any interest in the property, especially when he was during all that time in very poor circumstances, and in fact entirely destitute of any means of support, as he says he was when he had to sell to plaintiff and when he assigned &c to defendant Hamblen. His conduct must be convincing to any mind that he could not pay the purchase money, ($500.) or, that he became dissatisfied with his said purchase and concluded to abandon it. How is it that he ever contributed one cent to improvements and repairs? — how is it that he ever had listed any interest in said property or claim on plaintiff (or) for taxation? — how is it that he let the firm of Hamblen & Orr (Hamblen "his confidential friend and adviser") make a permanent improvement on the property (built a granary) without informing them he had an interest there?— how is it that he suffered the plaintiff to rent to Vanhook the particular house and lot; receive the rents and make improvements or repairs thereon in 1876 while he was living in Jonesville?—

how is it that he as Miller for four or five years set apart and kept no one fourth nor any part of the toll for his own benefit, except the "Miller's part." And not only this, but did not even keep nor have kept an account of the tolls of the Mill during that period?— and how is it he disclaimed to Burgan, Surgen and Rutherford having any interest whatever in the property? This conduct and these Acts of abandonment is irresistible proof (of which he gives no reasonable explanation) that the contract was as claimed by plaintiff, and that Turner had not paid the $500— and either could not or did not want to and therefore abandoned his purchase.

~~He~~ he ~~even intended~~ to pay for his purchase (?) he may have intended doing so when he collected his Tennessee Money, or made some Money Preaching; but, he failed so utterly in the latter (See his letters to P. Ff.) also in the former (See his Ans.) that when he returned and quit preaching 1875, he then gave up and abandoned all thought & hope of doing so, and of contributing his part to the improvements. His conduct from that time forward. (See proof) clearly shows his abandonment.

A party by concealment and lying by without asserting his claim may lose the benefit of his deed. See Tucker 1st. Vol. p. 341. Why did he not have his deed proved and recorded? Why the concealment of the deed proved in the Cause if it had been paid for? If it was paid for, was it not their own? — and were they not at liberty to do what they pleased with it independently? Why the secrecy about ~~it~~ ~~the~~ having it recorded? — And why the extraordinary conduct of Mr. Hamblin ingoring every upon the Clerk when he had the paper recorded, if he had without fraud and improper collusion purchased a paper which had been paid for. In this connection observe Hamblin's reply to plaintiff, when notified by plaintiff "not to purchase, and see the Statement of Turner in his Answer, which shows clearly that he told Hamblin that plaintiff was claiming payment, when he says: "He knew he was not bound to pay any thing further, and so told Mr. Hamblin." Why was the paper ever concealed? How was it that Mrs. Turner was expecting plaintiff to call for it, and knew if he did Turner would give it to him, and took it and hid it?

 (See Nancy J. Woodard's deposition.) unless she knew it had not been paid for and that the plaintiff was entitled to it and was to have it. She is the wife of defendant Turner and claiming to be a party in interest, and is presumed to have known whatever her husband knew, and according 8 to the answer of these facts, the paper was concealed by her long before Turner was dismissed as Miller, and long before there was any difficulty between plaintiff and defendant Turner. Why does not left: Turner in his Answer deny specifically the <sup>specific</sup> charge made by the plff. in his bill, as to the conversation at the Cedar tree? He must know it occurred just as stated. Why his dodge of the charge in the bill, that he on the evening after he had had his paper recorded stated to plff. that he had not yet found it? (In Turners language in Answer p. 10) Why in fact are so many of his statements in his answer contrary to the usual mode of stating plain, simple matters of fact, or, of denying positive and distinct allegations of facts. For instance, he says the property conveyed by him was valued at $2000- and the life estate estimated at $500-. By whom was this valuation and estimate made? By him alone we are left to presume. And again on p. 2 of Answer he says as before hinted the property was regarded as worth $2,000. By him again we suppose. Can he state in his answer any where plainly and distinctly what he claims the contract was? We think not.

 Upon the other hand he uses 18 pages to mystify and dodge a plain simple contract and avoid the payment of a just demand on the relinquishment of a recently asserted claim to an interest long since abandoned because not paid for. In his extraordinary answer we find a little of everything, for the purpose of avoiding and concealing the true facts in the case: His politics and whereabouts during the war; his impoverished condition and inability to pay for property just after the war; his ministerial services to the Church; his business career as a Merchant and then as Miller; And his great love and affection for the Plff., who he says was so hard run that he through sympathy did not rather from him any part of the tolls (?) Ah! how strange it is that Mr. Turner never had sympathy enough to pay Plff. what he owed him, nor to contribute one cent towards improvements, repairs, &c.

The deft. Turner to avoid the $500. responsibility, claims that he undertook to loan Plff. some money, and states that Plff's letters would sustain this view. They not only fail to sustain such view, but they and deft's. letters, strongly support Plff's charge, that Turner was to pay the $500. for his interest and contribute to the improvements and repairs.

Turner states <sup>positively</sup> in this connection, that the reason he did not furnish or loan the money, is, that he did not and could not collect his Lumber money. Thomas' deposition proves that he did collect $400. This is a positive and flat contradiction - and we are reminded of the rule: Falsus in unum falsus in omnibus. He also states that not one dollar passed between Plff. and him.

In Dr. Browning's 1st deposition as to who paid him. Plff. must have paid Turner as Turner paid Browning. It will apply the rule again.

The conduct of Turner & Hamblin in the consummation of their trade, shows just such doney, trick, artifice, and deceitful practices, as is not known in ordinary business transactions; and therefore their intention must have been fraudulent, and their transactions such as one as a Court of equity will interpose and set aside or grant the plff. relief against. To sustain this view, we have the inadequacy of the price agreed upon between them ($500-) For, it is in proof that they both regarded the interest then sold and bought at from $3,000- to $5,000-. Again, it is shown by Turner & Hamblin's Settlement Made Feb'y - 1883 and filed with Charles A. Russell's 2nd deposition, that nothing had been paid by Hamblin to Turner on said purchase at the time it was made, even at the time of the institution of this suit. It further shows that but little has been paid since, and that little for the purpose of trying to show good faith. But alas! the day had passed. Mr. Hamblin had had notice. In Mr. Russell's 1st & 2nd Deposition. When we read the said Russell's depositions and the after thought settlements, we can not give credit to the statements of Hamblin and Lunn in their answers, to the effect; that Mr. Hamblin had seen at the time of answering said in any way any part of his said purchase. Mr. Hamblin can not, therefore, be an innocent purchaser, such as the law will protect. See Story's Equity Jurisprudence Vol. 2 p 959-61

The defendants, feeling that they could not safely rely upon the positions taken by them, claiming but one contract, very strangely elect to show the value of the property. To do this they take the depositions of two witnesses who have had no experience whatever with mill property. And the Plff. takes the depositions of a like number - every one of whom, save one, are experts - men who have had experience in occupying or dealing in such property. The defts. witnesses put the property on an average at about $1,700 - Dec. 10th 1868, while the plffs. witnesses put it at about $700 - and the average of them all is $1,200 - exactly what deft. Turner admits in his answer that Plff. has paid. And, if we give most weight to the testimony of Plffs. witnesses as it seems we should, as they speak from actual experience, the value is fixed at less than $1,000 - The defendants having elected to resort to this ground, must abide the result, which result is, ~~their~~ showing the value of the property less than $1,000 - and that the Plff. has paid it.

So ~~where~~ is the great bargain claimed and the services spoken of by Turner in his answer?
This is however said matter set up by Turner & must be proved by him, but we have heard nothing of it since the answer, except his failure to prove the "great bargain."

"Badges of Fraud."

If the Plaintiff was without proof in the cause, except the badges of fraud which appear in it, the prayer of his bill should be granted and the Dec. of Dec. 12th 1868 annulled and declared void.
These Badges are not one nor two but are at least two in number.

1st The procurement of "Shrines of Evidence." Bump p. 95. The Plff. appeared to testify and thereby allow defendants to do likewise, but they in order to conceal what was in their own knowledge and that which they well knew was in the knowledge of the Plff. threw themselves back upon their legal rights.

"Secrecy". Lum and wife for a long time concealed the paper in question according to their own answers and Mrs. Woodard's deposition - and worst of all Mr. Gibson's deposition proves that Hamblin then resigned at the last hour of making the paper known to the world by its 6th Inadequacy of Price. According to the depositions of C. C. Bell, E. S. Woodard, and Mrs. Wynn. defendants valued the paper assigned to Hamblin at from $3,000 - to $5,000. Yet the price paid for said paper, they answer was only $800, to be paid in goods, wares, and merchandises at that. Bump. p. 86. Hill on Trusts p 236-7 7- Notorious Possession by Plff. Bump. p. 90. Sugden on Pensions & Purchases Vol. 3. p. 447-8 & 471 & 468-9. It is admitted and proved all through the case that the possession of the Plaintiff has been open and notorious, and well known to defendants.

8th Out of Usual Course. Bump p 92-4 It is well shown that the business relations between Plff. and deft-Hambler has been very agreeable and intimate, and it is perfectly reasonable and natural that Hamblen would have Consulted Off. before purchasing a state paper against him, neither acknowledged, proved nor recorded. Now we are again irresistably forced to the Conclusion, that the defendant Hamblen meant to Collude with his Nephew for the purposes before stated.

9th Now we have the strange fact, that Mr. Hamblen failed to claim any interest in the aforesaid paper when Plaintiff notified him to that make a purchase of the Kind, though he answers that he had already purchased. This last badge chiefly shows the aching of the Mans Conscience.

10th Nothing Paid Down for said claim as is Alleged in Answers of Lums and Hamblen. The two depositions of Charles A. Russell, and the Settlement filed therewith show conclusively that the answers of these defendants do this point out not be true — and again

In a Cross Bill.

The Plaintiff in this cross bill claims to be the Vendor of W<sup>m</sup> L Turner and wife of a certain life estate and interest, in the Orr Mill property, and he prays for an account of the Tolls and earnings of said Mill from the date of his Vendors deed down to the present time.

The facts are that W<sup>m</sup> L Turner one of the Plaintiffs Vendors owned this property, subject however to a right of redemption reserved by Mary Wynn or Hurst by a deed of hers dated Nov 1868, by which she had conveyed a moiety of said property to the said Turner.

In this condition said Turner on the 10th day of December 1868 conveyed said property with covenants of General Warranty, subject however to Mrs Wynns reservation to J W Orr the Defendant.

Then on the 12th day of Decr 1868 said Orr conveyed to Turner and wife for their lives or the life of the survivor of them, an undivided  $\frac{1}{4}$  of of said mill lot or tract with its appurtenances  $\frac{1}{4}$  the Tolls of The Mill, the exclusive use of the ~~land~~ and garden &c.

The property then stood in this condition, J W Orr owned  $\frac{3}{4}$  said property in fee.
Turner & Wife  $\frac{1}{4}$  " " for life, with remainder in this  $\frac{1}{4}$  to J W Orr in fee.

all subject however to Mrs. Wyman's right of redemption to the extent of one moiety of the whole of said property.

Thus, on the      day of      1870. Mr Orr purchased from Mr Wyman his right of redemption.

During the year 1869, and during the time in which Mrs. Wyman had the right to redeem, said Orr, with the knowledge and assent of said Turner and by agreement between them repaired the old Mill which was then in a condition that it would not grind (See Deed of Alex. Wyman or Hurst) at a cost of $300.

Thus in 1872, ~~at~~ <sup>with</sup> the full knowledge of Turner and at his urgent request <sup>Orr</sup> erected the New Mill on said property, at a cost of $2224.17 and since that time he has erected other valuable and necessary improvements on said property has kept it repaired paid the Taxes on it &c,

Now it is evident that, this property outside of the improvements <sup>1st</sup> put upon by Orr is of little value, and that in its condition at the time of the several conveyances above mentioned it would have yielded nothing by way of rents or tolls. Then it is the expense of these improvements, in which the plaintiff asks to be allowed to share and of which he asks an account,

These improvements were all erected by Mr Orr and at his sole expense, would it be fair or equitable to give them to Riffe, until he or his vendors contribute their share of the expenses of erecting said improvements? Certainly not, for whether they were erected under a specific contract, or simply by one joint owner at his own expense, and with the knowledge and consent of the other the same principle prevails, all the expenses of erection must be paid, before there can be a partition of the earnings, &c.

But it is contended that the fee simple owner if allowed to do so might defeat the interest of the life tenant by the creation of costly permanent improvements, and so he might, But nothing <sup>this</sup> kind appears in this case, no improvement is put on the property (unless it is the granary) that is not absolutely necessary to its present use and without which it would yield nothing, then certainly the rule of contribution to these expenses would not be altered by the fact that one of the ~~joint~~ tenants holds in fee and the other for life - especially when it is recollected that all the improvements were made with <sup>of the life tenant?</sup> this full knowledge and at his request, then it must be further recollected that the largest portion by far, of said improvements are subject to great wear and will not last long. Not longer than the duration of an ordinary life estate of one old person much less two

By an examination of <sup>the</sup> deed under which the Plaintiff claims, it will be seen that its phraseology is a little strange and yet very specific. By that deed Turner and wife convey to him  $\frac{1}{4}$  the mill lot, &  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the Tolls of said Mill which have been collected. What has been collected? Turner says in his answer and Plaintiff reiterates in his bill that about 1 year's Tolls have been collected or received by him. Then it must be, according to the contract under which he claims, that he is only entitled to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of this year's Tolls collected by Turner, and with that Mr Orr has nothing to do. But I will now examine the subject with direct reference to his claim as he sets it up in his bill, i.e., a claim to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the earnings of said Mill from Decr 12. 1868 down to the present time.

Now it is evident, and a well settled principle of law that Turner and wife could not pass by their conveyance any greater interest in said property than that which they owned at the time, and Hamblen by said conveyance can take only what they had a right to convey. They had a right to convey their interest in said property to wit an undivided  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the mill lot for their lives, They also had a right perhaps, to convey their future interest in the Tolls of the Mill, though perhaps this would pass anyway by the conveyance of an undivided  $\frac{1}{4}$  in said property. But Their part of the Tolls made by said Mill, from Decr 12th 1868 down to the Time of Their sale to the Plff was a debt due Them by Orr, and as such was only a Chose in action capable of sale and assignment and this is all the effect so far as these back tolls are concerned of the deed of Turner & wife to the Plaintiff. And the Plaintiff Takes This claim subject to all the Equities existing between his assignors and Mr Orr. So too he takes it subject to all the legal and equitable offsets held by Mr Orr, against said Turner. And certainly the claim of the Defendant for improvements repairs &c. are claims directly against Turner for improvements out of which these tolls directly grow, and without which they never would have been earned. Consequently until Mr Orr is fully repaid the money he has expended, nothing is due to Turner, and nothing being due to him he could sell nothing except to sell as he seems to have done  $\frac{1}{4}$  of what he had collected.

Nor does the claim of the defendant for contribution for these valuable improvements rest alone on the principle above adverted to, because it is a well settled principle of both law and equity That where one joint owner has made valuable improvements upon the joint property, That he shall be compensated therefor, before the other is permitted to reap the reward of said improvements. Hamblin stands in the shoes of his vendors and must do what was incumbent upon them to do.

He asks for an account of the Tolls of the Mill. He seeks a share in said Tolls, he will be entitled to what he asks when he contributes the pro rata share of his interest, to the improvements made on the property by the defendant, nor is this a hardship upon him, or a subject of which he can complain, when it is recollect that but for the improvements erected by Mr Orr and paid for by his money That nothing in the way of Tolls would exist out of which he could seek a share.

He has come into equity, seeking relief. Equity's favorite maxim is, "That he who seeks equity shall do equity. Apply this principle and how can the Plaintiff expect to share in the earnings of the mill until he has contributed his pro rata share to the erection thereof, his pro rata share of the expenses expended in producing those Tolls, see 2 Story 29 Jurisprudence Sec. 799a and note 799b, & note 3, also Secs 1237/1238.

The case might have been different (Though it is not conceived that this case would) if Mr Orr had filed his bill asking for contribution from the other joint owners. But this he has not done, they upon the contrary have sought this forum for relief. They can only obtain it by conforming to the equitable rules and maxims prescribed by it. Give them equity but require them to do it.

And when this is done they will find that the defendant has not yet realized enough from the ~~profits~~ of the mill to repay him the outlays he has made on said property since Decr 12th 1868.

But these improvements are liens upon the property, and as such they follow it into the hands of voluntary vendees. And here again there is no hardship imposed upon Mr Hamblen because he had full knowledge of the state of this property as we think the proof clearly shows, if not he had knowledge of sufficient facts to put him upon inquiry, and then add the fact that all the purchase money <sup>then</sup> still due from at the time of the institution of the original suit and much the largest part of it is still due.

Story Dec 1235- 1236 1237 + notes

The plaintiff asks for an account let him have it, if he has shown himself entitled to it, but this being all that is sought we respectfully ask that it be accorded him upon the principle that he shall contribute into his share of the costs of improvement, and we respectfully submit that upon all points of our answer required to be proved by reason of the general replication put in by the defendant that chance be given us to prove the same before the Commission appointed to take said account.

L. H. Ann ans. by Defts Brief
C. L. Hamblin

In the year 1868 Rev. Wm L. Turner and Mrs. Alec Hymn alias Hurst, were the owners in right of their joint purchase, of lot of 40 acres of land  $\frac{1}{2}$  miles west from Jonesville Va. known as the Hymn Mill property. It was and is chiefly valuable as a mill site and water power. - This property in an undivided state had ~~had~~ been purchased by these parties, at the price of \$1000. from one Alec Hymn one of the five heirs at law of John Hymn deceased former owner of said mill site and an adjoining tract of valuable land. On this purchase Mrs Hymn previous to Nov. 1868 had paid \$235. and Turner the sum of \$65 = \$300. leaving a balance of \$700 outstanding, with perhaps some accumulated interest. - About this later date these purchasers became uneasy as to their ability to pay the residue of outstanding purchase money. They therefore sought sale for the property. - After several efforts Turner began stipulation with James W. Orr the plff. who refused to purchase Turner moiety alone but bargained for the whole property; Turner agreeing to procure Mrs Hymn's half by or furnishing the money. - Accordingly in the early part of Nov. 1868 Turner procured Mrs Hymn's deed for the property with a reservation named in the deed - that she have the privilege, within five years to pay back the money she thus had advanced her, and its interest, pay half the costs of the construction of the new mill & hence forward have  $\frac{1}{4}$  the tolls after the payment of the miller. See her deed on file. The price paid her was \$700 - or as she swears \$500 and what ever sum she had therefore paid which is shown in proof to be \$235. Her deed was therefore in fact a mortgage, and for her equity of redemption it is shown in proof Mr Orr afterwards paid her \$215. and thus she closed out of the transaction.

Turner being now the owner of the whole property, sold to the plff, and on the 10th day of Dec. 1868 Conveyed by deed the same to Orr - Mrs Hymas half on the conditions named in her deed to him. On the 12 of Dec. 1868 two days after, Orr re-conveys to Wm L. Turner and Phoebe E. his wife, by deed almost similar in language, "Mutatis Mutandis;"  $\frac{1}{4}$  of said land & mill lot and  $\frac{1}{4}$ the tolls of said mill, with the exclusive use of a house and lot then all for the life of said parties or the survivor of them. The deed from Turner to Orr recites that the consideration was \$2000, the receipt whereof is acknowledged and the deed of Orr to Turner & wife recites the consideration of \$500. The receipt whereof is also acknowledged. The deeds are each in the hand write of Mr Orr and each witnessed by David S. B. Orr - Orr's deed from Turner is proved & recorded in 1871 - And Turner & wife from Orr not until 1882 - Just before the institution of the Suit.

Soon after the execution of these deeds Mr Turner who was an itinerant preacher left its vicinity and for four or five years remained in N. C. and Tenn, discharging his ministerial duties - about 1874 or 1875 he returned to Jonesville and he and the plff entered into a partnership to carry on the mercantile business, which continued for about one year. To May 1876. In the time thus passed over Mr Orr had built the new mill on said lot, and otherwise improved the property - It will be observed that Turner lived in the house on the lot reserved to him at the date of the sale and moved out of the same, which was afterward occupied by Mr Orr's miller when the new mill was built - After the close of the mercantile business Mr Orr paid Turner on account thereof $250. See admissions - And Orr put up a house for his miller at a cost of $300 or $400 - And when thus completed Turner & wife again occupies their old house, without let or hindrance, the payment of rent or objection by anyone - And while out of the possession

Mr Orr gives him unlimited orders to his Millers for whatever he called for from the mill and no charges is ever made against him for it. He continues his possession of the house up to the present. See depositions James Burnett or Robert Vandeventer. Some four or five years ago. Turner enters the mill as miller with one Frank Wood and continued to operate the same for  $\frac{1}{2}$  the tolls up to a few days before the institution of the plffs suit. In the latter part of the summer of 1882 or early fall, Mr Orr discharges Turner as miller, and refuses him further aid & hence the controversy. About the 15th of Sept Turner has his deed recorded, and on the 17th goes out to C. L. Hamblin and on the 18th he and his wife join in a deed of conveyance to said Hamblin which is also recorded. At the Oct. Rules the plff files his bill; At November Rules the defendant demurs and answers, and then depositions in great numbers are taken. The object of the plffs bill is not clear. He claims that the deed to Turners wife conveys no right because there was a verbal agreement for the payment to him of \$500 and the same has never been paid and that the defendant Wm S. Turner has abandoned any claim or rights thereunder & attacks the deed to Hamblin for fraud, and want of consideration.

On this Bill & answer the Defendants submit the following argument and authorities - The demand to the plffs bill, is well taken and must prevail; and thus end the case - unless the allegations, for specific performance, at the close of the bill saves it, from this fatal consequence - The defendants hold it to be a bill for specific performance; and thus to that extent, maintain-able by the court. If so then the rule in equity is "If the plff sets up by his bill a contract and fails in the proof as stated in the bill; But the contract is proven as set forth in the answer, the Court will administer relief by setting up the contract proven as contained in the answer; and will not turn the defendants around to his new action" - See. Sugden on Vendors. Vol. 1 P. 363. (Fig 17). Cases cited there - Trice v. Clayton - 13 Ves. <sup>15 Ves.</sup> Higginson & Clowes; the latter case, makes a distinction where neither party proves his case and holds the bill should in that event be dismissed - Brooker v. Scheffer 21st Gratt. 474. treats upon the same subject at large and establishes the same ~~principle~~ Other cases bearing upon this and other points in common will be hereafter cited - The rule here contended for is fully established by our Supreme Court - So much testimony has been taken upon the inadequacy of price or rather to show, the absurdity of the price mentioned in the deeds, and asserted by the defendant Turner as the basis of the contract that a good case will be here referred to. At the same time it is not possible for the principal to arise in this case. Turner was a refugee from Tennessee and not long in the community. Mr Orr the plaintiff was born and raised in 2 1/2 miles of the mill in dispute, had known it all his life; was sheriff of the County at the time of its purchase, and clerk of the Court at the time of its (the mill's) construction. It would therefore be wholly untenable to assert the advantage of superior knowledge or influence upon the side of the defendant - pressed as he was, by the purchase money then due & compelled to sell at some price, it would seem far-fetched to say the plaintiff contracted under any unfair influence. Hale v. Wilkinson 21 Gratt 75. Mettler's adm v. Hagan 18 Gratt. 231. This case settles that the vendor under a deed by a competent party "is entitled to look without <sup>regard</sup> to the value of the consideration paid therefor". And would seem to settle this case unless undue influence could be shown - There is no pretence in this case of undue influence or misrepresentation. The case of Stearns et al v. Beckham et al 31 Gratt 391-417 both from the high standing of the parties, and the amount involved, drew forth all the doctrine upon this principle, and is relied upon as settling this case on this point for the defendants.

Sugden on Vendors Vol. 1. P 339 - 385 is perfectly in accord with this view - also same book 438 (fig 12.3. (6)) 442 (fig 18) and directly in point

474 (fig 19) Storey's Equity Jurisprudence Vol. 2

Sec. 757 767 which latter treats of parol testimony and is here cited for convenience - Sec. 772 is regarded clearly in point for the defendants also

Sec. 775 - See also 776 and the case there cited and the note on Page 826. The proof in this case upon the point of price, is from 20 witnesses 10 puts it, the mill site, before Orr built, at from $1500 <sup>one putting at $1000 -</sup> to $2000 - while 10 examined for the plff put it all the way from $600 to $1800.

But reference is here made to the testimony of Mary Wynn alias Hurst, she swears Mr Orr paid her under her contract with Turner for her half of said property $700, that is five hundred and whatever she had paid on original purchase money $235.

See her deed, in which she reserves the right of re-payment and 1/2 the cost of Construction and then she was to lend 1/4 the tolls -

For this right or the equity of redemption under

Turner's purchase Mr Orr subsequently paid her $215 + 735 = $950 actually paid for her (miscited)

(Not found must have mistaken to P) moiety, then supposing Turner to be in the minds of the parties equal in value we have for the whole price of the whole property $1900. Not for from the defendant's view and then one moiety Turner's was as we claim to be paid in tolls dependent upon the will of Mr Orr as to time of Construction and then only for the life of two advanced persons. If it be true then, as stated by his own witness that the plaintiff paid $950. for Mrs Wynne's moiety, what has he ever paid the defendant Turner?

It may be contended however, that the present mill is not the one from which tolls should issue, because not in existence at the date of Orr's deed to Turner. I have heard such an argument hinted at - Such grounds are not tenable. Because the plaintiff in his bill admits that the purchase was made when an old mill of no value was upon the lot and with a view to construct thereafter a fine flouring mill which intention was subsequently carried out &c.
This then was the object of the purchase and must have been the mill constructed in reference to. & otherwise Mr Orr could not have torn down the old mill without the defendant's consent - no relief is claimed by the bill on this account and none can therefore be granted. Ould & Cannington v. Myers 23 Gratt - 383.

and it is a general principle in equity that relief cannot be granted upon grounds not stated in the pleading or in some way put in issue - nor need proof be made on matters not stated in the bill Chase v. Chase 28 Gratt. 686.

By a reference to the plffs bill it will be seen that he makes only two material allegations, as the foundations of his action. "the practical abandonment of the contract" and the non-payment of the consideration -

These allegations are flatly denied by the answer and thus puts the plff upon proof - There is no proof that the contract was ever abandoned, except the statements of defendant Turner at different times that he had no interest in the same. There can in no way affect Mrs. Turner's or C. L. Hamblin's rights. Mull & Scott exrs v. Scott 18 Gratt. 150. See opinion of Joyne, sets this matter of parol surrender at rest and shows the law clearly for the defendants on this point. Besides that allegation in the bill, is flatly denied and as to the effect of the answer see Boughton v. Coffey 18 Gratt. 184. Powell & wife v. Manson 22 Gratt 177. This case meets fully the effect of an answer in every conceivable phase of this case. Thus far we have followed the authorities to establish, as they clearly do, for us the following propositions viz:

- 1 That a bill for specific execution of a Contract will not be dismissed because the plff fails; but will administer relief to the defendant if entitled thereto.
2. That inadequacy of consideration, for the property purchased, will be disregarded, unless the same amounts to fraud or is so gross as to shock the moral sense - which means fraud.
- 3 That Relief cannot be granted upon grounds not stated in the bill.

We desire here to refer specifically again to Stearns & al v Beckham & al 31st Gratt 379, and the Cases cited on p. 391 which bear very fully upon specific execution, and equity relief. and especially among the cases cited of Whitowife v. McGannon 29 Gratt. 571. This latter case is full & clear.

The plff in his bill admits that he did execute the deed of 12 Dec. 1868 to Turner & wife in consideration of the sum of five hundred dollars and delivered it to Turner & wife, upon the condition of Turner's after payment of that sum to him. This admission is fatal to his whole case for upon the delivery of the deed as stated in the bill the parol conditions became void, and the deed at once operative, when so delivered to the vendee. Suggen on vendors as he you cite. And after a full examination of the Text writers are read carefully Miller v Hetcher 27 Gratt. 403 (Opinion of Staples) which so fully collates the authorities on this point that no further reference need be made. This authority fully establishes the fact of the deed be perfect on its face - that is shows nothing further to be done - it is effective and the parol conditions need not be performed <sup>when the delivery is to the grantee.</sup> If then the deed was as is claimed, perfect on its face, was delivered as admitted in the bill and thus became complete & operative. The doctrine of Estoppel in its full extent and widest scope applies and is a complete bar to the plff.

and panoply to the defendants.

As to estoppel - and delivery of deeds. See Bower v Mc Cormick & als. 23 Gratt 310 & following pages. Benjamin & als v. Clark & als before cited.

208. On this point the East Va Report,

75. Va 309. Wendlinger v. Smith and als - 309.

Again review and confirm the principles of Steam & als v. Beckham & als. The principles of Estoppel & delivery may appear somewhat mixed & confused, owing to the examination of the testimony in the foregoing citations; but they are believed to all bear upon the principles of this case. Without canvassing the whole testimony the defendants maintain that the following points are clearly in their favor.

1. The value of the property is about equally balanced for $2000. and for $1000. The estimation in the deeds although by way of recital binds and stops the parties thereto from setting up a different one. And the law is therefore for the defendants.
2. The inability of Wm S. Turner to pay; his partnership with Orr, and Orr's subsequent payment to him of $250 on the closing of the mercantile partnership rebuts the idea of Turner's indebtedness to the plff.
3. The occupancy of Wm S. Turner's wife of the house and lot mentioned in the deed, coupled by the plffs unlimited orders to Burnett & Vandeventer Miller, for such supplies as said Turner might call for, without any pay therefore is a clear admission of Turner's interest in the mill and is rendered plain by the plffs letters, and rebuts the idea of abandonment of the contract & explains the delay.
4. Thomas' depo<sup>s</sup>. sustains the answer of the defendants as to his claims in Tenn, and his failure to collect in time to aid by way of loan the plff.

4 to build the mill - Besides this was no part of the contract, and the defendant Turner was under no legal obligation to make the loan.

The answer of Turner on this point is fully sustained by the letters on file and his conversation proven by E. S. Woodward a witness upon the part of the plff. And also by the conversation proven by Mrs Woodward with defendant Ohebe Turner.

5 The plff fails to prove any conditional delivery of said deed, and the bill upon this point is denied by the answer, and therefore totally fails.

7 The allegation that the contract had been abandoned, that is had by parol been surrendered, is not sustained by proof, nor could such surrender be made see Scottons v Scott 18 Gratt. 100. And John Burgan's deposition shows the reasons of such statements - And in no event can Wm S. Turner's statements affect Mrs Turner or Hamblin without notice.

8 No allegation of the bill as we take it affects or can affect, the right of Mrs Turner, and her assignee Hamblin, is clearly entitled to recover the moiety due her. No proof in the cause militates against this view.

9 The plff makes great claim against the assignment to Hamblin, it is submitted that before the plff can in any way affect or even challenge the assignment to Hamblin he must make out a clear case against Turner or wife, otherwise Hamblin's assignment does not affect him; nor is it a thing of which he can legally complain.

10 It is submitted with great confidence, that if the case could not be maintained upon any other grounds for the defendants - that Hamblin is clearly an innocent purchaser without notice and must hold -

The bill alleges notice and fraud against him both of which are specifically denied, by each of the answers and there is not one word of proof or a single circumstance to support the bill, and the answers must therefore clearly prevail.

Much testimony has been taken, to repel the idea that Mr Orr would have made such a bad bargain as to pay the price agreed to be <sup>paid as</sup> shown by the deeds. It will not be seriously denied that when Mr Orr purchased the equity of redemption from Mrs Hyman, that he then had full knowledge of the price or the interest involved. She was to pay back the seven hundred dollars and interest; pay the costs of construction and have  $\frac{1}{4}$  the tolls after payment of the miller - then if she had done that, he would have had  $\frac{1}{4}$  the tolls on her half to pay over to the defendant, Turner or wife in discharge of his obligation during their lives; after their death he would have had this  $\frac{1}{4}$  to revert to him and for which he had not paid one cent. And if this state of case is true as it certainly is: By his purchase of the Equity he stands in her shoes and no tenureship is entailed upon him even if he had paid full value for the entire moiety to Turner. But did he? Turner was due on the original purchase \$500 less \$65 = \$435 which is all he could have paid on that half - He paid Mrs Wynn back of his own proof \$235 advanced by her, and \$215 for Equity of redemption \$450 and then paid the fine hundred dollars substantially purchase money less \$235 = \$265 which added to \$450 make the sum of \$715 paid to her as the very least he could have paid her. Now if he paid her \$715 and paid Turner as above \$435 - He must have paid Mrs Wynn \$280 more than Turner, and paid back \$1150 for property he has labored to prove was only worth \$500 or \$600 See depos. of Bonham, A. P.

Wynn, Wright Stickley and others - and these figures would show the old woman Mrs Wynn selling to shrewd business men property as they would have no belief <sup>worth only that in her day</sup> $250 or $300 for double its worth and more viz $715 - What Sophistry! & fallacy.

Because Mrs. Wynn deposes upon the part of the plaintiff that she was to have the amount as shown first stated in this paper.

It is worthy of notice that the plaintiff is perfectly silent on the price paid by him or to whom paid and thus give us the full fact - and having failed to do so in his bill or prayer for relief or in any way sought relief therefrom, it is conceived that no notice need be taken of that feature or any proof made in reference thereto upon the authority of Cash & Cash before cited.

Yet the proof might perhaps be taken to contradict Turner's answer if so it need have ~~expended~~ <sup>been</sup> so much force on so ~~small~~ <sup>small</sup> a matter that, because, that allegation is fully borne out by the deeds, and although made by way of recital it estops the parties from showing a different valuation, and the proof of Col. Martin, Andrew Melbourne E. S. & Wm. H.
Woodworth and Andrew M. Ely <sup>and C. F. Cook</sup> all men of property & clear neighbors shows fully the market value to have been certainly not less than $1800. Is it to be seriously contended that Mr. or any other reasonable man would, have given up the house for Turner & wife to live in, built a new house at the cost of $400. and then given an unlimited order covering some four years of the time to defendant Turner to the mill for supplies and all this for years without compensation unless the plff had regarded that he Turner had vested rights - And do not all these things overturn the whole theory of the plffs bill, and sustain Turners answer in every feature of its material allegations?

Look at Oris letters which clearly admit the defendant Turners claim and interest in the mill, and then as if moved by some fatality he files Turners ~~letter~~ which with his own, refutes clearly any claim of the plff for a debt due as asserted by him in his bill. But they fully sustain the view of the answer, that after the Trade was made, and no part of the Trade - The defendant Turner still conditionally promised to aid the plff by a loan not of five hundred or any definite sum but such sum as he could raise.

Now if the view we take be correct - that Oris deed to Turner is valid and passes the title then the defendants assert with some degree of confidence, that any improvements made by the plff with the full knowledge of Turners & wife's rights, were made at his own cost & risk and Turners or their vendee is entitled without contribution to fully enjoy such improvements as guaranteed by their titles - Should this question arise and be controverted, authority will be produced to sustain it

Having thus far mainly labored the case as between Turner & wife & the plff, we deem it only necessary to add, that whatever fate awaits them we with great confidence rest the defense upon the rights of C. L. Hamblin as an innocent purchaser without knowledge or notice of the plffs assumed rights, nor do we see how our argument upon that point can be necessary - If he be such a purchaser he is protected - The bill alleges that he is not - Hamblin & the Turners answers deny the allegation, and no proof on the point, to the strength of one witness even is produced and hence the bill on that point must fail. Hamblin therefore as it appears to us should recover, upon the strength of the case as between the plff & the defendants Turner & wife - How much more so upon the high grounds of an innocent purchaser, for value. All of which is respectfully submitted.

James H. Orr

C. L. Hamblin
against } on Crofs-Bill.
James W. Orr.

By reference to the written opinion of the Court on file with the Cause, accompanying the vacation order it will be seen, the Court, was of opinion that the plff to entitle himself to Constructal expenses and repair, would have to amend his bill his original bill not being sufficient therefor. Nor the <sup>allegations</sup> facts of his bill sufficient for such relief.

It will be seen that much of the testimony and almost all the plffs arguments in the original, were devoted to that branch of the subject.

The plff not having availed himself of the privilege to amend, but refusing the same it is submitted, that he cannot by way of answer avail himself of a defense, deliberately abandoning an amended bill.

It is further submitted that the construction of a miller house, is no charge against the life tenant, and that as no tolls are sought for the old mill no charge can be maintained for them; or if they can the tools of that mill must also be taken into account.

There are facts that show the defence full in the face in a controversy, between them and the religious Contracting parties.

But what shadow of claim have they against Hamblin who makes his purchase under a deed full & complete, with no record squinting at offsets due thereunder. His purchase under this deed from the life tenant in possession of the leased lot accorded him, most certainly entitles him to hold against account, registered only in the pocket of the defendant.

But again can it be seriously contended that the contract is as contended by the defence - Must the life tenant pay 1/4 of expenses. If ~~that~~ <sup>2 years</sup> contended by the plff that was an express agreement of course it would have to be complied with. But this he only interprets as the true meaning - Now see how carefully the reservation & purchase of Mrs Wynn is guarded by her deed - and what Turner acting for our part in that deed - how it puts to flight the construction of the defence.

Exceptions to the account of W<sup>m</sup> L Turner which account is now offered to be filed in the chancery cause of James W Orr vs W L Turner et al. and the cross bill of Charles L. Hambley vs James W Orr.

1st The first ten items in said account are excepted to because they are not supported by the proof, and because the sums therein charged are in direct conflict with the proof.

2nd The 11th item in said account being the charge for use and occupation of house, and lot, for 4 years, at $500 per year is excepted because such an issue is nowhere or in no way raised in the pleadings in these causes or either of them. Because this question is not germane to the issue, and because it is a mere personal matter between Mr Turner and Mr Orr.

3 Proof is required of items 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 + 22,

4. Item 16 is objected to because no such issue is raised in the pleadings, and because the items therein charged, were expended by said Turner of expended by him at all under a direct contract to furnish said material and do said work, for the use of said house for one year, and that he did use it and occupy it for that or a longer time.

5 Item 17 is objected to because it shows on its face that it was for work done on the mill rocks while Turner was miller, when it was his duty to do such work, and pay for it out of the sum he received for running the mill.

6 Item 18 is excepted to because it is in no way an issue or part of an issue raised in the pleadings in said causes, and because it is or appears to be only a mere personal matter, between Orr and Turner in no way connected with these cases or the inquiry before the commissioners.

- 7 Items 19 & 20 are excepted to because they appear to have no connection with the issue
- 8 Item 21 is excepted to as not being in issue and besides if Mr Turner furnished wood while he was miller it was furnished to himself and was part and parcel of his duty as miller and is not a charge against Orr. and if it could be considered as a charge at all it would be a charge against the gross earnings of the mill. Neither is it charged, the number of loads of wood is not given.
- 9 The whole of said account is excepted to, so far as it is intended to supply any deficiency in the proceedings in these causes, and it can have no weight at all with the commissioners.

Item First: Of $300. for repairing and starting old mill is excepted to because, it is no way involved in the pleading of this Cause. If it were the tools, rents and profits should be taken into account. Besides the same should be itemized.

Item ~~22~~ is objected to because not itemized and does not show what it is for. That is the item of $52.60 to L. Henis &c. And each item that does not show what the same was for or what amount paid is excepted to because proof cannot be produced of rebuttal.

Account marked "O" is objected to because it is on its face, shown to be for the same as partly embraced in account "O" and also because it is not itemized.

Account R. is objected to because not embraced by the suit or contract and not built by any authority from the plff. And besides is not embraced by the pleading.

James H Orr.

Def

The defendant James H Orr excepts to the report of Com John A & Syatt and the statements therewith filed in this cause on the 16th day of Aug 1884.

M. P.

- 1 Statement M. P. filed with said report. is accepted to be cause. said Commissioner fails to charge the Mill property with $200. the sum paid on 26th day of Decr 1870. by Mr Orr to Mrs Wynn for her right of redemption in said property.
2. Because said Comr does not charge said property with $100. for the personal services of James H Orr in erecting The New Mill.
3. Because said Commissioner allows interest on the the Tolls of the mill. for half year when they should only be charged at the end of each year. Sec. 7th Leigh. 720. 16 Gratton. 21. - 58.
4. The sum for <sup>running & repairs.</sup> ~~repairs~~ should be divided ratably, each year in the absence of proof showing the year in which they were made. which is not done by Comr.
- 5th Because said Commissioner does not charge the Mill property with the expenses of building The Millers house, which he should have done because it clearly appears.

That a Miller's house was necessary and the one built is not more expensive than ought to be erected on property of such value.

1. Statement R. E. is excepted to because it fails to allow Mr. Orr's account for services in superintending the running and repairing of said <sup>mill</sup> as proved. The amount proved being $15 <sup>for 10 years. $150</sup> per year where in fact said owner has only allowed him $60. for all his services.

2. Defendant excepts to the action said commissioners ~~charging~~ said Mill property by the following amounts allowed in Lumber for or, to wit $8.00 paid Osborne on race, Lumber $3.00 James Miles $8.00 James Lumber $8.00. because the proof shows that said work was all paid for by stuff from the mill.

P. I.

1. Statement P. I. is excepted to because it classifies the Miller's house as a permanent improvement when he should have made the same a charge of repairs, as it is clearly proved that said house was necessary and not more costly than reasonable for such property.

L.

1. Statement L. is excepted to because not supported by the proof so far as allowances are made to Lumber for running repairs after the year 1876. it clearly appearing that every thing paid by him was paid by stuff from the mill.

2 and because he is not charged in said statement for the use of the State.

Q. 1 Statement Q is excepted to because the mill property is not charged with the sum paid Mrs Hyam for her right of redemption

2 Because it does not allow said Orr for his services in superintending the the erection of the new mill, $100. being the sum provided

3 Because the mill property is credited with $420.24 for toll each year when the proof by admission shows only $408<sup>00</sup> per year.

4 Because said Mill is not charged with the cost of the Millers house.

5 Because the mill property is not charged with $150 the value of Orrs services for 10 years in superintending the running of said Mill from Aug 1872 to Sept 1882.

1. 1 Statement 1 is right except that the 1 Mill property should have been charged with the $200 paid Mrs Hyam instead of charging it with her part of the toll

2. = Statement No 2 is right and we insist on its adoption.

3. = Statement No 3 is excepted to because it only makes Sumner and wife account for and bear the burdens of repairing the mill property upon the principal of life tenancy. This is clearly wrong

Because the property at the time they took their life estate would not yield any tolls, and before they can elect to share in the tolls of the repaired or improved property that property must repay by way of rents and profits the Common Owner Mr Orr for nearly said improvements.

2 Because there are double life tenants and the Commissioner does not show which he took whether the oldest or the youngest. This is wrong even if the principle of life tenancy could prevail which clearly it cannot.

3 The Commissioner errs in giving Lumber Credit with the rents of the house, for any year because the Plaintiff in his bill expressly excludes any such charge.

And in any event if rent could be charged it ought to be charged to the mill property as part of the repairing and running expenses, and not charged exclusively to Mr Orr which is the effect here given it.

4. Because he is allowed for repairs and the proof shows the repairs were paid for by stuff from the mill,

5 Because The Commissioner has proceed moniously to still said account even if he had started right, in this that at several points he has compounded interest.

General Exceptions

The defendant claims that under their deed only income entitled to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the net tolls of the mill that was on the property at the time or date of their deed and all expenditures by J W Orr by way of making said mill property yield tolls and repairs or such improvements as must be paid for out of the tolls before they can seek to participate in the receipts of the tolls arising from the improved property. and the commissioners report and each statement ~~with~~ it which is contrary to that view is excepted to.

2. The Commissioner should not give Mr Orr Credit for his accounts of offsets the Defto having testified that issue must abide by it. See notes accounts & filed by Orr and in the Commissioners possession. See also W A Orr's deposition & other evidence.

The dept says the statute of limitations cannot be made availing by Exceptions to the Commissioner's report. Pliffs cannot raise an issue and then when it turns against them avail themselves of the benefits of the statute, by way of exception. They should have pleaded it at the start if they wished to avail themselves of it.

- 2 The Statute does not apply because in this case the making of Orr to build the mill, <sup>by Lumber</sup> his reception of profits tolls or rents, his renting the mill and every act of the kind is a recognition of the debt.

Statement H. O. is repeated because wrong in every way and especially because the amount found due to Mr Orr from the mill property is a lien on said property and should follow it into the hands of Lumber vendee and therefore said sum due, from the property to Orr should be repaid to him before anything is set aside for distribution

Statement "M P" is excepted to as is all other statements that charge the Senter Mill because said Mill is not now in controversy and can not be passed upon by this Comr. not being in the scope of the decree of submission.

Because only  $\frac{1}{2}$  interest is charged on the tolls,  $\frac{1}{2}$  interest should be charged for the first year and then full interest if not that year expended. Where expended in the year received the mode is admitted to be practically correct.

3 Because no interest should be charged on tax tickets, when they are accounted for by the tolls of the same year, or because Turner & wife can only be held liable for  $\frac{1}{4}$ thereof.

4 Because Turner & wife are not al-their exclusive House & Lot-

5 Because the Store House is charge as a granery when for use of the mill and granery ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup>

- 6 Because On is allowed Compensation for his personal services, no such matter can be enquired into by the terms of the decree. Nor is such a charge proper in the cause. If so it barred by limitation as the benefit of it claimed.

1 Statement "R. &" is excepted to because, the work done on the race was permanent and Turner & wife should be charge only pro rata, on their life estate. The court takes large sums for permanent improvements on the race and treats them as repairs & averages them for ten years. The bill of particulars shows them to have been done in one year, or less. Therefore must have been improvements.

- 2 Because Moore should not be allowed full credit for Taxes; only  $\frac{3}{4}$ , or less.

- 3 Because On is allowed $120 for services, and no date given if for the 10 years is barred by limitation which is asked on for all over five years.

Statement "H O"

- 1 Is excepted to because the matters charged among others & the like are not necessary repairs nor is platform scales there having been none for the 10 years past, nor was such necessary, Besides the property being in litigation the occupant had not the right to increase his charges to unreasonable lengths for fanciful articles.
- 2 Because he was not entitled to services for superintending repairs that is what the Miller is paid for.
- 2 It is not conceded that the credit for Store House rent is a proper item in this Mill business it mentioned and should not be here brought in as as the plff claims no charge should be made against the mill for the erection of said Store House called also a granary no rents can be consistently claimed - But if the charge for building it is proper the claim for rent is proper.

Special Statements No 1 & 2 are excepted to, because erroneous in allowing improper charges for servicing and because the results arrived at are erroneous.
